Half-Dozen Votes Key To Issue

Labor Bill Fight Goes On As AFL-CIO Plan Loses

Steel Snubs Proposal It Slash Prices

Bowles' Suggestion Reported To Have Been Turned Down

WASHINGTON (AP)—The steel industry, it was reliably reported today, has rejected a suggestion that it cut steel prices $10 a ton in lieu of granting a wage increase in the current strike situation.

The suggestion was made by Rep. Chester A. Bowles (D-Conn) in a letter to President Eisenhower, who in turn had it referred directly to Chairman Roger Blough of the U.S. Steel Corp.

Blough is said to have turned down the idea on the ground that in settling the monthlong strike, the steel companies are going to have to give the strikers some sort of wage increase anyway.

So far the industry's position is that it cannot, in the public interest, increase steel labor costs and thus spur inflation. The striking United Steelworkers contend that this is an attempt to reverse traditional American economic policy that workers are entitled to regular sharing in profits.

Bowles told a reporter if the industry went along with his proposals, he felt sure the steelworkers union would have to abandon its wage increase demands in the public interest. Bowles was the government's World War II price administrator.

With steel negotiations continuing in a complete stalemate in New York, other facets of the situation became known.

1. The administration has no intention of invoking the Taft-Hartley law's national emergency provisions at least until Sept. 15 or Oct. 1. Officials are convinced there will be no sizable steel shortage until then.

2. Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, who is studying the strike situation as a fact-finder for Eisenhower, has conferred several times with top figures in the steel companies and striking union.

3. The union is convinced that with no settlement likely the government soon will have to intervene, either by invoking Taft-Hartley other method.

4. U.S. Steel revealed it has sent out a statement to striking employes saying the union has exaggerated the effect of steel management proposals to change work rules. U.S. Steel's statement said that from 1940 through 1958 its worker employment costs have risen 288 per cent while shipments of steel products increased only 30 per cent.

5. In reply the union said the work rules couldn't be too much of a problem at U.S. Steel because there have been only 135 cases involving work rules in U.S. Steel grievance procedures since 1947. Out of the 135 cases, the union said, the company won all but 23 in arbitration. Also, the union said industry profit per man-hour rose from $1.47 in 1957 to $2.28 in 1959, or an increase of 67 per cent.

House Beats Measure By Good Margin

Issue Now Between Democratic-Backed Action And Ike's Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The outcome of the bitter House battle over labor racketeering controls hung on a razor-thin balance today.

The result could be determined in a quick windup before nightfall — or drag on indefinitely. A half dozen votes could decide the issue.

The issue rested between a bill backed by Democratic leaders as a middle ground approach, and a more stringent measure personally supported by President Eisenhower.

As tempers flared, the House Wednesday defeated by an overwhelming 245-132 vote a measure carrying the official endorsement of the AFL-CIO and most other organized labor groups.

Sponsored by Rep. John F. Shelley (D-Calif), the labor-supported bill skirted the issues of bans on secondary boycotts, "hot cargo" agreements, and other points stressed by the President as essential to effective labor legislation.

Its defeat had been a foregone conclusion. Both Democratic and Republican leaders opposed it as failing to meet the test of anti-racketeering curbs.

The House also killed, by a 215-160 vote, an amendment proposed by Rep. Adam Caltyon Powell (D-NY) to prohibit segregation or denial of union rights on grounds of race, creed, color or national origin.

Critics charged the Powell amendment was designed to kill effective labor legislation by injecting civil rights issues. After a brief but sharp skirmish, the House agreed.

As battle was joined today, leaders estimated 10 or 15 undecided members held the balance of power in the teetering struggle over passage of a "tough" or "moderate" bill designed to insure the democratic rights of union members, require unions and employers to report their financial dealings, and cope with such disputed matters as boycotts, "blackmail" picketing and the duties of the National Labor Relations Board in minor side-line disputes.

Herter Submits Proposal

U.S. Urges Peace Board Be Set Up For Caribbean

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — The United States today proposed setting up a special peace committee to study the Caribbean crisis.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told a plenary session of the Inter-American Foreign Ministers' Conference that this committee would report to the 11th conference in Quito next February.

It would look into the causes of the tension that has spread throughout the area since Fidel Castro's forces took over Cuba Jan. 1.

"This committee might also be authorized to extend its cooperation to any of the states of that region in the solution of the problems that disturb their peaceful relations and which they are not able to resolve through direct negotiation," Herter said.

He called for a permanent organ of the Organization of American States such as the inter-American peace committee to consider problems of that sort that have plagued the Caribbean region before they reach the point of becoming threats to peace.

Seven Latin American governments at the conference already have declared they oppose interference by Castro and his Cuban revolutionaries in the affairs of other Caribbean nations.

Mexico's Manuel Tello was applauded when he warned the ministers to be "extraordinarily cautious" about changing the principle of nonintervention.

Tello emphasized that Mexico is a traditional supporter of nonintervention and he stressed the importance of the countries in the Western Hemisphere maintaining the principle strictly as well as giving it lip service.

Brazil, Colombia, the Doninican Republic, El Salvador, Guatemala and Costa Rica also spoke strongly in favor of continued adherence to the principle of nonintervention.

None of the speakers mentioned Castro or Cuba specifically. But the Cuban revolutionary, and to a lesser extent Venezuelan President Romulo Betancourt, have been generally accused with being chiefly responsible for the wave of unrest in the Caribbean.

Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa sat in silence. He will speak later.

Charges by the Dominican Republic that Cuba is the training ground for revolutionaries bent on foreign invasions led to the calling of the conference to discuss the crisis in the Caribbean.

Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro has given open moral support to revolutionists opposing dictatorial regimes. He has declared publicly he would not allow them to use Cuba as a springboard for invasions, but invasion forces have taken off from Cuba in unsuccessful attempts to overthrow Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo and President Ernesto de la Guardia Jr. of Panama.

The Panama government declared in a communique early today that it had been tipped another invasion plot against it is being hatched in Cuba.

Police Stand By In Case Any New Rifts Break Out At School

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Three Negro girls strolled back into Hall High School for a second day of integration there with only a slight stir from segregationists.

Before the three Negroes arrived, two attractive white girls drove by in a convertible bearing signs:

"Integration Is Communism" and "We Are For Faubus."

The 25 policemen standing by paid no attention to the car which did not stop.

Otherwise, the segregationists were quiet. Officers used clubs and fire hose on some 200 men, women and children near Central High School Wednesday to break up a mass protest.

Central reopens at 1 p. m. for its second day of integration. Only one Negro, Jefferson Thomas, 16, is expected there today. Elizabeth Eckford went the first day only to consult her counselor.

The three Negro girls walked into Hall at 9:26 a. m., four minutes before school opened. They came up in a black Cadillac driven by a Negro man. A Negro woman was in the front seat and the three girls were in the back.

The car moved up in the regular line of traffic, cars bumper to bumper with police directing them. The Negroes' car stopped at a corner 150 yards from the school's front door.

The Negro girls walked down the street, crossed a driveway and walked into the school.

Ten white boys came out on the front porch of the school. They sat on a railing as the Negro girls approached but they said nothing to them as they went in.

Castro Leads His Troops In Plot Roundup

The bearded Premier was reported to be in a mountainous area of Las Villas province 140 miles southeast of Havana. Authorities said revolutionary government troops had encircled a band of armed members of the conspiracy the Castro forces said they uncovered last week.

Castro flew to Cienfuegos Wednesday, then boarded a helicopter for the trip to the mountains between Cienfuegos and Trinidad. He was accompanied by Army chief Camilo Cienfuegos and Celia Sanchez, the Premier's secretary.

Castro forces continued to haul in persons for questioning about the alleged plot against the government which Castro's aides called a massive conspiracy. There still was no firm estimate of the number held, although Castro's brother Raul, commander in chief of the armed forces, several days ago put the figure at about 3,000.

Group Urges Fee Increase On Car Plates

Would Use Money To Help Pay For Road Improvement

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — County commissioners and other local officials today plugged for a 15-million-dollar a year boost in motor vehicle license tag fees to help pay for their road improvements.

They launched a drive for an annual increase in automobile license fees from $10 to $12.50, effective next year, before the Legislature takes final adjournment Friday.

That is the date for the 103rd General Assembly, that convened Jan. 7, to end one of the longest law-making sessions in state history.

A total of 388 new laws was enacted, out of the 1,602 measures introduced. Four more enactments are expected on the final day to correct minor errors in new laws.

Leaders said they had been urged to consider two other proposals. One would enable counties to build airports with bond money. The other would restore the nominal grain processors tax repealed during the regular session. Advocates said the shift to a personal property tax on grain stored for milling placed handlers at a competitive disadvantage with firms in other states bidding for St. Lawrence seaway trade.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has been promised consideration of his House-approved criminal conspiracy bill in the Senate but legislators expressed doubt over its enactment. The governor said the measure was needed to convict those behind the scenes in gambling and vice conditions like those under grand jury investigation in Stark County.

The Senate also will have a score of vetoes from the governor to consider. So far the Legislature has overridden only his veto of a "fair trade" enactment permitting manufacturers to set minimum retail prices for trade - marked items.

A number of administration appointments will be up for Senate confirmation. Several resolutions on legislative studies and other matters also are ready for action. More than a score of such resolutions were approved during working sessions.

Whether the Legislature will vote an increase in license tag fees apparently depends on the

Steubenville Police Keep Eye On Gaming

STEUBENVILLE — Saftey-Service Director Fred G. Owesney's order to police for a continuing check on suspected gambling establishments remained in effect today but there was no answer to this $64 question:

Can police obtain search warrants in wholesale lots.

Municipal Judge Brenner Levinson didn't have the answer. Neither did Police Prosecutor Robert Pulumbo, Common Pleas Judge John J. Grissinger of Jefferson County nor Prosecutor Bernard T. McCann.

Owesney directed Police Chief Ross Cunningham to have constant raids on 10 Steubenville places where gambling was suspected. The safety service director demanded daily reports of police checks, the names of police involved and the confiscation of gambling equipment if found.

Chou's Visit Vetoed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposed invitation to Red China Premier Chou En-lei to visit the United States has been vetoed by President Eisenhower, says Rep. Charles O. Porter (D-Ore). Porter, prompted by the coming visit of Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev, had suggested a similar exchange of visits between Chou and the President.

Alone In The Woods

He Was A 'Thinking Man' For Three Months In Exile

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Bernard J. Blechars, divorced and saying he was behind in his alimony payments, was troubled and fearful that police were looking for him. He went into the woods to think.

He stayed there three months.

Police found him along a highway Wednesday in fashionable suburban Bloomfield Hills. The 32-year-old Detroit shipping clerk's clothes were in rags. His hair and beard were matted with dirt.

He weighed 80 pounds. He was a husky 175 when he began his self-imposed exile from society May 9.

"I'm divorced," Blechars mumbled to incredulous officers. "I was behind in my alimony. I thought the police must be looking for me. I found this place. It looked like a pretty good place to me."

For three months, Blechars said, he ate apples and berries, drank water with his hands from a muddy creek and covered himself at night with a piece of plywood.

"I didn't do anything," he said. "I just thought."

He gave no reason for leaving the woods. Police said they had no warrant for his arrest.

The place in which he lived is a swampy, secluded spot within shouting distance of several houses belonging to the wealthy who live in the suburb.

Blechar's ex-wife, Nancy, 24, reported him missing the day he said he entered the woods. He had quit his job as a shipping clerk at a Detroit manufacturing firm about a week before. The Blechars, parents of a 4-year-old girl, were divorced in July 1958.

Physicians said Blechars, a Marine who served in the Pacific in World War II, was suffering from malnutrition and loss of weight but otherwise showed no ill effects from his experience.

Three Swept To Death By Undertow In Lake

PETOSKEY, Mich. (AP)—Two young brothers and their sister were swept to their deaths by an undertow Wednesday while wading in Lake Michigan.

Drowned were Connie Paige, 9, and her brothers Wayne, 8, and Gary, 7.

Judy Clark, 11, told state police the youngsters were wading fully clothed in about two feet of water when a big wave rolled in. She said all three were knocked off their feet and swept out into the bay.

House Group Votes Boost In Tax On Gas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee today voted a one-cent increase in federal gasoline tax effective Sept 1 to keep the super highway program going.

The extra levy would remain in effect for 22 months.

The committee voted also to divert to the highway fund some of the taxes now collected on automobiles and automobile parts.

The gas tax increase is less than the 1½ cents asked by President Eisenhower, but is estimated to be enough to maintain the rate of highway construction at close to its present level for the next three years.

The committee action broke a long deadlock over sources of revenue to keep construction moving on the 41,000-mile network.

Although the committee on previous occasions had repeatedly turned down further increases in the gasoline tax, it reversed itself today and voted 16-9 to boost the 3-cent motor fuel tax to 4 cents.

'We Will Not Quit!' McDonald Tells Rally

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers, says the steel industry mistakenly believes prolonging the 30-day-old basic steel walkout will send strikers "crawling to McDonald saying 'Please, go back!' "

At a union rally of 2,000 in Stambaugh Auditorium Wednesday, the white-haired McDonald suggested steel manufacturers "turn their mind's eye back to 1937."

That was the year of the bloody "little steel" strike in which the union sought recognition.

"We must remind them we did not quit in 1937. We went on to eventual victory, although it took four years," McDonald continued.

Then he boomed:

"If we didn't quit in 1937, by the eternal gods, we will never quit in 1959."

Homeworth Child, 12, Believed Polio Victim

SALEM — Gregory Whit, 12-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Whit of Homeworth, was admitted to Akron Children's Hospital Wednesday as a suspected polio patient.

His condition is reported as "fair." He had received three polio shots in 1958.

Man Is Killed, 4 Hurt Near Beaver Falls

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP)—An auto towing another car crossed the medial strip on the Pennsylvania Turnpike Wednesday night and crashed into a third vehicle. One man was killed and four other persons were injured.

Killed was Abe Attaway, 41, of Cleveland, Ohio. He was in a car being towed by Charles McKissick. The two vehicles collided with an auto driven by Virginia E. Connacher, 44, also of Cleveland. She and three passengers were hospitalized.

Man Crushed To Death When Truck Runs Wild

CLEVELAND (AP)—A driverless tractor-trailer rolled down an incline here today and crushed a truck driver to death against a parked car.

The victim, Andrew Kachovee, 51, had just stepped from his car, parked in front of the Ohio Highway Express Inc., where he worked.

The driver of the tractor-trailer, employed at the same concern, said he parked the truck at the curb and set the brake.

"I was in the garage when I looked up and saw the semi moving," he said and added:

"I ran down the hill after it but it was too late. The semi rammed into Kachovee's car and he was caught."

U.S. Urges Peace Board Be Set Up For Caribbean

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — The United States today proposed setting up a special peace committee to study the Caribbean crisis.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told a plenary session of the Inter-American Foreign Ministers' Conference that this committee would report to the 11th conference in Quito next February.

That is the date for the 103rd General Assembly, that convened Jan. 7, to end one of the longest law-making sessions in state history.

A total of 388 new laws was enacted, out of the 1,602 measures introduced. Four more enactments are expected on the final day to correct minor errors in new laws.

Leaders said they had been urged to consider two other proposals. One would enable counties to build airports with bond money. The other would restore the nominal grain processors tax repealed during the regular session. Advocates said the shift to a personal property tax on grain stored for milling placed handlers at a competitive disadvantage with firms in other states bidding for St. Lawrence seaway trade.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has been promised consideration of his House-approved criminal conspiracy bill in the Senate but legislators expressed doubt over its enactment. The governor said the measure was needed to convict those behind the scenes in gambling and vice conditions like those under grand jury investigation in Stark County.

The Senate also will have a score of vetoes from the governor to consider. So far the Legislature has overridden only his veto of a "fair trade" enactment permitting manufacturers to set minimum retail prices for trade - marked items.

A number of administration appointments will be up for Senate confirmation. Several resolutions on legislative studies and other matters also are ready for action. More than a score of such resolutions were approved during working sessions.

Whether the Legislature will vote an increase in license tag fees apparently depends on the

Issue Now Between Democratic-Backed Action And Ike's Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The outcome of the bitter House battle over labor racketeering controls hung on a razor-thin balance today.

The result could be determined in a quick windup before nightfall — or drag on indefinitely. A half dozen votes could decide the issue.

The issue rested between a bill backed by Democratic leaders as a middle ground approach, and a more stringent measure personally supported by President Eisenhower.

As tempers flared, the House Wednesday defeated by an overwhelming 245-132 vote a measure carrying the official endorsement of the AFL-CIO and most other organized labor groups.

Sponsored by Rep. John F. Shelley (D-Calif), the labor-supported bill skirted the issues of bans on secondary boycotts, "hot cargo" agreements, and other points stressed by the President as essential to effective labor legislation.

Its defeat had been a foregone conclusion. Both Democratic and Republican leaders opposed it as failing to meet the test of anti-racketeering curbs.

The House also killed, by a 215-160 vote, an amendment proposed by Rep. Adam Caltyon Powell (D-NY) to prohibit segregation or denial of union rights on grounds of race, creed, color or national origin.

Critics charged the Powell amendment was designed to kill effective labor legislation by injecting civil rights issues. After a brief but sharp skirmish, the House agreed.

As battle was joined today, leaders estimated 10 or 15 undecided members held the balance of power in the teetering struggle over passage of a "tough" or "moderate" bill designed to insure the democratic rights of union members, require unions and employers to report their financial dealings, and cope with such disputed matters as boycotts, "blackmail" picketing and the duties of the National Labor Relations Board in minor side-line disputes.

Man Is Killed, 4 Hurt Near Beaver Falls

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP)—An auto towing another car crossed the medial strip on the Pennsylvania Turnpike Wednesday night and crashed into a third vehicle. One man was killed and four other persons were injured.

Killed was Abe Attaway, 41, of Cleveland, Ohio. He was in a car being towed by Charles McKissick. The two vehicles collided with an auto driven by Virginia E. Connacher, 44, also of Cleveland. She and three passengers were hospitalized.

Man Crushed To Death When Truck Runs Wild

CLEVELAND (AP)—A driverless tractor-trailer rolled down an incline here today and crushed a truck driver to death against a parked car.

The victim, Andrew Kachovee, 51, had just stepped from his car, parked in front of the Ohio Highway Express Inc., where he worked.

The driver of the tractor-trailer, employed at the same concern, said he parked the truck at the curb and set the brake.

"I was in the garage when I looked up and saw the semi moving," he said and added:

"I ran down the hill after it but it was too late. The semi rammed into Kachovee's car and he was caught."

War I Veteran Claimed At 67

Melvin N. Booher, 523 Grant St., Newell, a World War I veteran and retired potter, died this morning at 2:32 at the U.S. Veterans Hospital at Aspinwall, where he has been a patient for 8 months. He was 67.

He was born in Tyler County, W. Va., and lived in Newell for 51 years. Before retiring in May 1953, because of ill health, he was employed as a jiggerman at the Homer Laughlin China Co. He was a member of the IBOP and American Legion Post 114 of Newell.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Booher at home; two sons, Ralph Booher and Phillip Booher, both of Newell; a brother, Ira Booher of Bellaire, and six grandchildren.

The East Liverpool Arner Home for Funerals is in charge of arrangements, which are incomplete.

David McKernan

David McKernan, 79, of Los Angeles, former city resident and brother of Hugh McKernan and Harwood McKernan, both of East Liverpool, died Tuesday night at a hospital there after an illness of 7 months.

He was born in Evansville, Ind., May 4, 1880, son of the late William F. and Mary Belle McKernan. At one time he operated restaurants in this area.

Other survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Nila Stein, with whom he resided; another daughter, Mrs. Earl Howard, and a son, Albert McKernan, both of Detroit, and three grandchildren.

Services and burial will be in Los Angeles Friday.

Narcotic Clinics Seen Savings For Taxpayer

CHICAGO (AP) — A Northwestern University professor says the taxpayer saves money by supporting Chicago's narcotics clinics, which have been costing the state government $65,000 a year.

Dr. Benjamin Boshes, chairman of Northwestern's department of neurology and psychiatry, cited figures showing that each addict costs the taxpayers $10,000 a year for crime losses, imprisonment costs, court expenses and other costs.

"In one of our clinics, we kept 12 addicts away from drugs for a year," Dr. Boshes said. "That represented a saving of $120,000 —or more than twice the cost of all the clinics to the state."

Hospital Gets Museum As Gift From Doctor

CHICAGO (AP) — Swedish Covenant Hospital has a new health-science museum, the gift of a physician who spent 10 years compiling the exhibits and models.

The museum is the gift of Dr. J. B. McCormick, pathologist and laboratory director at the hospital. He values the collection at $10,000.

Dr. McCormick made or directed the production of two films, about 50 plastic models and about 500 illustrations.

The exhibits will be used as teaching aids for physicians and nurses.

This Is For The Birds, Ohio Man Emphasizes

HOMER, Ohio (AP) — Early Hayes, 75, has carried out a one-man housing project, strictly for the birds.

Hayes has built 14 apartment houses for birds. Each apartment has a private entrance and is partitioned inside for privacy. Some of the bird buildings have as many as 38 rooms.

Engineer Has Trouble Getting Over 'Hump'

Mathis telephoned this terse report to the dispatcher.

"Train No. 15 hit a camel at Belleville and broke one of its legs

The dispatcher decided he wouldn't be outdone. He replied:

Mathis, remaining factual, answered:

"It has a hump on its back and it does not have a trunk."

The camel? Its leg was put in a cast.

Cumberland Man Held On Bad Check Charges

LISBON — Ralph Heath, 24, of New Cumberland R. D. 2 was bound over to the September Grand Jury Wednesday by County judge James L. MacDonald on a charge of issuing a bad check.

Heath pleaded guilty to passing a check issued in the name of William Vaughn for $81 on North Lima Trucking, Inc., and cashed by Clayton Baker of Hanoverton, the complainant.

Heath was released on $1,000 bond.

LOADED WITH TONS OF BEER CASES, a truck and trailer careened off the Soto St. overpass 30 feet above the heavily-traveled San Bernardino Freeway during the homeward-bound rush hour Wednesday, killing truck driver Michael Steck. Charges To Be Filed Against Nursing Home

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — Prosecutor O. H. Roberts Jr. said today he had prepared two charges involving operation of the Evansville Comfort Nursing Home where the Vanderburgh County grand jury reported patients' toenails were pulled out "as punishment for alleged misconduct."

The prosecutor declined to elaborate on the charges until warrants are served.

Roberts said Harold Barnes and his wife, Viola, are still operating the home although their staet license expired July 1. The prosecutor said the couple failed to file a renewal application within the required period but since had filed one, which is pending.

He said he did not know how many patients are in the home now but relatives had removed several during the grand jury investigation.

Mrs. Barnes said the accusations are untrue.

The jury report said also that patients were punished for bed wetting "by pouring a disinfectant upon parts of their bodies."

The report did not say how many patients were punished.

The Lionettes voted to donate to the Retarded Children's Fund and also welcomed three new members at a meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Blanche Orlando of R. D. 4.

New members are Mrs. Doris May, Mrs. Betty Gwenn and Mrs. Glenna Vargo.

The group also made plans to visit Crile Veterans' Hospital again and the Lions' fall festival was discussed.

The next meeting will be Sept. 9 at the home of Mrs. Thelma Culbertson of Maple St.

Giant Vacuum Sweeper Keeps Runways Clean

Even smallest debris, the company says, could cause damage to jet engines of its new 880 commercial transports during tests flights from the field.

Lausche Opposes Veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank J. Lausche (D-Ohio) and nine southern Democrats were instrumental Wednesday in defeating the Senate attempt to override President Eisenhower's omnibus housing bill veto. The 10 Democratic votes against overriding were decisive as the vote, 56-40, to go over the veto was nine short of the required two-thirds. Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio) was in the insufficient majority of 53 Democrats and two Republicans.

Charges Are Refuted By Hospital Trustees

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Trustees of Maumee Valley Hospital have denied statements that they failed to take steps to correct deficiencies at the Lucas County-operated institution.

Virgil Clark, president of the trustees, said the board repeatedly has tried to get more operating money from the state and county. At no time, he said, did the trustees have enough money to do adequate repairs and rehabilitation and provide enough employes.

Clark's answer was in reply to a resolution passed by the executive committee on the hospital's executive staff. The committee said the hospital was in danger of losing its accreditation.

West Virginia's 1958 football team posted a losing record (4-5-1) in 1958 yet averaged 26.8 points per game. The opposition averaged 20 points a game.

Block Of Marble Poses Big Puzzle

WASHINGTON (AP) — What they found in the Washington Monument is embarrassing both the housekeeping and historical branches of the government.

It's a 200-pound block of marble. As big as a suitcase, it has lain unnoticed in a corner of a stair well for something like 80 years. Workmen found it when they installed a new elevator several months ago.

The big stone is apparently one of 189 sent from different states, countries and societies when the monument was being built during the last century—the job took 36 years, being finished in 1884.

This one is inscribed "Carthage," and sure enough, one of the gift stones was from the ruins of ancient Carthage—donated by an individual. Only trouble is it was supposed to have been built into the monument with the other 188, and guide books list it there.

Why it wasn't is something Edmund J. Fitzgerald, superintendent and historian of the monument can only guess. He thinks it probably just got lost during the two decades between 1860 and 1880 when no work was done on the monument.

What's he going to do with it now? He doesn't have the answer to that, either.

Bar Association Says Court Hasn't Hurt U.S.

CHICAGO (AP) — The security of the United States has not been endangered by any Supreme Court decision, says the American Bar Assn. Committee on the Bill of Rights in a report made public Wednesday.

The ABA's Committee on Communist Tactics, Strategy and Objectives had referred to the court decisions as "illustrative of how our security has been weakened." A resolution, based on the report and adopted by the ABA House of Delegates in February, did not contain that phrase.

Barking Of Pet Collie Saves Family In Fire

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—The barking of their pet collie, Foxy, awakened Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Miller today in time to carry their three small children to safety from their blazing home here.

The dog was tied outside the house near the back door, where the fire apparently started from trash. By the time firemen arrived, the back wall and roof of the frame building was in flames. Damage was estimated at $2,000.

One of the 7 big bests Chevrolet gives you over any other car in its field

Anyone who's ever taken a Chevy over a choppy country road can tell you how lightly Chevrolet's Full Coil suspension handles rough going—and coil springs never squeak, never need grease! Try this velvet way of going for yourself. Once you do, you'll find your own way of saying what MOTOR TREND magazine puts this way: ". . . the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." But the happiest part of it all is that this Full Coil ride is just one of seven big bests—all documented by published opinions of experts and on-the-record facts and figures.

BEST ROOM—Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.* show that Chevrolet sedans offer more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars—more front seat hip room (by up to 5.9 inches) than the "other two" of the leading low-priced three.

BEST ENGINE—Chevrolet engines have long won expert praise from virtually every automobile magazine, and, just recently, Chevrolet received the NASCAR† Outstanding Achievement award for "the creation and continuing development of America's most efficient V-type engines."

BEST ECONOMY—A pair of Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide won their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, topping every other full-sized car. And the winning mileage was a whopping 22.38 m.p.g.

BEST BRAKES—Chevy's bonded-lining brakes are the biggest in their field, built for up to 66% longer life. In a direct competition conducted by NASCAR, Chevy outstopped both of the other leading low-priced cars in a test of repeated stops from highway speeds.

BEST STYLE—It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

BEST TRADE-IN—Any N.A.D.A.‡ Guide Book can give you the figures on Chevy's extra value. You'll find that Chevrolet used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two." Your Chevrolet dealer will be happy to tell you about a whole host of other advantages besides these seven. Why not drop by his showroom?

Charges To Be Filed Against Nursing Home

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — Prosecutor O. H. Roberts Jr. said today he had prepared two charges involving operation of the Evansville Comfort Nursing Home where the Vanderburgh County grand jury reported patients' toenails were pulled out "as punishment for alleged misconduct."

The prosecutor declined to elaborate on the charges until warrants are served.

Roberts said Harold Barnes and his wife, Viola, are still operating the home although their staet license expired July 1. The prosecutor said the couple failed to file a renewal application within the required period but since had filed one, which is pending.

He said he did not know how many patients are in the home now but relatives had removed several during the grand jury investigation.

Mrs. Barnes said the accusations are untrue.

The jury report said also that patients were punished for bed wetting "by pouring a disinfectant upon parts of their bodies."

The report did not say how many patients were punished.

The Lionettes voted to donate to the Retarded Children's Fund and also welcomed three new members at a meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Blanche Orlando of R. D. 4.

New members are Mrs. Doris May, Mrs. Betty Gwenn and Mrs. Glenna Vargo.

The group also made plans to visit Crile Veterans' Hospital again and the Lions' fall festival was discussed.

The next meeting will be Sept. 9 at the home of Mrs. Thelma Culbertson of Maple St.

Lausche Opposes Veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank J. Lausche (D-Ohio) and nine southern Democrats were instrumental Wednesday in defeating the Senate attempt to override President Eisenhower's omnibus housing bill veto. The 10 Democratic votes against overriding were decisive as the vote, 56-40, to go over the veto was nine short of the required two-thirds. Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio) was in the insufficient majority of 53 Democrats and two Republicans.

Charges Are Refuted By Hospital Trustees

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Trustees of Maumee Valley Hospital have denied statements that they failed to take steps to correct deficiencies at the Lucas County-operated institution.

Virgil Clark, president of the trustees, said the board repeatedly has tried to get more operating money from the state and county. At no time, he said, did the trustees have enough money to do adequate repairs and rehabilitation and provide enough employes.

Clark's answer was in reply to a resolution passed by the executive committee on the hospital's executive staff. The committee said the hospital was in danger of losing its accreditation.

Block Of Marble Poses Big Puzzle

WASHINGTON (AP) — What they found in the Washington Monument is embarrassing both the housekeeping and historical branches of the government.

It's a 200-pound block of marble. As big as a suitcase, it has lain unnoticed in a corner of a stair well for something like 80 years. Workmen found it when they installed a new elevator several months ago.

The big stone is apparently one of 189 sent from different states, countries and societies when the monument was being built during the last century—the job took 36 years, being finished in 1884.

This one is inscribed "Carthage," and sure enough, one of the gift stones was from the ruins of ancient Carthage—donated by an individual. Only trouble is it was supposed to have been built into the monument with the other 188, and guide books list it there.

Why it wasn't is something Edmund J. Fitzgerald, superintendent and historian of the monument can only guess. He thinks it probably just got lost during the two decades between 1860 and 1880 when no work was done on the monument.

What's he going to do with it now? He doesn't have the answer to that, either.

Bar Association Says Court Hasn't Hurt U.S.

CHICAGO (AP) — The security of the United States has not been endangered by any Supreme Court decision, says the American Bar Assn. Committee on the Bill of Rights in a report made public Wednesday.

The ABA's Committee on Communist Tactics, Strategy and Objectives had referred to the court decisions as "illustrative of how our security has been weakened." A resolution, based on the report and adopted by the ABA House of Delegates in February, did not contain that phrase.

Barking Of Pet Collie Saves Family In Fire

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—The barking of their pet collie, Foxy, awakened Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Miller today in time to carry their three small children to safety from their blazing home here.

The dog was tied outside the house near the back door, where the fire apparently started from trash. By the time firemen arrived, the back wall and roof of the frame building was in flames. Damage was estimated at $2,000.

One of the 7 big bests Chevrolet gives you over any other car in its field

Anyone who's ever taken a Chevy over a choppy country road can tell you how lightly Chevrolet's Full Coil suspension handles rough going—and coil springs never squeak, never need grease! Try this velvet way of going for yourself. Once you do, you'll find your own way of saying what MOTOR TREND magazine puts this way: ". . . the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." But the happiest part of it all is that this Full Coil ride is just one of seven big bests—all documented by published opinions of experts and on-the-record facts and figures.

BEST ROOM—Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.* show that Chevrolet sedans offer more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars—more front seat hip room (by up to 5.9 inches) than the "other two" of the leading low-priced three.

BEST ENGINE—Chevrolet engines have long won expert praise from virtually every automobile magazine, and, just recently, Chevrolet received the NASCAR† Outstanding Achievement award for "the creation and continuing development of America's most efficient V-type engines."

BEST ECONOMY—A pair of Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide won their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, topping every other full-sized car. And the winning mileage was a whopping 22.38 m.p.g.

BEST BRAKES—Chevy's bonded-lining brakes are the biggest in their field, built for up to 66% longer life. In a direct competition conducted by NASCAR, Chevy outstopped both of the other leading low-priced cars in a test of repeated stops from highway speeds.

BEST STYLE—It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

BEST TRADE-IN—Any N.A.D.A.‡ Guide Book can give you the figures on Chevy's extra value. You'll find that Chevrolet used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two." Your Chevrolet dealer will be happy to tell you about a whole host of other advantages besides these seven. Why not drop by his showroom?

Today The Shoe Is On The Other Foot

There is no time now to change the mind of any congressman about labor reform in this session of Congress.

The people's representatives will vote the way they have intended to vote all along, with only a few exceptions. The purpose of the frenzied lobbying that has been going on in Washington is to make certain that no last-minute changes of heart occur. There must be a minimum of exceptions.

The labor-reform showdown is a partisan issue in the sense that Democrats have been getting the bulk of union money and union doorbell support. Aside from that, it is essentially an issue over the balance of power between organized labor and management.

Twenty years ago — and more — an era ended in which management had been allowed to ride too high in the saddle for the country's good. The balance of power was lopsided in management's favor.

A series of laws and labor-slanted interpretations of law began to correct the balance. By 1947, when the Taft-Hartley Act was passed, there had been an over-correction, to the point where it was necessary to spell out in one law what the rights of each side were at that time.

TODAY, it is necessary to spell out more clearly than it has been spelled out before what organized labor may not do under the rights granted to it by the federal government.

Abuses that have grown up in the last half generation cannot be shrugged off any longer as the mischievous acts of fun-loving, overenthusiastic roustabouts operating on the fringes of the labor movement.

There is a need at this time for Congress to do with organized labor what it finally had to do with organized enterprise early in this century when it spelled out in the Sherman Act what no longer would be permissible.

Once again, the United States is protecting the general welfare against the threat of widespread damage by a determined and resourceful minority of its citizens.

BUT IT IS no easier now than it was then. It is harder, in fact, because the United States is vastly larger than it was when the Sherman Act was passed. Pressures are more subtle — and stronger. The labor movement, itself, has developed in this century; it had no counterpart when the "barons" and "monopolists" were kicking people around in the 19th century.

Today the labor movement can tell the public to be "damned." James R. Hoffa can comment, "To hell with them," when told what senators have said about the way he runs the Teamsters Union.

It is all very confusing, just as it was when Congress was trying to protect the American people against the excesses of management. But the same rules of thumb are valid.

The way to tell who believes what is to look at the lineup.

The proposals before the House of Representatives that are agreeable to men like Teamsters president Hoffa cannot be taken seriously; Hoffa is not a labor reformer. He is the problem, not the solution.

Conversely, the proposals that are resisted by all the labor leaders, including Hoffa, must be taken seriously because they would put into effect the kind of reform labor leaders do not want. Labor leaders cannot be trusted to pick the laws that are needed in this instance.

As to the claim that the laws might hurt honest unionists as well as dishonest unionists, the same argument has been used against every law ever proposed, including the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution, which is for the protection of honest citizens but has been used time after time by one kind of unionist to protect dishonesty.

Never A Shortage Of Faubuses

Only one thing about the 1959 attitude of Gov. Orval E. Faubus toward token integration in Little Rock, Ark., schools can be foretold with certainty.

It will be bitter opposition cloaked in sweet reasonableness and violent hatred running in alternate stripes to make a garment that he will gather about him with impressive dignity.

Every move he will make will be calculated to do him the greatest possible amount of political good with the people whose votes he depends on to keep his public career intact. He will be indifferent to his critics in the integration issue, knowing they are a helpless minority. His interest will lie solely in the reaction of the majority of voters in Arkansas and in other Deep South states whose racist lightning conceivably might form itself into one massive outburst of reaction and hit him with a third-party presidential nomination in 1960.

It is not enough, however, to understand that Orval Faubus, a politician by choice, chooses to behave like a politician. That is the way he pursues his career.

He cannot be blamed for doing what needs to be done in his prejudiced view of a public problem any more than any other politician can be blamed for saving his own skin.

The problem is how to keep the United States from being swamped with an oversupply of Faubuses in high office. Political expediency is not peculiar to race prejudice in the South. It is the motive of the jabbering politico who votes to spend umpsteen billion dollars but shies away from collecting an equivalent amount in taxes—the curious antic currently threatening to ruin the federal highway program because congressmen are afraid to collect what they are itching to spend.

It is the motive of the craven cowards of politics who, to save their skins, will vote against the obvious public interest and general welfare, because they are the willing prisoners of some narrow-centered minority.

Political expediency can be as much a curse to the United States as it finally came to be to the Fourth Republic of France—the one that finally was destroyed by politicians who never looked further than the next vote. There never has been a shortage of Faubuses in politics.

Khrushchev Would Be Impressed

The first thought, that everything possible must be done to settle the steel strike, or at least get the steel plants in operation before Premier Khrushchev gets here, is yielding to a second thought.

Khrushchev would be as impressed by a steel strike as anything he could be shown in a country where the people have the sovereign power. It would be the one thing he never would expect to see in the Soviet Union.

Here would be a deep-dish mystery to an authoritarian—how a million people could walk off their jobs and stay off them without any violence and without even any immediate effect on the national economy.

It would have to be explained to the visitor that many of these workers in time would be forced to live on public relief; that in many instances they were receiving favors from their employers while on strike; that they collected various benefits from the enterprise they were paralyzing.

It would be useful for him to know that at one time steel strikes were violent, but that in more recent times there had come to be an acceptaace of self-determination as the governing rule of such things. Even the President of the United States now can take the attitude that if workers do not want to work that is their business and that eventually there will be a resumption of work because that is the way men are constituted.

If the steel strike is still in progress when Khrushchev arrives the middle of next month, he would be impressed with the extent to which self-determination is honored in a free country. If the strike were to be ended arbitrarily, or suspended until he leaves, Khrushchev would be entitled to the chuckle any visitor would be entitled to if he found orange peelings swept under the rug to get them out of sight.

For The Drill Team

The members of Pvt. Eddy Post 66, Veterans of Foreign Wars, have launched a campaign to send their championship drill team to national competition at Los Angeles later this month.

The team is worthy of every possible support, having brought deserving recognition to East Liverpool on many, many occasions, with a national championship the climax.

The post will sponsor a Tag Day Aug. 22. Because of their frequency, such days have begun to leave a bad taste in the mouths of many people. Regardless, most are worthy. And the appeal of the VFW certainly falls in this category.

The Once Over

Dear Mom: Well, I send you a picture of me in my new all-purpose uniform. All I can say is that if war comes it will be over before I can get it on and test all parts.

The sarge took one gander at me and yellowed, "Okay; from now on I am off the hard stuff." I look like a cross between an iron stove, a Jules Verne underseas character and Dracula going to a masquerade party thrown by the American Hardware Merchants. It is the first army uniform that has to be buttoned and unbuttoned by a blowtorch and Stillson wrench.

It has everything except an instrument board, ash trays, a clock, dual ignition and windshield wipers, which I guess I can get if I want to pay for extras. I felt so uncomfortable in it that I complained to the lieutenant, who jacked me up, looked me over from underneath and said I had a bent exhaust pipe.

I asked an officer how do I eat and he said it was not necessary for a GI in this uniform to eat and that all I would need was oil and gas.

He told me not to worry about anything and that if I got a command "on the double" I would be fit to bring down guided missiles, stop tanks, brush-off atomic bombs, sink a submarine and make Hurricane Emma surrender. In addition I can boil an egg by electronics, do KP under fire and see my dentist twice a year by violet ray.

The costume was designed by Boris Karloff from suggestions by Alfred Hitchcock. Still I should not kick. The Army will give me the whole uniform when I am discharged so I can make a living haunting houses.

Love to pop,
Oscar

U.S. Shuns Opportunities In Africa

By Victor Riesel

FORT PORTAL, Kingdon of Toro

Today I am a full fledged foreign correspondent. I'm full of secret documents and anti-malaria pills and shots and I'm not certain they're working. I have crossed cobra country and leopards' lairs. I'm with my documents in an isolated spot in the Ruwenzori Mountains — (Mountain Kingdom of the Moon). Like Dr. Livingstone writing prescriptions, this is being put down under kerosene lamps.

Victor Riesel

I prefer Paris. But there you can't pick up the details of the Soviet-United Arab Republic strategy for launching a Pan-African labor federation which can enlist some 50-million workers. With this federation as a base on this continent, where labor organization is the basis of power for most African leaders, the Soviet-Arab combine can capture independent governments by infiltration, innocent fronts and direct labor action — meaning muscle and general strikes.

THE DOCUMENTS before me show that there already is the groundwork for such a labor network. It's known to some here but virtually unknown in the United States except to two or three men inside the AFL-CIO.

The Soviet-Arab outfit is referred to in these documents as "UCTAN." These are the initials of French words which, when translated, mean the General Union of Workers in Black Africa. UCTAN began in French Africa and its most powerful support comes from the Nigerian unions operating among 36 million people.

On the surface the UCTAN people are not for or against the West or the Soviets. They say they're neutral. But there's documentation of strong Communist influence exerted through the Egyptians — who still are the fronts for the Communists from the Mediterranean right on down to the border of the Union of South Africa.

The Egyptians — who are loudly anti-Catholic and anti-Jewish, of course, have let it be known that they are ready to finance a Pan-African labor conference. They would use this to snare all independent unions they can get into a continental Pan-African federation of labor.

The Egyptians are taking orders from the Soviet through something called the Afro-Asian Solidarity Permanent Secretariat in Cairo.

There is also the African General Union, which is sort of a holding company for unions in French Africa. It's Marxist and heavily infiltrated and influenced by Communists sent in by the powerful French Communist labor headquarters in Paris.

TO UNDERSTAND how things work on this continent, it is important to know that one of the leaders of the African General Union was, and is, Sekou Toure. He wears two hats. He is president of the new nation of Guinea and president of the African General Union. He is avowedly and actively Marxist in the full meaning of that anti-capitalist doctrine.

It's that way all over Africa. Political parties everywhere here are new — or illegal. Therefore, the heads of the new labor movements swiftly become the leading African figures — and within two or three years will be prime ministers of their countries, such as in Kenya where the national labor chief, Tom Mboya, is on our side.

The Russians believe that if they can capture the new labor movements and weave them into a united federation, the Soviets can capture a United States of Africa if it is ever launched.

Against this we are putting up a small educational opportunity some 50-million Africans. I visited the college and talked with its hard-working self-sacrificing professors drawn in from across the world.

They have 35 students. Many of them are ill a good deal of the time—as the labor college's infirmary records show. So they're not in class as much as they should be. And in class, the pupils are so new at labor action that one day last week I noted on the blackboard that the professor had written "51 out of 100 is a majority."

There are thousands of Africans eager to be trained by us and to help us fight the cold war. I've met scores of them.

As usual, our side is too busy to make more than a gesture until we've worked ourselves into a shooting war. A few bucks and a little real attention could save us a continent — and we have mighty few left you know.

Ike's Four Objectives

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

What's behind President Eisenhower's invitation to Premier Nikita Khrushchev to visit him in the United States?

One thing is sure: This meeting will delay a showdown on Berlin where the Soviet Union has threatened to force Allied troops out of the city.

But the following — except for background material in parentheses — expresses the President's views.

The diplomatic situation could not get worse. There aren't any more cards to play. Eisenhower wants to get something moving, although he hopes no one will expect miracles.

Only two roads to the future are open:

1. Either you go along the road of the armaments race by which you defeat yourself or end up with the cataclysm of war, or—

2. You try the road of mediation in the hope some way can be found to solve problems.

The President and the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles had talked many times about the idea of inviting the Soviet leader to the United States. They agreed it might be done when it would serve a useful purpose.

The President has very modest hopes for any concrete results from Khrushchev's visit here. He considers him woefully ignorant about the United States. But Eisenhower has four main objectives in inviting him:

1. To get him to understand more accurately what the United States is.

At his news conference Wednesday, for instance, the President explained he would like to take Khrushchev on a helicopter flight over Washington to show him the thousands of small homes around Washington, homes like the model on display at the American fair in Moscow.

The President would also like Khrushchev to see the parking lot at the Willow Run auto plant because he didn't believe it when Vice President Richard M. Nixon told him there were 60 million cars in this country.

2. The President would like to improve the climate of international relations in the hope there can be some productive negotiations with him.

He considered as hopeless the many weeks of negotiations this summer at Geneva among the American - British - French - Soviet foreign ministers on Berlin, where Khrushchev has threatened to force the Allied troops out.

Eisenhower looked upon the foreign ministers and their governments — in their performance at Geneva — as handcuffed and chained to a wall: they couldn't move. Eisenhower wants to see this situation changed.

He would like to see the foreign ministers get back to negotiating but next time with some hope of success.

(He emphasizes he and Khrushchev won't negotiate but just talk things over. He seems fixed on the idea that negotiations should be carried out by ministers. Some people feel any Eisenhower-Khrushchev talks are in effect negotiations.)

3. Eisenhower hopes that in his meeting with Khrushchev that Khrushchev may come up with some new ideas, if he has any, on the Berlin situation. The President will be receptive to new ideas and he will listen to them.

But then he will discuss them with this country's allies. He regards his meeting with Khrushchev as a probing operation.

4. In this upcoming meeting Eisenhower hopes to use his prestige to demonstrate to the rest of the world and particularly the uncommitted countries that the United States is actively seeking peaceful solutions of world problems.

If the Soviets try to create an impression a deal was being made between him and Khrushchev, Eisenhower will not hesitate to issue a public denial.

Eisenhower (this is the stand he has taken for months) is prepared to go to a summit meeting only if there is real hope based on prior progress. He thinks it possible that enough may come of his meeting with Khrushchev to warrant a summit meeting before he goes to Moscow later this year to return Khrushchev's visit.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — The Larkins Club was organized in the home of Mrs. W. S. Cooper on Oliver St.

Some 85 grade school teachers of the Chester area attended the opening session of the county institute at New Cumberland.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Principal A. H. Eccles announced that enrollment in East Liverpool High School would hit a new high during the 1939-40 term.

About 10,000 attended the tri-state picnic at Rock Springs sponsored the East Liverpool Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Members of the Wellsville Volunteer Fire Department made plans for a house-to-house drive to raise funds for new equipment.

TEN YEARS AGO — The Columbiana County Grange gained 207 members over a period of six months.

Deputy Sheriff Robert Beresford of Arthur Ave. was installed as commander of Wellsville American Legion Post 70.

William A. Popp of Oakmont visited his brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Swickard of Pomona, Calif.

Nebuchadnezzar was the Biblical king who ate grass like an ox.

Human Rights Foremost

By David Lawrence

Will Senate And House Do Their Duty?

Are the American people really aware of the disgraceful conduct of certain labor union leaders and of the menace which they present today to this country? Will the public be fooled by the claim that corrective legislation is not needed because there are only a few gangsters and by the propaganda cry that legitimate unionism might be harmed by new laws?

David Lawrence

The answers to these questions deal with a phase of human rights that is more important than any other problem now before Congress. For if public opinion falters after the sensational disclosures by the Senate investigating committee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, (D-Ark), then a period of labor anarchy and underworld tyranny may be expected to develop in the coming years.

President Eisenhower has appealed to the nation to back him as he asks that members of Congress, irrespective of party, be told by the people that the country wants strong legislation to correct abuses.

The type of thing which, unfortunately, the labor unions themselves have been unable to remedy is fully explained by the report of the McClellan committee.

IN COMMENTING on the affairs of the Teamsters Union — the largest in the country — the committee report says in part:

"The power of the Teamsters Union president is so extraordinary that the committee finds the fact this power is now lodged in the hands of a man such as Hoffa tragic for the Teamsters Union and dangerous for the country at large . . .

"In fact, the 1958 hearings produced testimony of an even more sordid nature than that of the previous year.

"Ignominy was piled on ignominy as the testimony wove through stories of violence, financial manipulations, callous repression of democratic rights and racketeer control.

"This is an ugly situation. The continuing attitude of Hoffa and other Teamster leaders that they are above the law can only serve to intensify the apprehensions of decent union members and decent people throughout the country. . . .

"Time and time again the committee has found Hoffa to be faithless to the members of his own union. He has betrayed these members so frequently that it has become abundantly clear that Hoffa's chief interest is his own advancement and that of his friends and cronies — a great number of whom are racketeers. . . .

"In addition, Heffa has used union funds for his own benefit and that of his friends.

"Hoffa has consistently supported the interests of racketeer friends over those of his own members.

"Hoffa and his chief aides have consistently repressed democratic rights within the union.

"Hoffa has connived with and maneuvered union insurance to racketeer friends, bringing these friends gigantic profits. While the cost of insurance has risen, the benefits to the members of his union were drastically reduced.

"In the history of this country it would be hard to find a labor leader who has so shamelessly abused his members or his trust. . . .

"The committee is convinced that if Hoffa remains unchecked, he will successfully destroy the decent labor movement in the United States. Further than that, because of the tremendous economic power of the Teamsters, it will place the underworld in a position to dominate American economic life in a period when the vitality of the American economy is necessary to this country's preservation in an era of world crisis. This Hoffa cannot be allowed to do."

WHAT HAVE the decent labor union leaders done about all this? They have, of course, criticized Hoffa and have deplored what he has done. But they are not willing to back the kind of legislation President Eisenhower says is really needed to prevent Hoffa and his ilk from continuing to exploit the rank and file of American workingmen.

No group likes restrictive legislation. Big business doesn't like anti-monopoly laws and big unionism doesn't like the prospect of any restriction either. But it is the public as a whole which is damaged by any abuses of power exercised by private groups.

It will be interesting to see whether the majority in Congress will rise to the occasion or whether the labor unions, with their political pull and promises of bigger campaign contributions to those who do their bidding, will be able to scare members of the House and Senate away from the legislation that ought to be passed in order to end the rule of dictators, tyrants and crooks inside the labor union movement in free America.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

After reading what goes on in New York City routinely, I think the saying should be changed like this: "I think it's a safe place to visit, but I wouldn't risk living there."

There is only one phrase to describe the situation in a sovereign state whose decent citizens are being manhandled by a political mob yapping at the heels of a governor whose mental mixup is palpable. The phrase is "political obscenity."

Is it Secretary of State Herter's unusual height that makes it impossible for cameramen to get a decent picture of his face when he is making public statements?

One of the more amusing categories of conversation is to think of things that once were sensational and gripping which today would be considered either naive or downright funny, such as "human fly" exhibitions and balloon ascensions.

The way quince bushes grow is remindful of the gnarled and twisted appearance of those dwarf trees the clever little Japanese grow in their incredible little miniature gardens for their own small delight.

Whenever I pass a schoolhouse at this time of the year, I marvel at the efficient manner in which all those kids, teachers, rolling equipment and supplies will be rounded up for the beginning of school after Labor Day. Nowhere else does such a massive project get under way so smoothly.

A national dope - piece magazine has come out with the information that the auto industry's new light cars will be bought by the same kind of reasonably well-to-do people who bought the old heavy ones. I cannot figure out what is unusual about this. What other kind of people could buy new cars?

In preparation for my annual game of horseshoes, which will be played sometime during the forthcoming family reunion, I wanted to mow a strip of grass in the meadow and was so carried away by the neat effect that I mowed an acre, which is about the cleared space I need when I throw a horseshoe.

I refuse to play the game called "What To Show Khrushchev." My notion of the way to do it would be to let the real Khrushchev see what he wanted to see while a stand-in looked at all the setups our eye-poppers are lining up to bowl over the skeptical Premier of the Soviet Union.

Herbert Hoover and his charming wife, Lou Henry Hoover, seem to me to have been the outstanding personalities in the White House during my lifetime. Latest addition to my reasons for believing so is the fact Mrs. Hoover left a letter to her sons when she died in 1944, telling them why it had been their great good fortune to have had her husband for their father.

If you want to get into an aimless discussion, try to figure out whether your brother's wife is your wife's sister-in-law as well as your own sister-in-law. Webster's says she is, but then turns around and says the husband of my wife's sister would not be my brother-in-law. At this point, of course, it was pointed out that my wife does not have a sister, though I have a brother, so there . . .

Due to freakish weather conditions where we live, I am looking forward to what may be something never seen before — snow on bean blossoms.

A weather statistic that could be fixed up anywhere is New York City's gallonage total during rainstorms. It goes like this: For each inch of rainfall per acre there are 27,143 gallons. The city's total acreage is 202,240. In a recent fall of 2.18 inches, therefore, the city got 12,085,236,177.6 gallons.

I thought — and still do — that Fidel Castro's revolution was justifiable and that if he hadn't led it someone else would have had led it because conditions under Batista were intolerable. But Castro is going to come a cropper over finances, the Achilles heel of revolutionists who get carried away by indignation and forget to worry about indigency.

Today The Shoe Is On The Other Foot

There is no time now to change the mind of any congressman about labor reform in this session of Congress.

The people's representatives will vote the way they have intended to vote all along, with only a few exceptions. The purpose of the frenzied lobbying that has been going on in Washington is to make certain that no last-minute changes of heart occur. There must be a minimum of exceptions.

The labor-reform showdown is a partisan issue in the sense that Democrats have been getting the bulk of union money and union doorbell support. Aside from that, it is essentially an issue over the balance of power between organized labor and management.

Twenty years ago — and more — an era ended in which management had been allowed to ride too high in the saddle for the country's good. The balance of power was lopsided in management's favor.

A series of laws and labor-slanted interpretations of law began to correct the balance. By 1947, when the Taft-Hartley Act was passed, there had been an over-correction, to the point where it was necessary to spell out in one law what the rights of each side were at that time.

TODAY, it is necessary to spell out more clearly than it has been spelled out before what organized labor may not do under the rights granted to it by the federal government.

Abuses that have grown up in the last half generation cannot be shrugged off any longer as the mischievous acts of fun-loving, overenthusiastic roustabouts operating on the fringes of the labor movement.

There is a need at this time for Congress to do with organized labor what it finally had to do with organized enterprise early in this century when it spelled out in the Sherman Act what no longer would be permissible.

Once again, the United States is protecting the general welfare against the threat of widespread damage by a determined and resourceful minority of its citizens.

BUT IT IS no easier now than it was then. It is harder, in fact, because the United States is vastly larger than it was when the Sherman Act was passed. Pressures are more subtle — and stronger. The labor movement, itself, has developed in this century; it had no counterpart when the "barons" and "monopolists" were kicking people around in the 19th century.

Today the labor movement can tell the public to be "damned." James R. Hoffa can comment, "To hell with them," when told what senators have said about the way he runs the Teamsters Union.

It is all very confusing, just as it was when Congress was trying to protect the American people against the excesses of management. But the same rules of thumb are valid.

The way to tell who believes what is to look at the lineup.

The proposals before the House of Representatives that are agreeable to men like Teamsters president Hoffa cannot be taken seriously; Hoffa is not a labor reformer. He is the problem, not the solution.

Conversely, the proposals that are resisted by all the labor leaders, including Hoffa, must be taken seriously because they would put into effect the kind of reform labor leaders do not want. Labor leaders cannot be trusted to pick the laws that are needed in this instance.

As to the claim that the laws might hurt honest unionists as well as dishonest unionists, the same argument has been used against every law ever proposed, including the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution, which is for the protection of honest citizens but has been used time after time by one kind of unionist to protect dishonesty.

Never A Shortage Of Faubuses

Only one thing about the 1959 attitude of Gov. Orval E. Faubus toward token integration in Little Rock, Ark., schools can be foretold with certainty.

It will be bitter opposition cloaked in sweet reasonableness and violent hatred running in alternate stripes to make a garment that he will gather about him with impressive dignity.

Every move he will make will be calculated to do him the greatest possible amount of political good with the people whose votes he depends on to keep his public career intact. He will be indifferent to his critics in the integration issue, knowing they are a helpless minority. His interest will lie solely in the reaction of the majority of voters in Arkansas and in other Deep South states whose racist lightning conceivably might form itself into one massive outburst of reaction and hit him with a third-party presidential nomination in 1960.

It is not enough, however, to understand that Orval Faubus, a politician by choice, chooses to behave like a politician. That is the way he pursues his career.

He cannot be blamed for doing what needs to be done in his prejudiced view of a public problem any more than any other politician can be blamed for saving his own skin.

The problem is how to keep the United States from being swamped with an oversupply of Faubuses in high office. Political expediency is not peculiar to race prejudice in the South. It is the motive of the jabbering politico who votes to spend umpsteen billion dollars but shies away from collecting an equivalent amount in taxes—the curious antic currently threatening to ruin the federal highway program because congressmen are afraid to collect what they are itching to spend.

It is the motive of the craven cowards of politics who, to save their skins, will vote against the obvious public interest and general welfare, because they are the willing prisoners of some narrow-centered minority.

Political expediency can be as much a curse to the United States as it finally came to be to the Fourth Republic of France—the one that finally was destroyed by politicians who never looked further than the next vote. There never has been a shortage of Faubuses in politics.

Khrushchev Would Be Impressed

The first thought, that everything possible must be done to settle the steel strike, or at least get the steel plants in operation before Premier Khrushchev gets here, is yielding to a second thought.

Khrushchev would be as impressed by a steel strike as anything he could be shown in a country where the people have the sovereign power. It would be the one thing he never would expect to see in the Soviet Union.

Here would be a deep-dish mystery to an authoritarian—how a million people could walk off their jobs and stay off them without any violence and without even any immediate effect on the national economy.

It would have to be explained to the visitor that many of these workers in time would be forced to live on public relief; that in many instances they were receiving favors from their employers while on strike; that they collected various benefits from the enterprise they were paralyzing.

It would be useful for him to know that at one time steel strikes were violent, but that in more recent times there had come to be an acceptaace of self-determination as the governing rule of such things. Even the President of the United States now can take the attitude that if workers do not want to work that is their business and that eventually there will be a resumption of work because that is the way men are constituted.

If the steel strike is still in progress when Khrushchev arrives the middle of next month, he would be impressed with the extent to which self-determination is honored in a free country. If the strike were to be ended arbitrarily, or suspended until he leaves, Khrushchev would be entitled to the chuckle any visitor would be entitled to if he found orange peelings swept under the rug to get them out of sight.

For The Drill Team

The members of Pvt. Eddy Post 66, Veterans of Foreign Wars, have launched a campaign to send their championship drill team to national competition at Los Angeles later this month.

The team is worthy of every possible support, having brought deserving recognition to East Liverpool on many, many occasions, with a national championship the climax.

The post will sponsor a Tag Day Aug. 22. Because of their frequency, such days have begun to leave a bad taste in the mouths of many people. Regardless, most are worthy. And the appeal of the VFW certainly falls in this category.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

("Army uniform and equipment for the GI of tomorrow has anti-fallout hood, radar, electronics equipment, rifle, anti-tank bazooka, bulletproof fabrics, field-glasses, air propulsion gadgets, two-way radio, helmet, etc. which makes foot soldier fit for any kind of war."—News item.)

Dear Mom: Well, I send you a picture of me in my new all-purpose uniform. All I can say is that if war comes it will be over before I can get it on and test all parts.

The sarge took one gander at me and yellowed, "Okay; from now on I am off the hard stuff." I look like a cross between an iron stove, a Jules Verne underseas character and Dracula going to a masquerade party thrown by the American Hardware Merchants. It is the first army uniform that has to be buttoned and unbuttoned by a blowtorch and Stillson wrench.

It has everything except an instrument board, ash trays, a clock, dual ignition and windshield wipers, which I guess I can get if I want to pay for extras. I felt so uncomfortable in it that I complained to the lieutenant, who jacked me up, looked me over from underneath and said I had a bent exhaust pipe.

I asked an officer how do I eat and he said it was not necessary for a GI in this uniform to eat and that all I would need was oil and gas.

He told me not to worry about anything and that if I got a command "on the double" I would be fit to bring down guided missiles, stop tanks, brush-off atomic bombs, sink a submarine and make Hurricane Emma surrender. In addition I can boil an egg by electronics, do KP under fire and see my dentist twice a year by violet ray.

The costume was designed by Boris Karloff from suggestions by Alfred Hitchcock. Still I should not kick. The Army will give me the whole uniform when I am discharged so I can make a living haunting houses.

Love to pop,
Oscar

U.S. Shuns Opportunities In Africa

By Victor Riesel

FORT PORTAL, Kingdon of Toro

Today I am a full fledged foreign correspondent. I'm full of secret documents and anti-malaria pills and shots and I'm not certain they're working. I have crossed cobra country and leopards' lairs. I'm with my documents in an isolated spot in the Ruwenzori Mountains — (Mountain Kingdom of the Moon). Like Dr. Livingstone writing prescriptions, this is being put down under kerosene lamps.

Victor Riesel

I prefer Paris. But there you can't pick up the details of the Soviet-United Arab Republic strategy for launching a Pan-African labor federation which can enlist some 50-million workers. With this federation as a base on this continent, where labor organization is the basis of power for most African leaders, the Soviet-Arab combine can capture independent governments by infiltration, innocent fronts and direct labor action — meaning muscle and general strikes.

THE DOCUMENTS before me show that there already is the groundwork for such a labor network. It's known to some here but virtually unknown in the United States except to two or three men inside the AFL-CIO.

The Soviet-Arab outfit is referred to in these documents as "UCTAN." These are the initials of French words which, when translated, mean the General Union of Workers in Black Africa. UCTAN began in French Africa and its most powerful support comes from the Nigerian unions operating among 36 million people.

On the surface the UCTAN people are not for or against the West or the Soviets. They say they're neutral. But there's documentation of strong Communist influence exerted through the Egyptians — who still are the fronts for the Communists from the Mediterranean right on down to the border of the Union of South Africa.

The Egyptians — who are loudly anti-Catholic and anti-Jewish, of course, have let it be known that they are ready to finance a Pan-African labor conference. They would use this to snare all independent unions they can get into a continental Pan-African federation of labor.

The Egyptians are taking orders from the Soviet through something called the Afro-Asian Solidarity Permanent Secretariat in Cairo.

There is also the African General Union, which is sort of a holding company for unions in French Africa. It's Marxist and heavily infiltrated and influenced by Communists sent in by the powerful French Communist labor headquarters in Paris.

TO UNDERSTAND how things work on this continent, it is important to know that one of the leaders of the African General Union was, and is, Sekou Toure. He wears two hats. He is president of the new nation of Guinea and president of the African General Union. He is avowedly and actively Marxist in the full meaning of that anti-capitalist doctrine.

It's that way all over Africa. Political parties everywhere here are new — or illegal. Therefore, the heads of the new labor movements swiftly become the leading African figures — and within two or three years will be prime ministers of their countries, such as in Kenya where the national labor chief, Tom Mboya, is on our side.

The Russians believe that if they can capture the new labor movements and weave them into a united federation, the Soviets can capture a United States of Africa if it is ever launched.

Against this we are putting up a small educational opportunity some 50-million Africans. I visited the college and talked with its hard-working self-sacrificing professors drawn in from across the world.

They have 35 students. Many of them are ill a good deal of the time—as the labor college's infirmary records show. So they're not in class as much as they should be. And in class, the pupils are so new at labor action that one day last week I noted on the blackboard that the professor had written "51 out of 100 is a majority."

There are thousands of Africans eager to be trained by us and to help us fight the cold war. I've met scores of them.

As usual, our side is too busy to make more than a gesture until we've worked ourselves into a shooting war. A few bucks and a little real attention could save us a continent — and we have mighty few left you know.

Ike's Four Objectives

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

What's behind President Eisenhower's invitation to Premier Nikita Khrushchev to visit him in the United States?

One thing is sure: This meeting will delay a showdown on Berlin where the Soviet Union has threatened to force Allied troops out of the city.

But the following — except for background material in parentheses — expresses the President's views.

The diplomatic situation could not get worse. There aren't any more cards to play. Eisenhower wants to get something moving, although he hopes no one will expect miracles.

Only two roads to the future are open:

1. Either you go along the road of the armaments race by which you defeat yourself or end up with the cataclysm of war, or—

2. You try the road of mediation in the hope some way can be found to solve problems.

The President and the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles had talked many times about the idea of inviting the Soviet leader to the United States. They agreed it might be done when it would serve a useful purpose.

The President has very modest hopes for any concrete results from Khrushchev's visit here. He considers him woefully ignorant about the United States. But Eisenhower has four main objectives in inviting him:

1. To get him to understand more accurately what the United States is.

At his news conference Wednesday, for instance, the President explained he would like to take Khrushchev on a helicopter flight over Washington to show him the thousands of small homes around Washington, homes like the model on display at the American fair in Moscow.

The President would also like Khrushchev to see the parking lot at the Willow Run auto plant because he didn't believe it when Vice President Richard M. Nixon told him there were 60 million cars in this country.

2. The President would like to improve the climate of international relations in the hope there can be some productive negotiations with him.

He considered as hopeless the many weeks of negotiations this summer at Geneva among the American - British - French - Soviet foreign ministers on Berlin, where Khrushchev has threatened to force the Allied troops out.

Eisenhower looked upon the foreign ministers and their governments — in their performance at Geneva — as handcuffed and chained to a wall: they couldn't move. Eisenhower wants to see this situation changed.

He would like to see the foreign ministers get back to negotiating but next time with some hope of success.

(He emphasizes he and Khrushchev won't negotiate but just talk things over. He seems fixed on the idea that negotiations should be carried out by ministers. Some people feel any Eisenhower-Khrushchev talks are in effect negotiations.)

3. Eisenhower hopes that in his meeting with Khrushchev that Khrushchev may come up with some new ideas, if he has any, on the Berlin situation. The President will be receptive to new ideas and he will listen to them.

But then he will discuss them with this country's allies. He regards his meeting with Khrushchev as a probing operation.

4. In this upcoming meeting Eisenhower hopes to use his prestige to demonstrate to the rest of the world and particularly the uncommitted countries that the United States is actively seeking peaceful solutions of world problems.

If the Soviets try to create an impression a deal was being made between him and Khrushchev, Eisenhower will not hesitate to issue a public denial.

Eisenhower (this is the stand he has taken for months) is prepared to go to a summit meeting only if there is real hope based on prior progress. He thinks it possible that enough may come of his meeting with Khrushchev to warrant a summit meeting before he goes to Moscow later this year to return Khrushchev's visit.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — The Larkins Club was organized in the home of Mrs. W. S. Cooper on Oliver St.

Some 85 grade school teachers of the Chester area attended the opening session of the county institute at New Cumberland.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Principal A. H. Eccles announced that enrollment in East Liverpool High School would hit a new high during the 1939-40 term.

About 10,000 attended the tri-state picnic at Rock Springs sponsored the East Liverpool Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Members of the Wellsville Volunteer Fire Department made plans for a house-to-house drive to raise funds for new equipment.

TEN YEARS AGO — The Columbiana County Grange gained 207 members over a period of six months.

Deputy Sheriff Robert Beresford of Arthur Ave. was installed as commander of Wellsville American Legion Post 70.

William A. Popp of Oakmont visited his brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Swickard of Pomona, Calif.

Nebuchadnezzar was the Biblical king who ate grass like an ox.

Human Rights Foremost

By David Lawrence

Will Senate And House Do Their Duty?

Are the American people really aware of the disgraceful conduct of certain labor union leaders and of the menace which they present today to this country? Will the public be fooled by the claim that corrective legislation is not needed because there are only a few gangsters and by the propaganda cry that legitimate unionism might be harmed by new laws?

David Lawrence

The answers to these questions deal with a phase of human rights that is more important than any other problem now before Congress. For if public opinion falters after the sensational disclosures by the Senate investigating committee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, (D-Ark), then a period of labor anarchy and underworld tyranny may be expected to develop in the coming years.

President Eisenhower has appealed to the nation to back him as he asks that members of Congress, irrespective of party, be told by the people that the country wants strong legislation to correct abuses.

The type of thing which, unfortunately, the labor unions themselves have been unable to remedy is fully explained by the report of the McClellan committee.

IN COMMENTING on the affairs of the Teamsters Union — the largest in the country — the committee report says in part:

"The power of the Teamsters Union president is so extraordinary that the committee finds the fact this power is now lodged in the hands of a man such as Hoffa tragic for the Teamsters Union and dangerous for the country at large . . .

"In fact, the 1958 hearings produced testimony of an even more sordid nature than that of the previous year.

"Ignominy was piled on ignominy as the testimony wove through stories of violence, financial manipulations, callous repression of democratic rights and racketeer control.

"This is an ugly situation. The continuing attitude of Hoffa and other Teamster leaders that they are above the law can only serve to intensify the apprehensions of decent union members and decent people throughout the country. . . .

"Time and time again the committee has found Hoffa to be faithless to the members of his own union. He has betrayed these members so frequently that it has become abundantly clear that Hoffa's chief interest is his own advancement and that of his friends and cronies — a great number of whom are racketeers. . . .

"In addition, Heffa has used union funds for his own benefit and that of his friends.

"Hoffa has consistently supported the interests of racketeer friends over those of his own members.

"Hoffa and his chief aides have consistently repressed democratic rights within the union.

"Hoffa has connived with and maneuvered union insurance to racketeer friends, bringing these friends gigantic profits. While the cost of insurance has risen, the benefits to the members of his union were drastically reduced.

"In the history of this country it would be hard to find a labor leader who has so shamelessly abused his members or his trust. . . .

"The committee is convinced that if Hoffa remains unchecked, he will successfully destroy the decent labor movement in the United States. Further than that, because of the tremendous economic power of the Teamsters, it will place the underworld in a position to dominate American economic life in a period when the vitality of the American economy is necessary to this country's preservation in an era of world crisis. This Hoffa cannot be allowed to do."

WHAT HAVE the decent labor union leaders done about all this? They have, of course, criticized Hoffa and have deplored what he has done. But they are not willing to back the kind of legislation President Eisenhower says is really needed to prevent Hoffa and his ilk from continuing to exploit the rank and file of American workingmen.

No group likes restrictive legislation. Big business doesn't like anti-monopoly laws and big unionism doesn't like the prospect of any restriction either. But it is the public as a whole which is damaged by any abuses of power exercised by private groups.

It will be interesting to see whether the majority in Congress will rise to the occasion or whether the labor unions, with their political pull and promises of bigger campaign contributions to those who do their bidding, will be able to scare members of the House and Senate away from the legislation that ought to be passed in order to end the rule of dictators, tyrants and crooks inside the labor union movement in free America.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

After reading what goes on in New York City routinely, I think the saying should be changed like this: "I think it's a safe place to visit, but I wouldn't risk living there."

There is only one phrase to describe the situation in a sovereign state whose decent citizens are being manhandled by a political mob yapping at the heels of a governor whose mental mixup is palpable. The phrase is "political obscenity."

Is it Secretary of State Herter's unusual height that makes it impossible for cameramen to get a decent picture of his face when he is making public statements?

One of the more amusing categories of conversation is to think of things that once were sensational and gripping which today would be considered either naive or downright funny, such as "human fly" exhibitions and balloon ascensions.

The way quince bushes grow is remindful of the gnarled and twisted appearance of those dwarf trees the clever little Japanese grow in their incredible little miniature gardens for their own small delight.

Forms Are Due In Farm Program

BEAVER — The Beaver County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee's office said today forms are due for farmers in requesting rate determination for land under the conservation reserve soil bank.

The basic rate of rental payment in Pennsylvania under the 1960 conservation reserve will average $16 an acre, Earl Groff of the Pennsylvania ASC, said at Harrisburg. This is the same as the basic payment rate in the state under the 1959 program.

Average per-acre payment rates for Pennslyvania counties, based on the 1960 state rate, will be announced later, Groff said.

For individual farmers, a per-acre rate will be set for the particular land to be placed in the conservation reserve taking into consideration the productivity of the land and limited to the local fair rental value of the land based on crops harvested during the past five years.

The 1960 conservation reserve program contains special incentives for farmers to place all their eligible land in the program for at least 5 years and a priority system for accepting conservation reserve contract applications. Eligible land, in general, is cropland which is regularly used for cultivated crops or tame hay.

As in former years, there will be two types of payments under the program — a cost-share payment for carrying out a conservation practice on the reserved land and annual rental payments during the 3-to 10-years life of the contract.

The period for filing for rate determination is Aug. 24-Sept. 10.

Garden Club To Erect Statue For Fountain

LISBON — The Lisbon Garden Club has purchased a metal fountain statue of a boy holding a duck and it will be placed on a pedestal in the pond on the northeast section of the public square, according to Mrs. C. E. Bonar, president.

The club expects later to build a wall making a ring around the pool about two feet high and will plant flowers. Benches will be placed.

The club will dedicate the statue when it is placed on a pedestal. The statue was purchased from the Erkins Studios, Inc., of New York. The club is observing its 25th anniversary this month.

8 Speeders Fined $10 By Cumberland Squire

Eight of 12 speeders arrested Wednesday afternoon by the West Virginia State Police on Route 2, south of New Cumberland, were fined $10 and costs each in hearings before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

They included Roy H. Morgan, 33, and Robert H. Barr, 25, both of New Cumberland; William J. Nicola, 30, of Pittsburgh; John Sauer, 32, of Canonsburg, Albert Uhrich, 28, of Tiltonsville, James F. Wellington, 30, of Pughtown John Martas, 37, of Toronto, and Carl Warrick, 23, of Clinton.

They excedded the 55-mile speed limit, the squire said. Hearings are expected today for the others.

Form Is Revised For Surplus Foods

LISBON — A revised application form for surplus foods for low income and unemployed persons was distributed at a district meeting at Akron Wednesday afternoon, according to Robert Bycroft, county welfare director and head if the county surplus foods program.

However, there were no changes in regulations and all persons eligible must be certified by a county or city agency before they will be able to get the foods.

Eight counties were represented along with Robert F. McGonagle of Columbus, state supervisor of surplus foods, and Keith Keeley, of Cleveland, federal government supervisor.

Columbiana County commissioners earlier requested a greater variety of food be provided, but this was not mentioned at the meeting, Bycroft said.

Beaver County Board Elects New Member

BEAVER — The Beaver County Board of Education Wednesday evening elected Mark Hilliker of Independence Township, presently chairman of the Hopewell Area Joint Board, as a member to replace John C. Irvin,, who died recently.

The board paid a tribute to Irvin, who was a secretary for 22 years and one of the board's first members.

Mrs. Alice Latshaw of Beaver was elected secretary.

Ohio River Study Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $400,000 Ohio River basin review and a $260,000 study of Great Lakes harbors are among future flood control and navigation projects on which a Senate-House Conference Committee has approved funds for survey work. The survey fund is part of the water projects appropriation bill agreed to by the committee.

6 Are Shaken Up In Route 7 Crash

Two women and four young people from the Irondale and Somerset district were shaken up when their car was struck by another on Route 7 just north of Steubenville Wednesday night about 9:20.

Mrs. Floyd Baxter of Somerset and Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Culp of Irondale and their children were returning from the Somerset Methodist Church Sunday School picnic at Steubenville when their auto was struck by one operated by Fr. Nicholas Sapunow, 58, of Steubenville.

The State Highway Patrol at Wintersville said the priest's car, headed south, veered over the medial strip at the intersection with Route 213, and hit the oncoming auto of Mrs. Baxter.

Also in the car were Kay Baxter, 18, and Joe Baxter, 12, Lenora Culp, 2, and Michelle Lawrence, 5, of Somerset. Damage was moderate, officers said.

Forms Are Due In Farm Program

BEAVER — The Beaver County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee's office said today forms are due for farmers in requesting rate determination for land under the conservation reserve soil bank.

The basic rate of rental payment in Pennsylvania under the 1960 conservation reserve will average $16 an acre, Earl Groff of the Pennsylvania ASC, said at Harrisburg. This is the same as the basic payment rate in the state under the 1959 program.

Average per-acre payment rates for Pennslyvania counties, based on the 1960 state rate, will be announced later, Groff said.

For individual farmers, a per-acre rate will be set for the particular land to be placed in the conservation reserve taking into consideration the productivity of the land and limited to the local fair rental value of the land based on crops harvested during the past five years.

The 1960 conservation reserve program contains special incentives for farmers to place all their eligible land in the program for at least 5 years and a priority system for accepting conservation reserve contract applications. Eligible land, in general, is cropland which is regularly used for cultivated crops or tame hay.

As in former years, there will be two types of payments under the program — a cost-share payment for carrying out a conservation practice on the reserved land and annual rental payments during the 3-to 10-years life of the contract.

The period for filing for rate determination is Aug. 24-Sept. 10.

Garden Club To Erect Statue For Fountain

LISBON — The Lisbon Garden Club has purchased a metal fountain statue of a boy holding a duck and it will be placed on a pedestal in the pond on the northeast section of the public square, according to Mrs. C. E. Bonar, president.

The club expects later to build a wall making a ring around the pool about two feet high and will plant flowers. Benches will be placed.

The club will dedicate the statue when it is placed on a pedestal. The statue was purchased from the Erkins Studios, Inc., of New York. The club is observing its 25th anniversary this month.

Reckless Driving Case Will Be Heard Friday

A city motorist is due for a hearing Friday morning in Municipal Court after pleading not guilty today to a reckless driving charge.

Wilson was arrested at 4:18 a. m., police said, after he drove away from a diner on E. 3rd St. and headed west at a high rate of speed, then raced back east on the street to Broadway and Church Alley where he was halted after police received complaints of the noise.

Ronald K. Dunn of Steubenville was fined $10 and costs today by Judge Brokaw after being cited at 2:30 this morning for speeding 70 miles an hour on Dresden Ave.

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Now available to you for first time without a doctor's prescription, our new drug called ODRINEX. You must lose ugly fat in 7 days or your money back. No more starvation diets, strenuous exercise, laxatives, massage or taking so-called reducing candies, crackers or cookies, or chewing gum. ODRINEX is a tiny tablet and easily swallowed. Absolutely harmless. When you take ODRINEX, you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like, but you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food. Automatically your weight must come down, because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. ODRINEX is sold on this GUARANTEE: You must lose weight within 7 days or your money back. Just return the package to your druggist and get your full money back. ODRINEX costs $3.00 and is sold with this strict money back guarantee by: Fortiner's Drug Store—515 Washington. Mail Orders Filled.

Reckless Driving Case Will Be Heard Friday

A city motorist is due for a hearing Friday morning in Municipal Court after pleading not guilty today to a reckless driving charge.

Wilson was arrested at 4:18 a. m., police said, after he drove away from a diner on E. 3rd St. and headed west at a high rate of speed, then raced back east on the street to Broadway and Church Alley where he was halted after police received complaints of the noise.

Ronald K. Dunn of Steubenville was fined $10 and costs today by Judge Brokaw after being cited at 2:30 this morning for speeding 70 miles an hour on Dresden Ave.

89 To 94 Temperature High Forecast For Area

The hottest mark for August was forecast for the Ohio Valley today as the Ohio weatherman said the temperature will range from 89 to 94.

July had such a high but the current hot and humid weather has been ranging only in the upper 80's so far this week.

The heat will continue through Friday with little relief expected from possible thundershowers today, tonight or tomorrow. Tonight's low will be 65 to 70.

Fee

foot work of senators in parliamentary maneuvering.

The license fee proposal became deadlocked when the Senate wanted to increase fees for automobile tags $4 a year, instead of the $2.50 voted by the House. A compromise on $3, effective in 1961, failed to win House approval and the Legislature quit work without taking final action.

If leaders can induce the Senate to forget its differences and accept the $2.50 House increase, the measure could be sent to DiSalle for his signature or veto. A veto could kill such an enactment because the Legislature would be unable to override after final adjournment.

County commissioners, backed by county engineers and other local officials, want the increase because that money would be available for much-needed road work.

Reports indicated that some local officials felt let down by the administration because they had been led to believe some increase would be voted to help ease their financial problems.

Besides the increase in automobile tag fees, the measure would boost truck license tags $10 and those for farm trucks, house trailers and busses $5 a year.

McDonald

"I was sick and tired of sitting around New York subject to this filibuster."

He said management's negotiators proposed "to cut out all the gains of 18 years" and "have never made a single offer to me, in spite of what you read in the newspapers."

"They will not negotiate," McDonald asserted. "And if they will not negotiate, they must have a plan. What is this?

"I think their plan is that some day the pangs of hunger will be so great in the bodies of you and your beloved that you will come crawling to McDonald saying, 'Please, go back!' "

His audience cheered as McDonald attacked Roger M. Blough, board chairman of U.S. Steel Corp., the giant of the basic steel industry.

"Mr. Blough is a Wall Street lawyer," McDonald said, referring to management allegations of featherbedding by steelworker unionists.

"He wouldn't know the difference between an open hearth and a rolling mill."

Blough, McDonald said, is "the guy who blames you for inflation."

"While trying to hold down inflation by keeping steelworkers' pay down, Blough earned $240,000 on stock from the beginning of the strike until this week," McDonald said.

McDonald's Midland Trip Seen Tentative

David J. McDonald is coming to Midland — but not today.

Steelworkers Local 1212 at Midland and the union's District 20 office at Ambridge said the president of the United Steelworkers of America is still expected but on a tentative basis.

Any plans for a definite trip by McDonald will be announced, according to Kay Kluz, district office director.

Midget Racer In Vehicle Grazes Passing Truck

A midget auto racer was damaged Tuesday afternoon while being transported on Dresden Ave. when it grazed a passing truck, according to a belated report filed with police.

Police were told the racer was being transported on a vehicle owned by the Goodyear Store of Walnut St. when it caught the headboard of a northbound truck driven by Vernon W. Brown of Kensington R. D. 1, pulling the headboard onto the highway.

The Goodyear vehicle was driven by S. Verner Sundell of Valley Trailer Court while the truck, owned by Freedonia Truck Leasing of Cleveland, is leased by H. K. Porter Co., Inc.

The accident occurred Tuesday afternoon but wasn't reported to police until 24 hours later.

Strike Office Lease Runs Until Oct. 15

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United Steelworkers said today they have a hint how much longer the month-long steel strike will last.

The union found out some time ago, before the strike began, a union official said, that steel company strategists took a lease until Oct. 15 on special strike-use office space in the Chrysler Building in New York.

today, after Wednesday's violence and parade.

The paraders, coming from a rally at the state capitol where Gov. Orval E. Faubus addressed them, shouted "Cowards!" at the policemen. Twenty-three of them were arrested.

In the schools themselves, officials said everything was normal.

One segregationist said he knew of no plans for any rallies today. He is the Rev. Wesley Pruden, past president of the Capital Citizens Council, which spearheads segregation forces here.

Other segregation leaders could not be contacted.

Faubus, who advised the rally to avoid violence, remained at his mansion. He said he would keep in touch with his "people" for developments.

Two Negroes went to Central Wednesday, but only one will go back today, said Mrs. L. C. Bates, president of the Arkansas branch of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

She said Elizabeth Eckford went the first day of school only to consult with her counselor. Elizabeth, one of nine Negroes enrolled at Central in 1957, has gained enough credits through correspondence to enter college.

That leaves Jefferson Thomas, 16, another veteran of 1957, as the only Negro at Central. He is a senior.

At Hall High School located in the fashionable Pulaski Heights area, three Negro girls returned to classes today. They are Effie Jones, 17, and Estelle Thompson and Elsie Robinson, both 16.

The four Negroes enrolled at Central and Hall were among 60 who applied to attend. The others were referred to all-Negro Horace Mann High by the School Board, which used a state pupil - placement law.

Integration first began at Central in September 1957. Gov. Faubus surrounded the school with National Guardsmen to keep the Negroes out that year, but the Guard was federalized and removed. Then mobs formed at the school and paratroopers were sent in to restore order.

Faubus closed the schools last fall to stop integration. The law he used to do so has been declared unconstitutional by a federal court.

foot work of senators in parliamentary maneuvering.

The license fee proposal became deadlocked when the Senate wanted to increase fees for automobile tags $4 a year, instead of the $2.50 voted by the House. A compromise on $3, effective in 1961, failed to win House approval and the Legislature quit work without taking final action.

If leaders can induce the Senate to forget its differences and accept the $2.50 House increase, the measure could be sent to DiSalle for his signature or veto. A veto could kill such an enactment because the Legislature would be unable to override after final adjournment.

County commissioners, backed by county engineers and other local officials, want the increase because that money would be available for much-needed road work.

Reports indicated that some local officials felt let down by the administration because they had been led to believe some increase would be voted to help ease their financial problems.

Besides the increase in automobile tag fees, the measure would boost truck license tags $10 and those for farm trucks, house trailers and busses $5 a year.

2 Men Fined

LISBON — James Blackburn of Lisbon was fined $20 and costs and John Scarry of Salineville $10 and costs Wednesday by Mayor John Todd on charges of disturbing the peace by intoxication. Scarry's fine was suspended providing he stay out of Lisbon.

McDonald

He said management's negotiators proposed "to cut out all the gains of 18 years" and "have never made a single offer to me, in spite of what you read in the newspapers."

"They will not negotiate," McDonald asserted. "And if they will not negotiate, they must have a plan. What is this?

"I think their plan is that some day the pangs of hunger will be so great in the bodies of you and your beloved that you will come crawling to McDonald saying, 'Please, go back!' "

His audience cheered as McDonald attacked Roger M. Blough, board chairman of U.S. Steel Corp., the giant of the basic steel industry.

"Mr. Blough is a Wall Street lawyer," McDonald said, referring to management allegations of featherbedding by steelworker unionists.

"He wouldn't know the difference between an open hearth and a rolling mill."

Blough, McDonald said, is "the guy who blames you for inflation."

"While trying to hold down inflation by keeping steelworkers' pay down, Blough earned $240,000 on stock from the beginning of the strike until this week," McDonald said.

McDonald's Midland Trip Seen Tentative

David J. McDonald is coming to Midland — but not today.

Steelworkers Local 1212 at Midland and the union's District 20 office at Ambridge said the president of the United Steelworkers of America is still expected but on a tentative basis.

Any plans for a definite trip by McDonald will be announced, according to Kay Kluz, district office director.

Midget Racer In Vehicle Grazes Passing Truck

A midget auto racer was damaged Tuesday afternoon while being transported on Dresden Ave. when it grazed a passing truck, according to a belated report filed with police.

Police were told the racer was being transported on a vehicle owned by the Goodyear Store of Walnut St. when it caught the head board of a northbound truck driven by Vernon W. Brown of Kensington R. D. 1, pulling the headboard onto the highway.

The Goodyear vehicle was driven by S. Verner Sundell of Valley Trailer Court while the truck, owned by Freedonia Truck Leasing of Cleveland, is leased by H. K. Porter Co., Inc.

The accident occurred Tuesday afternoon but wasn't reported to police until 24 hours later.

Strike Office Lease Runs Until Oct. 15

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United Steelworkers said today they have a hint how much longer the month-long steel strike will last.

The union found out some time ago, before the strike began, a union official said, that steel company strategists took a lease until Oct. 15 on special strike-use office space in the Chrysler Building in New York.

Salem Driver Injured As Car, Truck Collide

SALEM — A 62-year-old area man was injured when his car collided with a State Highway Department truck on Route 62 about a half mile west of here Wednesday, the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

Albert R. Silver of R. D. 1 was treated at Central Clinic for back bruises suffered when his 1959 coach collided with the truck operated by James W. DeLuce, 36, of Jones Dr. DeLuce was making a left turn as Silver attempted to

today, after Wednesday's violence and parade.

The paraders, coming from a rally at the state capitol where Gov. Orval E. Faubus addressed them, shouted "Cowards!" at the policemen. Twenty-three of them were arrested.

In the schools themselves, officials said everything was normal.

One segregationist said he knew of no plans for any rallies today. He is the Rev. Wesley Pruden, past president of the Capital Citizens Council, which spearheads segregation forces here.

Other segregation leaders could not be contacted.

Faubus, who advised the rally to avoid violence, remained at his mansion. He said he would keep in touch with his "people" for developments.

Two Negroes went to Central Wednesday, but only one will go back today, said Mrs. L. C. Bates, president of the Arkansas branch of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

She said Elizabeth Eckford went the first day of school only to consult with her counselor. Elizabeth, one of nine Negroes enrolled at Central in 1957, has gained enough credits through correspondence to enter college.

That leaves Jefferson Thomas, 16, another veteran of 1957, as the only Negro at Central. He is a senior.

At Hall High School located in the fashionable Pulaski Heights area, three Negro girls returned to classes today. They are Effie Jones, 17, and Estelle Thompson and Elsie Robinson, both 16.

The four Negroes enrolled at Central and Hall were among 60 who applied to attend. The others were referred to all-Negro Horace Mann High by the School Board, which used a state pupil - placement law.

Integration first began at Central in September 1957. Gov. Faubus surrounded the school with National Guardsmen to keep the Negroes out that year, but the Guard was federalized and removed. Then mobs formed at the school and paratroopers were sent in to restore order.

Faubus closed the schools last fall to stop integration. The law he used to do so has been declared unconstitutional by a federal court.

Driver Forfeits

LISBON — Forrest H. Burgo, 43, of New Castle forfeited $20 bond for a State Highway Patrol speeding charge when he failed to appear for a hearing Wednesday before Mayor John Todd.

Miss Sue Carol Woomer was honored with a bridal shower when her aunts, Mrs. Kay Blankenship and Mrs. Betty Ash, entertained Tuesday night at the former's home on Pennsylvania Ave.

Charades and contests were enjoyed and prizes were won by Miss Arlene Braden, Mrs. Joyce Householder, Miss Charlotte Ludwig, Miss Linda Boyce, Mrs. Flora Ludwig, Mrs. Wilma Gebauer, Miss Marjorie Shaw and Mrs. Clara Hall.

Crepe paper streamers suspended from a chandelier held an umbrella under which the gifts were displayed. Mrs. Pat Hadley read a resume of the remarks of the honored guest as she unwrapped the gifts.

Refreshments were served 20 by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Arlie Woomer, mother of the bride-elect. An arrangement of wedding bells and lily-of-the-valley formed the centerpiece for the buffet table. Floating candles in crystal goblets completed the setting. Favors were large bridal dolls holding mint cups, made by Mrs. Blankenship.

Miss Woomer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Woomer, 1045 St. George St., will become the bride of Dieter B. Hammer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred V. Hammer of Athens, Sunday, Aug. 30, at 2:30 o'clock in the Trinity United Presbyterian Church. The Rev. M. Rudolph Miller, pastor, will officiate for the open church rites. A reception will follow in the social rooms.

The group received the Civil Defense award at the recent state convention in Cleveland and the "Jane Gill Award" as the winner of the 10th District.

Mrs. Helen Jones, president, conducted business.

Misses Irene McSwegin and Marsha Franklin reported on "Girls State" held at Columbus.

Mrs. Carrie Beal was named chairman of the rummage sale Aug. 24-26 at the rear of the City Market Building.

Members will attend the County Council meeting Tuesday at Columbiana.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Vivian Roush, Mrs. Grace Pethtel and Mrs. Beal.

"My Country" was the program topic used by Mrs. Homer Richey for the meeting of the Annie Holmes Circle of the WSCS of the Community Methodist Church Tuesday night with Mrs. James Gardner of Orchard Grove Ave.

She was assisted by Mrs. Harriet Hapgood, Mrs. Lee Cooper and Mrs. Gardner. Several hymns were sung by the group with Miss Dorothea Holmes accompanist.

Mrs. Mae Rogers, circle leader, read the daily Bible selection from "The Upper Room" religious periodical.

The sum of $50 was turned in to the general fund of the WSCS and sick and shut-in calls were reported.

Mrs. Catherine Auberger was appointed treasurer to fill an unexpired term.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be Sept. 8 at the church.

Fiancee Of Robert E. Freer.

Linda Lee Drane Will Be Bride In November Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Drane of the Old Fredericktown Rd. announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Linda Lee Drane, to Robert Eugene Freer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Freer, 370 Alice St., East Palestine.

A November wedding is being planned.

Mr. And Mrs. R. S. Chapman Establish Valley Ave. Home

Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Chapman are residing in a newly furnished apartment on Valley Ave., following their marriage July 10 in the Chester Church of the Nazarene.

Rev. Lewis Legg, pastor, officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar setting of palms, ferns and seven-branched candelabra.

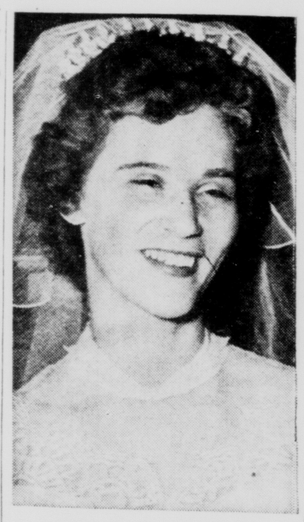
The bride is the former Miss Helen Jane Moore, daughter of Mrs. Maude Moore of Indiana Ave., Chester, and Floyd Moore of the Washington School Rd., Chester, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Chapman, 888 Valley Ave.

Mrs. Jean Bowlby presented a half-hour of nuptial music and Ted Cunningham sang "Because" and "O, Promise Me." The couple knelt on white satin pillows provided by Mrs. Ruby Rutter as "The Wedding Prayer" was sung.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white lace and net. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a mandarin collar and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt was highlighted with lace medallions and inserts, forming deep pleat points. Her shoulder-length veil of nylon net was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible topped with an arrangement of white rosebuds, fern and stepahnotis tied with satin streamers. Observing all the familiar traditions, she had a six-pence in her shoe.

Mrs. Jean Birdwell of Dallas, Tex., sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Carol Yost of East Liverpool, Miss Patricia Howell of Hookstown and Miss Violet Chapman, sister of the birdegroom.

A rainbow effect was achieved by their identical ballerina-length gowns of yellow, orchid, pink and blue. They were styled with fitted lace bodices and full skirts. The shoulder-length veils were held in place by matching seed pearl caps and they carried Colonial bouquets of carnations, roses and stephanotis tied with matching streamers.



MRS. R. S. CHAPMAN
She Was Helen J. Moore.

Janis Ellen Moore, sister of the bride, was the flower girl and appeared in a dress of white lace and nylon with puffed sleeves and a wide satin sash. She wore a headband of white roses and carried a basket of rose petals.

John Moore, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Sammy Birdwell of Dallas, James Perkins and Harry Crawford.

The mother of the bride was attired in a white shirt-waist dacron dress with pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a Navy dress accented with red accessories and a red rosebud corsage.

For going away, the bride wore a two-piece dress of yellow and white with matching accessories and her bridal corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Chester High School and is employed in the office of the F. W. Woolworth Co.

Her husband attended East Liverpool High School and works at Homer Laughlin China Co.

The meeting of the Upstreamers Class of the Calvary Methodist Church, scheduled for Friday, has been changed to the home of Mrs. Laura Mae Smith of Fredericktown.

Mrs. Violet Whitaker of Wellsville, district representative, reported on the recent grand session in Toledo for the meeting of Ceramic Rebekah Lodge 286 Tuesday night in the IOOF Temple. Some 34 attended.

Mrs. Hazel Tittle, noble grand, presided.

The new tables, which the group purchased jointly with the IOOF, were inspected.

Charades and contests were enjoyed and prizes were won by Miss Arlene Braden, Mrs. Joyce Householder, Miss Charlotte Ludwig, Miss Linda Boyce, Mrs. Flora Ludwig, Mrs. Wilma Gebauer, Miss Marjorie Shaw and Mrs. Clara Hall.

Crepe paper streamers suspended from a chandelier held an umbrella under which the gifts were displayed. Mrs. Pat Hadley read a resume of the remarks of the honored guest as she unwrapped the gifts.

Refreshments were served 20 by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Arlie Woomer, mother of the bride-elect. An arrangement of wedding bells and lily-of-the-valley formed the centerpiece for the buffet table. Floating candles in crystal goblets completed the setting. Favors were large bridal dolls holding mint cups, made by Mrs. Blankenship.

Miss Woomer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Woomer, 1045 St. George St., will become the bride of Dieter B. Hammer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred V. Hammer of Athens, Sunday, Aug. 30, at 2:30 o'clock in the Trinity United Presbyterian Church. The Rev. M. Rudolph Miller, pastor, will officiate for the open church rites. A reception will follow in the social rooms.

Linda Lee Drane Will Be Bride In November Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Drane of the Old Fredericktown Rd. announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Linda Lee Drane, to Robert Eugene Freer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Freer, 370 Alice St., East Palestine.

A November wedding is being planned.

Mr. And Mrs. R. S. Chapman Establish Valley Ave. Home

Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Chapman are residing in a newly furnished apartment on Valley Ave., following their marriage July 10 in the Chester Church of the Nazarene.

Rev. Lewis Legg, pastor, officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar setting of palms, ferns and seven-branched candelabra.

The bride is the former Miss Helen Jane Moore, daughter of Mrs. Maude Moore of Indiana Ave., Chester, and Floyd Moore of the Washington School Rd., Chester, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Chapman, 888 Valley Ave.

Mrs. Jean Bowlby presented a half-hour of nuptial music and Ted Cunningham sang "Because" and "O, Promise Me." The couple knelt on white satin pillows provided by Mrs. Ruby Rutter as "The Wedding Prayer" was sung.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white lace and net. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a mandarin collar and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt was highlighted with lace medallions and inserts, forming deep pleat points. Her shoulder-length veil of nylon net was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible topped with an arrangement of white rosebuds, fern and stepahnotis tied with satin streamers. Observing all the familiar traditions, she had a six-pence in her shoe.

Mrs. Jean Birdwell of Dallas, Tex., sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Carol Yost of East Liverpool, Miss Patricia Howell of Hookstown and Miss Violet Chapman, sister of the birdegroom.

A rainbow effect was achieved by their identical ballerina-length gowns of yellow, orchid, pink and blue. They were styled with fitted lace bodices and full skirts. The shoulder-length veils were held in place by matching seed pearl caps and they carried Colonial bouquets of carnations, roses and stephanotis tied with matching streamers.

MRS. R. S. CHAPMAN
She Was Helen J. Moore.

Janis Ellen Moore, sister of the bride, was the flower girl and appeared in a dress of white lace and nylon with puffed sleeves and a wide satin sash. She wore a headband of white roses and carried a basket of rose petals.

John Moore, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Sammy Birdwell of Dallas, James Perkins and Harry Crawford.

The mother of the bride was attired in a white shirt-waist dacron dress with pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a Navy dress accented with red accessories and a red rosebud corsage.

For going away, the bride wore a two-piece dress of yellow and white with matching accessories and her bridal corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Chester High School and is employed in the office of the F. W. Woolworth Co.

Her husband attended East Liverpool High School and works at Homer Laughlin China Co.

The meeting of the Upstreamers Class of the Calvary Methodist Church, scheduled for Friday, has been changed to the home of Mrs. Laura Mae Smith of Fredericktown.

Devotions led by Mrs. Gladys Boyd followed a picnic of the Friendship Class of the Yellow Creek Presbyterian Church Monday night on the lawn of the home of Mrs. Nancy Williams of Crawford Rd.

Mrs. Boyd read an article "A Little Farther." It was reported that $105 was realized from serving 70 at the recent family picnic of an insurance firm. The class made plans to clean the church Tuesday night and decided not to take charge of the church picnic due to the members being too busy. Mrs. Grace Smith, president, conducted business.

Some 21 members and 7 guests attended the picnic. The next meeting will be Sept. 10.

Winners in 500 were Mrs. Josephine Crea and Mrs. Connie Weeda. Miss Emelia Mascara of Hartford, Conn., was a guest. Lunch was served by the hostess and her daughter, Miss Virginia Leone.

The club will meet within two weeks at the home of Mrs. Rose Comparetta of Commerce St.

The Clara E. Hewitt Circle decided to contribute $22.35 to the treasury of the WSCS when it met Tuesday night in the Central Methodist Church.

Mrs. Betty Smith, devotion leader, read an article, "Should You Send Your Child to Sunday School?", a poem, "God Forgive Me When I Whine," and Ps. 61. The Lord's Prayer was given in unison. Business was conducted by Mrs. Donna Nusser, president.

A coverdish dinner for members and families will be held Sept. 8 at the Roadside Park. Mrs. Joy Morehead will lead devotions.

A group of neighborhood children were entertained Monday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dawson Jr., 601 9th St., in honor of the eighth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Renee.

Games, contests and dancing to records were the pastime. Prize winners were Cindy Salsberry, Janet Maylone and Susan McDevitt. Mrs. Dawson was assisted by her sister, Mrs. James Goodman of East Liverpool. A birthday cake centered the table and novelties were favors.

Among those present were Debbie Lanam, Debbie and Kimberly Goodman, Nancy Jarvis, Christina Johnson, Brenda Freeman, Mary Ferry and Pam Salsberry.

'Make Marriage Fun,' British Pastor Urges

LONDON (AP) — The Rev. Hugh Herbert recommended today that married couples vow "to tease and to tickle—until death do us part."

"Marriage should be fun. Far too many marriages are wrecked on the rocks of monotony," said the rector of St. John's Anglican Church in Surrey, in an article for his parish magazine.

Governor Fills Several Jobs

Maurice Rapport Given Miami U. Trustee's Post

Maurice Rapport, dress operator and a director in the Chamber of Commerce, was appointed Wednesday by Gov. Michael DiSalle as a trustee of Miami University at Oxford for a term ending March 1, 1962.

Rapport, 62, resident of 335 Thompson Ave., replaces Ohio Supreme Court Judge John Weld Peck of Cincinnati. The East Liverpool businessman's appointment was among half a dozen made yesterday at Columbus by the governor.

Jim White, 50, of Toledo auto dealer, and Harry M. Hoffheimer, Cincinnati attorney, were named to the four-member racing commission.

The governor indicated that he will reappoint White and Hoffheimer to the new five-member commission created by a law that becomes effective in about 90 days.

The governor appointed Raymond H. Willett, 59, of Greenwich, Huron County, as state superintendent of banks to succeed Robert E. McDaniel of Worthington, resigned. Willett, with the Banking Division for 29 years, became deputy superintendent last March. His term runs to February 1960.

Minoso, Nixon, Colavito Pace Tribe In 9-4 Win Over A's

Braves Spill Reds, 6-4, On Mathews' Two Roundtrippers

Bell Picks Up Fifth Straight Mound Victory

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Minnie Minoso and Rocky Colavito are swinging the hot bats for the Cleveland Indians, now that Tito Francona's has cooled off.

Along with Russ Nixon who drove in three runs in the Indians' 9-4 triumph over Kansas City Wednesday night, Minoso and Colavito led the 15-hit attack.

Minoso hit his 17th home run and second in as many games in addition to a pair of singles as he drove in three runs. Nixon clouted a three-run homer, his first of the season, plus two singles. Colavito had two hits, a double and a single and raised his league-leading runs-batted-in total to 88.

Jim Baxes also had a pair of hits, including his 12th homer. But Francona has had only one hit in 14 trips in the three Kansas City games.

Gary Bell (13-9) posted his fifth straight triumph. He limited the Athletics to eight hits as the Indians kept pace with the Chicago White Sox, who still lead the American League by 2½ games.

The biggest blow of Wednesday night's game was struck by Nixon, a three-run homer to break a 1-1 tie in the second inning. Both teams had exchanged runs in the first frame, the Indians getting theirs on Minoso's four-bagger and Kansas City on a single by Russ Snyder and a triple by Jerry Lumpe.

Bell, who struck out eight and walked five, ran into a spell of wildness in the Kansas City half of the sixth, permitting the Athletics to score two runs which cut the Indians' lead to 7-4.

Bell walked two men then a run scored on Wayne Terwilliger's single off Vic Power's glove at third base. A pinch single by Ray Boone delivered another marker. Bell walked Bill Tuttle to load the bases, but got out of the jam by getting Snyder to bounce to second base.

A single by Nixon, Bell's sacrifice and Minoso's infield hit produced Cleveland's eighth run in the eighth inning. The final run in the ninth frame came on Baxes' smash over the left field fence.

All-Star Team Selected To Meet 'King And Court'

A group of All-Stars headed by hard-hitting Bob Boston of the Veterans Social Club and "Bevo" Francis of Highlandtown has been selected to meet the "King and His Court", one of the top attractions in softball, Saturday at 6:30 p. m. at Patterson Field.

Other members of the All-Star team, selected from the YMCA Church League and the City Softball loop, include Bub Hobbs and Don Glass, Chester Christian; Tony Williams, Veterans Social Club; Don Boyd, Highlandtown; Joe Anderson, Bob Dawson and Al Dawson, Grace U. P.; John Clendening and Les Landfried, American Vitrified; Roger Green and Don Thorne, Glenmoor U. P.

Bill Fletcher will manage the East Liverpool All-Stars.

The "King and His Court," a four-man softball team that meets nine-man teams and usually comes out on top, is in its 14th season.

The four players met in the fourth grade many years ago in Walla Walla, Wash. and have been together ever since.

In 13 years of competition, the "King and His Court" have compiled an amazing record of 1,260 wins against 126 defeats and 16 ties.

They have played in 45 states, 7 Canadian provinces and have made 15 foreign tours.

The team began its annual tour in May and in the first regularly-scheduled contest Feigner fanned 18 batters in a seven-inning game.

Feigner, who is 34, does all of the pitching throughout the tour. During his career, he has hurled 121 perfect games and 402 no-hit games.

The longest game Feigner ever pitched was a 34-inning contest which he won 7-6 and struck out 73 batters, walking 19 and allowing 8 hits.

In addition to the regular seven-inning game with the All - Stars, Feigner will demonstrate "trick" pitches and also hurl blindfolded.

The exhibition is being sponsored by the Elks Lodge 258.

Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children and are on sale at Rearks, Heimies, Chambers Co., Head Pin, Sevy Drugs, Oakland Pharmacy, Koerbers, American Legion Post 374 and the Elks Club in East Liverpool.

In Chester at Hersche's and D'Angelos and in Wellsville at Bloors Pharmacy, Petes Cafe and the Elks Club.

Littens Bomb Laundry, 18-3

Littens broke on top with 12 runs in the first inning and from there on it was smooth sailing in an 18-3 win over Woodbine in the East Liverpool Pony League.

While Littens was pounding three Woodbine pitchers for 12 hits, Myer and Gary Shaw combined to limit their opponents to only three.

Dave Myers and Shaw collected three hits each and Jerry Birch smacked a home run and a double to pace the winners.

Littens confined its scoring to two innings, the first and second, with 12 in the opening frame and six more in the second.

Terwilliger Hits 'Over His Head', But A's Enjoy It

KANSAS CITY (AP) — "I guess I'm shooting a little over my head at bat, but I might as well enjoy it," says little Wayne Terwilliger.

In 30 days, "Twig" has advanced from a substitute to a star of the Kansas City Athletics.

The 34-year-old second baseman contributed virtually nothing to the A's this season until July 14, when he got into the lineup because of injuries to Jerry Lumpe and then Joe Demaestri.

Twig was batting .195 when he got his chance to start. Since then, he has hit safely in 18 of 23 games and his average has soared to .302.

Wednesday night, Terwilliger collected two of the A's eight hits as the team bowed 9-4 to Cleveland.

There's no arguing the fact that Terwilliger is hitting over his head. In 11 seasons of professional baseball, he has hit better than .300 only once, and that was in the minors seven years ago.

Tavern Operator Leads Public Links With 69

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP) — One veteran tavern operator led a field of 240 players into the second round of the 26th Ohio Public Links Golf Championship, and another veteran tavern operator paced the seniors' division of the event.

Jim Caspio Sr., balding 47-year-old, fired a six-birdie 69, three under par for the 6,682-yard Tam-A-Rac Country Club course. That first-round effort gave the Cleveland a one-stroke edge over Mike Podolski, 20-year-old No. 1 player on Ohio State's team. Podolski birdied the last three holes to move into the runnerup position.

Jay Krochmalny of Toledo, winner of the 1938 Ohio Public Links title but now in the senior division for those past the half-century mark, breezed in with a 76 to lead the oldsters. Krochmalny, who like Caspio operates a bar, held a two-stroke edge over Steve Rhodey of Toledo and was five ahead of defending seniors' champion Mar Ginaven of Springfield. The seniors title will be decided on the first 36 holes.

The pay-as-you-go field will be cut to 60 after today's play. The best guess was that 154 strokes would be necessary to get into Friday's 36-hole windup.

Back of Caspio and Podolski was Art Todd of Columbus with a 71. Todd tied for the crown a year ago, but lost in a sudden-death playoff to 19-year-old Dave Daniels of Columbus.

Daniels was in a four-way deadlock at 72 with Dick Rhyan Sr. of Columbus, the 1941 champion; Ed Theis of Warren; and Paul Flora of Springfield.

Fourteen others were tied at 73, and a dozen more at 74.

In the only championship decided Wednesday, four Columbus veterans won the team title. Todd, Bill Podolski, Paul Tulga and Rhyan came up with a 299 total to nose out Cleveland by a single stroke. Springfield was third with 301, and a team of Columbus youngsters was fourth with 304.

Cubs Surprise Dodgers, 11-8; Pirates Win

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Milwaukee's Braves may not be the all-conquering champions they were a year ago but it hasn't been the fault of third baseman Eddie Mathews.

He is hitting an even .300, has slugged 33 home runs and has driven in 79 runs. He already has exceeded last year's totals of 31 homers and 77 runs batted in when his average was only .251.

Eddie powered two home runs Wednesday night, each with a man on base, to boost the Braves into second place with a 6-4 victory over Cincinnati. Henry Aaron added a home run, his 30th, and a triple and Joe Adcock hit safely in his 19th consecutive game. The Braves also got a fine pitching performance from veteran Bob Rush, who hurled scoreless ball after relieving southpaw Juan Pizarro in the second.

Chicago's Cubs dropped Los Angeles into third place, half a game behind the Braves and 3½ behind the idle San Francisco Giants, by thrashing the Dodgers 11-8. Pittsburgh walloped Philadelphia 6-2.

Chicago's White Sox maintained their 2½-game lead over Cleveland with an 11-6 victory over Detroit while the Indians were beating Kansas City 9-4. Boston nipped Baltimore 5-4 and the Washington Senators snapped the New York Yankees' six-game winning streak with a 3-2 triumph.

The Cubs routed Don Drysdale with a five-run outburst in the first inning, highlighted by Erne Banks' 34th home run and Sammy Taylor's ninth. Alvin Dark and Irv Nore also chipped in with four-baggers for the Cubs in the 28-hit slugfest.

Roberto Clemente had a single, double and triple, his three-bagger coming with the bases loaded in a four-run seventh that enabled the Pirates to break a 2-2 tie with the Phils. Harvey Haddix outpitched Robin Roberts.

Staley, Lown Subdue Foe

Bullpen Helps White Sox In 11-6 Win Over Tigers

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

At the start of the year the Chicago White Sox were given an outside chance at the pennant because of only one thing — their strong pitching staff.

Today the first-place White Sox are a solid favorite to represent the American League in the World Series—despite their pitching.

Only Early Wynn of the highly touted Big Five — Billy Pierce, Dick Donovan, Ray Moore, Barry Latman and Wynn — has been pitching as advertised. He has a 15-7 record.

Pierce is 12-12. Donovan, plagued by arm miseries is 7-5 and hasn't pitched since July 21. Moore is 2-6 and Latman 5-4.

What's keeping them up there, then? The answer lies in their speed, their defense, their ability to win the close games—and their bullpen aces Gerry Staley and Turk Lown.

Staley and Lown figured prominently in Wednesday's 11-6 triumph over Detroit which kept the Sox 2½ games ahead of Cleveland, a 9-5 winner over Kansas City. Boston defeated Baltimore 5-4 and Washington nipped New York 3-2.

Milwaukee moved into second place in the National League race, defeating Cincinnati 6-4 while the Chicago Cubs were outslugging the Los Angeles Dodgers 11-8. Pittsburgh whipped Philadelphia 6-2.

Latman started for the White Sox but left under fire in the fourth when Detroit scored four times to overcome a 3-0 Chicago lead. Staley halted the Tigers and picked up his fifth relief victory when the White Sox scored eight runs in the fifth and sixth on only three hits. Sherm Lollar's three-run homer was the big blow. Lown pitched the last three innings.

Gary Bell went the route for Cleveland with an eight - hitter for his 13th triumph. The Indians whacked five Kansas City pitchers for 15 hits, including home runs by Minnie Minoso, Jim Baxes and Russ Nixon.

The Senators, who had won only one of their last 23 games, snapped the Yankees' six-game winning streak although they made only four hits. One of them was a home run by pinch hitter Julio Becquer. It came with two on in the eighth to overcome a 2-0 Yankee lead. Ryne Duren, in relief of Art Ditmar, threw the home run ball.

A ninth-inning home run by Gary Geiger broke a 4-4 tie and gave Ike DeLock and the Red Sox their uphill victory.

Assistants Named To Staff; Erlitz Moved Up At Westgate

A Muskingum graduate, Everett Daniels of Pittsburgh, has been named assistant coach in basketball at Westgate Junior High School, Supt. Ralph Betts said Wednesday.

Daniels, 22, played his football at Muskingum.

James Proctor, who taught one year in the Ft. Lauderdale, (Fla.) area and was on leave of absence from East Liverpool High School, has returned and will be an assistant football coach at Westgate.

Bell Picks Up Fifth Straight Mound Victory

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Minnie Minoso and Rocky Colavito are swinging the hot bats for the Cleveland Indians, now that Tito Francona's has cooled off.

Along with Russ Nixon who drove in three runs in the Indians' 9-4 triumph over Kansas City Wednesday night, Minoso and Colavito led the 15-hit attack.

Minoso hit his 17th home run and second in as many games in addition to a pair of singles as he drove in three runs. Nixon clouted a three-run homer, his first of the season, plus two singles. Colavito had two hits, a double and a single and raised his league-leading runs-batted-in total to 88.

Jim Baxes also had a pair of hits, including his 12th homer. But Francona has had only one hit in 14 trips in the three Kansas City games.

Gary Bell (13-9) posted his fifth straight triumph. He limited the Athletics to eight hits as the Indians kept pace with the Chicago White Sox, who still lead the American League by 2½ games.

The biggest blow of Wednesday night's game was struck by Nixon, a three-run homer to break a 1-1 tie in the second inning. Both teams had exchanged runs in the first frame, the Indians getting theirs on Minoso's four-bagger and Kansas City on a single by Russ Snyder and a triple by Jerry Lumpe.

Bell, who struck out eight and walked five, ran into a spell of wildness in the Kansas City half of the sixth, permitting the Athletics to score two runs which cut the Indians' lead to 7-4.

Bell walked two men then a run scored on Wayne Terwilliger's single off Vic Power's glove at third base. A pinch single by Ray Boone delivered another marker. Bell walked Bill Tuttle to load the bases, but got out of the jam by getting Snyder to bounce to second base.

A single by Nixon, Bell's sacrifice and Minoso's infield hit produced Cleveland's eighth run in the eighth inning. The final run in the ninth frame came on Baxes' smash over the left field fence.

All-Star Team Selected To Meet 'King And Court'

A group of All-Stars headed by hard-hitting Bob Boston of the Veterans Social Club and "Bevo" Francis of Highlandtown has been selected to meet the "King and His Court", one of the top attractions in softball, Saturday at 6:30 p. m. at Patterson Field.

Other members of the All-Star team, selected from the YMCA Church League and the City Softball loop, include Bub Hobbs and Don Glass, Chester Christian; Tony Williams, Veterans Social Club; Don Boyd, Highlandtown; Joe Anderson, Bob Dawson and Al Dawson, Grace U. P.; John Clendening and Les Landfried, American Vitrified; Roger Green and Don Thorne, Glenmoor U. P.

Bill Fletcher will manage the East Liverpool All-Stars.

The "King and His Court," a four-man softball team that meets nine-man teams and usually comes out on top, is in its 14th season.

The four players met in the fourth grade many years ago in Walla Walla, Wash. and have been together ever since.

In 13 years of competition, the "King and His Court" have compiled an amazing record of 1,260 wins against 126 defeats and 16 ties.

They have played in 45 states, 7 Canadian provinces and have made 15 foreign tours.

The team began its annual tour in May and in the first regularly-scheduled contest Feigner fanned 18 batters in a seven-inning game.

Feigner, who is 34, does all of the pitching throughout the tour. During his career, he has hurled 121 perfect games and 402 no-hit games.

The longest game Feigner ever pitched was a 34-inning contest which he won 7-6 and struck out 73 batters, walking 19 and allowing 8 hits.

In addition to the regular seven-inning game with the All - Stars, Feigner will demonstrate "trick" pitches and also hurl blindfolded.

The exhibition is being sponsored by the Elks Lodge 258.

Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children and are on sale at Rearks, Heimies, Chambers Co., Head Pin, Sevy Drugs, Oakland Pharmacy, Koerbers, American Legion Post 374 and the Elks Club in East Liverpool.

In Chester at Hersche's and D'Angelos and in Wellsville at Bloors Pharmacy, Petes Cafe and the Elks Club.

Littens Bomb Laundry, 18-3

Littens broke on top with 12 runs in the first inning and from there on it was smooth sailing in an 18-3 win over Woodbine in the East Liverpool Pony League.

While Littens was pounding three Woodbine pitchers for 12 hits, Myer and Gary Shaw combined to limit their opponents to only three.

Dave Myers and Shaw collected three hits each and Jerry Birch smacked a home run and a double to pace the winners.

Littens confined its scoring to two innings, the first and second, with 12 in the opening frame and six more in the second.

Terwilliger Hits 'Over His Head', But A's Enjoy It

KANSAS CITY (AP) — "I guess I'm shooting a little over my head at bat, but I might as well enjoy it," says little Wayne Terwilliger.

In 30 days, "Twig" has advanced from a substitute to a star of the Kansas City Athletics.

The 34-year-old second baseman contributed virtually nothing to the A's this season until July 14, when he got into the lineup because of injuries to Jerry Lumpe and then Joe Demaestri.

Twig was batting .195 when he got his chance to start. Since then, he has hit safely in 18 of 23 games and his average has soared to .302.

Wednesday night, Terwilliger collected two of the A's eight hits as the team bowed 9-4 to Cleveland.

There's no arguing the fact that Terwilliger is hitting over his head. In 11 seasons of professional baseball, he has hit better than .300 only once, and that was in the minors seven years ago.

Tavern Operator Leads Public Links With 69

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP) — One veteran tavern operator led a field of 240 players into the second round of the 26th Ohio Public Links Golf Championship, and another veteran tavern operator paced the seniors' division of the event.

Jim Caspio Sr., balding 47-year-old, fired a six-birdie 69, three under par for the 6,682-yard Tam-A-Rac Country Club course. That first-round effort gave the Cleveland a one-stroke edge over Mike Podolski, 20-year-old No. 1 player on Ohio State's team. Podolski birdied the last three holes to move into the runnerup position.

Jay Krochmalny of Toledo, winner of the 1938 Ohio Public Links title but now in the senior division for those past the half-century mark, breezed in with a 76 to lead the oldsters. Krochmalny, who like Caspio operates a bar, held a two-stroke edge over Steve Rhodey of Toledo and was five ahead of defending seniors' champion Mar Ginaven of Springfield. The seniors title will be decided on the first 36 holes.

The pay-as-you-go field will be cut to 60 after today's play. The best guess was that 154 strokes would be necessary to get into Friday's 36-hole windup.

Back of Caspio and Podolski was Art Todd of Columbus with a 71. Todd tied for the crown a year ago, but lost in a sudden-death playoff to 19-year-old Dave Daniels of Columbus.

Daniels was in a four-way deadlock at 72 with Dick Rhyan Sr. of Columbus, the 1941 champion; Ed Theis of Warren; and Paul Flora of Springfield.

Fourteen others were tied at 73, and a dozen more at 74.

In the only championship decided Wednesday, four Columbus veterans won the team title. Todd, Bill Podolski, Paul Tulga and Rhyan came up with a 299 total to nose out Cleveland by a single stroke. Springfield was third with 301, and a team of Columbus youngsters was fourth with 304.

Cubs Surprise Dodgers, 11-8; Pirates Win

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Milwaukee's Braves may not be the all-conquering champions they were a year ago but it hasn't been the fault of third baseman Eddie Mathews.

He is hitting an even .300, has slugged 33 home runs and has driven in 79 runs. He already has exceeded last year's totals of 31 homers and 77 runs batted in when his average was only .251.

Eddie powered two home runs Wednesday night, each with a man on base, to boost the Braves into second place with a 6-4 victory over Cincinnati. Henry Aaron added a home run, his 30th, and a triple and Joe Adcock hit safely in his 19th consecutive game. The Braves also got a fine pitching performance from veteran Bob Rush, who hurled scoreless ball after relieving southpaw Juan Pizarro in the second.

Chicago's Cubs dropped Los Angeles into third place, half a game behind the Braves and 3½ behind the idle San Francisco Giants, by thrashing the Dodgers 11-8. Pittsburgh walloped Philadelphia 6-2.

Chicago's White Sox maintained their 2½-game lead over Cleveland with an 11-6 victory over Detroit while the Indians were beating Kansas City 9-4. Boston nipped Baltimore 5-4 and the Washington Senators snapped the New York Yankees' six-game winning streak with a 3-2 triumph.

The Cubs routed Don Drysdale with a five-run outburst in the first inning, highlighted by Erne Banks' 34th home run and Sammy Taylor's ninth. Alvin Dark and Irv Nore also chipped in with four-baggers for the Cubs in the 28-hit slugfest.

Roberto Clemente had a single, double and triple, his three-bagger coming with the bases loaded in a four-run seventh that enabled the Pirates to break a 2-2 tie with the Phils. Harvey Haddix outpitched Robin Roberts.

Staley, Lown Subdue Foe

Bullpen Helps White Sox In 11-6 Win Over Tigers

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

At the start of the year the Chicago White Sox were given an outside chance at the pennant because of only one thing — their strong pitching staff.

Today the first-place White Sox are a solid favorite to represent the American League in the World Series—despite their pitching.

Only Early Wynn of the highly touted Big Five — Billy Pierce, Dick Donovan, Ray Moore, Barry Latman and Wynn — has been pitching as advertised. He has a 15-7 record.

Pierce is 12-12. Donovan, plagued by arm miseries is 7-5 and hasn't pitched since July 21. Moore is 2-6 and Latman 5-4.

What's keeping them up there, then? The answer lies in their speed, their defense, their ability to win the close games—and their bullpen aces Gerry Staley and Turk Lown.

Staley and Lown figured prominently in Wednesday's 11-6 triumph over Detroit which kept the Sox 2½ games ahead of Cleveland, a 9-5 winner over Kansas City. Boston defeated Baltimore 5-4 and Washington nipped New York 3-2.

Milwaukee moved into second place in the National League race, defeating Cincinnati 6-4 while the Chicago Cubs were outslugging the Los Angeles Dodgers 11-8. Pittsburgh whipped Philadelphia 6-2.

Latman started for the White Sox but left under fire in the fourth when Detroit scored four times to overcome a 3-0 Chicago lead. Staley halted the Tigers and picked up his fifth relief victory when the White Sox scored eight runs in the fifth and sixth on only three hits. Sherm Lollar's three-run homer was the big blow. Lown pitched the last three innings.

Gary Bell went the route for Cleveland with an eight - hitter for his 13th triumph. The Indians whacked five Kansas City pitchers for 15 hits, including home runs by Minnie Minoso, Jim Baxes and Russ Nixon.

The Senators, who had won only one of their last 23 games, snapped the Yankees' six-game winning streak although they made only four hits. One of them was a home run by pinch hitter Julio Becquer. It came with two on in the eighth to overcome a 2-0 Yankee lead. Ryne Duren, in relief of Art Ditmar, threw the home run ball.

A ninth-inning home run by Gary Geiger broke a 4-4 tie and gave Ike DeLock and the Red Sox their uphill victory.

Assistants Named To Staff; Erlitz Moved Up At Westgate

A Muskingum graduate, Everett Daniels of Pittsburgh, has been named assistant coach in basketball at Westgate Junior High School, Supt. Ralph Betts said Wednesday.

Daniels, 22, played his football at Muskingum.

James Proctor, who taught one year in the Ft. Lauderdale, (Fla.) area and was on leave of absence from East Liverpool High School, has returned and will be an assistant football coach at Westgate.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

The Game Management section of the Ohio Division of Wildlife has come up with a splendid program that will greatly benefit our wildlife production if it is accepted and carried out on a statewide basis.

It is known as a "Wildlife Food and Cover Program for Private Lands".

Now the question is asked of farmers and landowners: Do you want to improve wildlife conditions on your land?

If you do, then here are some improvements you can make that will benefit wildlife and blend in with any good farming program:

1. — Establish living fences of Multiflora Rose to serve as connecting cover between wood lots and other wildlife habitat on or off the farm.

2. — Establish food patches of annual plants on odd areas not used for farming, or improve grass and legume cover on such areas by liming, fertilizing or reseeding.

3. — In some instances wildlife cover such as wood lots, swamps, etc. may be protected from grazing or other destruction by the erection of fencing.

4. The Wildlife Division with the landowner's approval may assist in debrushing strips up to 50 feet wide along the edges of wood lots and the removal of tall-growing trees in fence rows to improve cover for wildlife.

5. — Construction of small waterholes (1-10 - 1-20 acre) in selected large wooded areas to benefit forest game species.

6. — Erection of wood duck nesting boxes on farm ponds.

The Division of Wildlife will furnish planting material, such as multiflora rose, bush honeysuckle, red oine, white pine, Austrian pine, Norway spruce, black walnut and black locust in limited quantities on approved sites.

LANDOWNERS interested in creating better wildlife food and cover conditions on their land may request assistance through their County Game Protector, District Game Management Supervisor or District Wildlife office.

Applications for either fall or spring planting stock must be submitted so as to reach the District Wildlife Office before Sept. 1.

In this district, the Wildlife Office is: P. O. Box 2751, Akron, Ohio. The Game Protector's address in Columbiana County is: Box 202, Beloit, Ohio, telephone; Damascus, JE74282.

Tree planters will be available to landowners this spring on a loan basis where plantings are from 2,500 to 5,000 units. The landowner will supply the manpower and tractor for operating the planter.

On smaller planting, I have some Boy Scouts who are looking for conservation projects on this order in order to obtain their merit badges.

An agreement between the Ohio Division of Wildlife and the landowner will be reached to permit hunting on the developed areas with the landowner's permission for his friends and others who come up to the house and ask permission before hunting on any of the developments.

This is certainly a fine step forward to increase wildlife production and I would like for it to be adopted on a county-wide basis not only for land improvement but for the benefit of wildlife.

Further details will be explained by request.

'Old Archie' Chills Durelle In Third Round

Moore Would Like To Fight Heavy Champ

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

MONTREAL (AP)—Old Archie Moore, still supreme king of the lightheavyweights, today made a million-dollar pitch to Ingemar Johansson for a heavyweight title fight.

Only minutes after he bombed out Canada's Yvon Durelle with a four-knockdown explosion at 2:52 of the third round Wednesday night, the middle-aged magician of the ring announced the million-dollar bid to Sweden's world heavyweight champion.

"Ingemar and I would make a very, very interesting fight," said Archie. "There are some Canadian and United States people interested in putting on the fight of the century."

His manager Jack (Doc) Kearns said the million smackers would be strictly Johnsson's cut.

In the 42-year-old camp's two attempts to win the heavyweight crown, he was beaten by Rocky Marciano (1955) and Floyd Patterson (1956).

Since then he has won 17 straight.

The 174¼-pound champion hurt his 173-pound, 29-year-old rival with a left hook in the first round Wednesday night and boxed rings around him. In the second he let Yvon punch himself out against his blocking forearms, and in the third he went to work in earnest.

A barrage climaxed by a chopping right felled Durelle the first time for 9. Another volley and a right and left to the choppers sent the stricken challenger over the lowest rope strand for 9 again. Another flashing bombardment tipped Yvon to the deck for 7.

Collegians Are 16-Point Underdogs Against Colts

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Head Coach Otto Graham has discarded the unit substitution strategy and will insert his All Star collegians on an individual basis against the Baltimore Colts Friday night.

The National Football League champion Colts are 16-point favorites to gain the 16th pro victory against eight collegiate triumphs in the series. Two of the games were tied.

Soldier Field is the setting for the summer football classic and upward of 75,000 fans are expected. It will be telecast and broadcast by ABC starting at 8:30 p.m. EST.

Graham put the final polish on his squad under the Soldier Field lights Wednesday night. The Colts arrive today and also will have a private practice at night in the huge lakefront arena.

Graham's new substitution tactics are a reversal of the unit system he used last year in the All Star's 35-19 record offensive display against the Detroit Lions. Observers say his decision to spell offensive and defensive players frequently, until all able bodied men on his squad of 49 have had a turn, indicates his manpower is not as deep as last year.

The quartet includes Lee Grosscup of Utah, Buddy Humphrey of Baylor, Bob Newman of Washington State and Bob Ptacek of Michigan. Tulane's Dick Petitbon is also a fine offensive threat but will be used only on defense.

154 Begin Firing In Detroit's Open

DETROIT (AP) — Defending champion Bob Rosburg and Cary Middlecoff, twice a winner, paced a field of 154 today into the first round of the $25,000 Motor City Open Golf Tournament at nearby Meadowbrook Country Club.

They face strong contention from Dow Finsterwald, last week's winner of the Cleveland Open; Art Wall, top money winner for 1959, and Billy Casper, National Open champion.

Others like Arnold Palmer, Julius Boros, Tommy Bolt, Pete Cooper and Jerry Barber are capable of walking off with the $3,500 in first prize money when the 72-hole tournament concludes Sunday.

Wightman Cup Players See Peak By Weekend

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Despite a late start in practice, Janet Hopps of the U.S. Wightman Cup team believes her squad will be in top shape for the weekend tournament against the British tennis stars.

"Our girls will reach a peak by the end of the week," Miss Hopps said.

50 Attend Picnic Held For Legion Ball Team

About 50 attended a picnic for the Little League baseball team of the Chester American Legion post held by their parents Tuesday night at Thompson Park.

Games and contests were held. Gifts were presented to Robert Blake, manager, and Bryan Kierman and Robert Shaffer, coaches. Mrs. Ray Betteridge and committee were in charge.

Sportsmen Seek Land For Recreation

A committee was appointed to investigate grounds for a recreational purposes and plans for a membership drive were made Monday at a meeting of the newly-formed East Liverpool Sportsmen Club.

The club is interested in obtaining land for a recreation site. Anyone knowing of available property is requested to call John Melvin, secretary-treasurer, at FU 5-3628.

A membership drive will be launched later this month. The club is attempting to stage a practice game between two area college football teams at Patterson Field.

North And South Coaches Groan As Big Game Nears

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Both North and South coaches are putting the finishing touches on their teams for Saturday night's Ohio High School All - Star Football Game at Fawcett Stadium. And both coaches would be happy to have another couple of weeks to work on their preparation.

"They aren't nearly as good as I expect them to be," Bron Bacevich of Cincinnati Roger Bacon, the South mentor, said the other day.

"Our defense is way ahead of our offense, and we just can't have much more rough stuff with the game coming up Saturday," lamented Fred George, Cleveland Cathedral Latin coach who is handling the North squad.

North's backfield is just about set with Walter Zingg of Alliance and Vic Ippolito of Shaker Heights sharing quarterback duties. Ippolito will do the punting, and Don Lisbon of Youngstown Wilson will boot the kickoffs and point tries and pair with Leo Caito of Cathedral Latin at halfback. Dave Eckard of Coventry is going at fullback.

End Rufus Simmons of Steubenville, who is rated one of the outstanding linemen in either camp, has been named to co-captain the Rebels with Pete Barron, a centerfrom Rice.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

The Game Management section of the Ohio Division of Wildlife has come up with a splendid program that will greatly benefit our wildlife production if it is accepted and carried out on a statewide basis.

It is known as a "Wildlife Food and Cover Program for Private Lands".

Now the question is asked of farmers and landowners: Do you want to improve wildlife conditions on your land?

If you do, then here are some improvements you can make that will benefit wildlife and blend in with any good farming program:

1. — Establish living fences of Multiflora Rose to serve as connecting cover between wood lots and other wildlife habitat on or off the farm.

2. — Establish food patches of annual plants on odd areas not used for farming, or improve grass and legume cover on such areas by liming, fertilizing or reseeding.

3. — In some instances wildlife cover such as wood lots, swamps, etc. may be protected from grazing or other destruction by the erection of fencing.

4. The Wildlife Division with the landowner's approval may assist in debrushing strips up to 50 feet wide along the edges of wood lots and the removal of tall-growing trees in fence rows to improve cover for wildlife.

5. — Construction of small waterholes (1-10 - 1-20 acre) in selected large wooded areas to benefit forest game species.

6. — Erection of wood duck nesting boxes on farm ponds.

The Division of Wildlife will furnish planting material, such as multiflora rose, bush honeysuckle, red oine, white pine, Austrian pine, Norway spruce, black walnut and black locust in limited quantities on approved sites.

LANDOWNERS interested in creating better wildlife food and cover conditions on their land may request assistance through their County Game Protector, District Game Management Supervisor or District Wildlife office.

Applications for either fall or spring planting stock must be submitted so as to reach the District Wildlife Office before Sept. 1.

In this district, the Wildlife Office is: P. O. Box 2751, Akron, Ohio. The Game Protector's address in Columbiana County is: Box 202, Beloit, Ohio, telephone; Damascus, JE74282.

Tree planters will be available to landowners this spring on a loan basis where plantings are from 2,500 to 5,000 units. The landowner will supply the manpower and tractor for operating the planter.

On smaller planting, I have some Boy Scouts who are looking for conservation projects on this order in order to obtain their merit badges.

An agreement between the Ohio Division of Wildlife and the landowner will be reached to permit hunting on the developed areas with the landowner's permission for his friends and others who come up to the house and ask permission before hunting on any of the developments.

This is certainly a fine step forward to increase wildlife production and I would like for it to be adopted on a county-wide basis not only for land improvement but for the benefit of wildlife.

Further details will be explained by request.

'Old Archie' Chills Durelle In Third Round

Moore Would Like To Fight Heavy Champ

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

MONTREAL (AP)—Old Archie Moore, still supreme king of the lightheavyweights, today made a million-dollar pitch to Ingemar Johansson for a heavyweight title fight.

Only minutes after he bombed out Canada's Yvon Durelle with a four-knockdown explosion at 2:52 of the third round Wednesday night, the middle-aged magician of the ring announced the million-dollar bid to Sweden's world heavyweight champion.

"Ingemar and I would make a very, very interesting fight," said Archie. "There are some Canadian and United States people interested in putting on the fight of the century."

His manager Jack (Doc) Kearns said the million smackers would be strictly Johnsson's cut.

In the 42-year-old camp's two attempts to win the heavyweight crown, he was beaten by Rocky Marciano (1955) and Floyd Patterson (1956).

Since then he has won 17 straight.

The 174¼-pound champion hurt his 173-pound, 29-year-old rival with a left hook in the first round Wednesday night and boxed rings around him. In the second he let Yvon punch himself out against his blocking forearms, and in the third he went to work in earnest.

A barrage climaxed by a chopping right felled Durelle the first time for 9. Another volley and a right and left to the choppers sent the stricken challenger over the lowest rope strand for 9 again. Another flashing bombardment tipped Yvon to the deck for 7.

Collegians Are 16-Point Underdogs Against Colts

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Head Coach Otto Graham has discarded the unit substitution strategy and will insert his All Star collegians on an individual basis against the Baltimore Colts Friday night.

The National Football League champion Colts are 16-point favorites to gain the 16th pro victory against eight collegiate triumphs in the series. Two of the games were tied.

Soldier Field is the setting for the summer football classic and upward of 75,000 fans are expected. It will be telecast and broadcast by ABC starting at 8:30 p.m. EST.

Graham put the final polish on his squad under the Soldier Field lights Wednesday night. The Colts arrive today and also will have a private practice at night in the huge lakefront arena.

Graham's new substitution tactics are a reversal of the unit system he used last year in the All Star's 35-19 record offensive display against the Detroit Lions. Observers say his decision to spell offensive and defensive players frequently, until all able bodied men on his squad of 49 have had a turn, indicates his manpower is not as deep as last year.

The quartet includes Lee Grosscup of Utah, Buddy Humphrey of Baylor, Bob Newman of Washington State and Bob Ptacek of Michigan. Tulane's Dick Petitbon is also a fine offensive threat but will be used only on defense.

154 Begin Firing In Detroit's Open

DETROIT (AP) — Defending champion Bob Rosburg and Cary Middlecoff, twice a winner, paced a field of 154 today into the first round of the $25,000 Motor City Open Golf Tournament at nearby Meadowbrook Country Club.

They face strong contention from Dow Finsterwald, last week's winner of the Cleveland Open; Art Wall, top money winner for 1959, and Billy Casper, National Open champion.

Others like Arnold Palmer, Julius Boros, Tommy Bolt, Pete Cooper and Jerry Barber are capable of walking off with the $3,500 in first prize money when the 72-hole tournament concludes Sunday.

Wightman Cup Players See Peak By Weekend

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Despite a late start in practice, Janet Hopps of the U.S. Wightman Cup team believes her squad will be in top shape for the weekend tournament against the British tennis stars.

"Our girls will reach a peak by the end of the week," Miss Hopps said.

About 50 attended a picnic for the Little League baseball team of the Chester American Legion post held by their parents Tuesday night at Thompson Park.

Games and contests were held. Gifts were presented to Robert Blake, manager, and Bryan Kierman and Robert Shaffer, coaches. Mrs. Ray Betteridge and committee were in charge.

Diamond Rings For The Teen-Agers

The census people undertake vast surveys to ascertain such things as the plethora of early marriages. But there came the other day gratuitous and impregnable evidence of just how young they're marrying today.

Marie Torre

In deciding to support a portion of Clark's TV ministrations, effective Oct. 5, the diamond ring company is unusually confident of results.

"Today's best customers for diamond rings are teen-agers," said a spokesman, "and the most direct sales line to them is Dick Clark's 'American Bandstand.'"

No doubt about Clark's influence with teen-agers! He isn't called "the Pied Piper of Philadelphia" for nothing! Or "Kingpin of the Teen-Age Mafia." Or "Czar of the Switch Blade Set."

At 29, Clark unquestionably is arbiter of the needs and desires of teen-agers, and he has to be believed when he passes along the word that teen-agers want diamond rings.

HAVING NOT HAD the privilege of attending sales negotiations between the Clark faction and the diamond ring company, we don't know just how the sales pitch was made, but recently the young man spoke on the subject of TV advertising for young teen-agers, and, in part, his speech went like this:

"'As you well know, there are roughly 16 to 17 million people this fall in the classification of teen-agers — this is, this year. The frightening thing about this is that . . . there will be twice as many of them next year . . . . It's interesting to know at this point that they have nine billion dollars of their own spending money . . . there are many of them who have more spendable money than their parents.

"I think the most important thing in dealing with kids," continued Clark's speech, "is to remember that in two years most of the gals will be having babies. They will be having their own families. This is only two years away for many of them. . . .

"So, if you stop thinking of the teen-agers as kids and start thinking of them as young adults, with problems, likes and dislikes similar to those we have, I think the whole problem can be solved.

"They are a very intelligent group. They are a little wild sometimes, but I think that the 98 per cent of them who stay out of trouble are America's most valuable asset.

"In advertising for them, be as honest as you possibly can, and they will reciprocate by buying whatever you are trying to sell."

Enlightening? Yes indeed! Also frightening!

ARTHUR GODFREY'S initial television show since the chest operation will include scenes from his Virginia farm as well as segments taped in Hawaii. . . .

Weary of the great lack of roles for women in motion pictures, Greer Garson gives television a try in a "Johnny Staccato" episode this fall, co-starring with John Cassavetes. . . .

Some viewers of our acquaintance who are addicted to the CBS and NBC channels seem to have solved the re-run nuisance. They tune to ABC exclusively. Even though ABC has its share of reruns, they weren't originally seen by said viewers.

THE MOST improbably news item to reach our desk this year came from a public relations man, obviously an overly - imaginative one, who reported that the insurance companies sponsor had pleaded for withdrawal from the Dr. Carleton Fredericks show because the company "couldn't service all the applications received as a result of Fredericks' program."

Just for kicks, the insurance company was contacted, and here's the spokesman's verbatim answer:

"What! It's physically impossible for any television show in the United States to give us more inquiries than we can handle. We get 10 times more inquiries from newspaper advertising than from TV commercials. If we could find such a situation, it would be Utopia!"

Midland Plans Complaint On State Road Aid

Midland Borough Council, dissatisfied with the service of the Pittsburgh District office of the State Highway Department, heard a suggestion Wednesday night that a telegram be sent to the secretary, urging an early visit to discuss the situation.

Burgess Eli Corak recommended wiring a reminder that borough officials are "anxiously awaiting" the arrival of Park H. Martin of Harrisburg, highways secretary.

Martin had said he will come to Midland when he has the opportunity to visit Beaver County. Councilmen intend to point out to him the need for street and highway repairs.

Council recently designated Railroad and Woodlane as avenues instead of alleys in an effort to qualify for repair funds from the state liquid fuels tax but the department turned thumbs down.

R. E. Steebner, borough engineer, reported that blacktopping of streets in Plan K and Orchard St. will begin today. Curbings are almost completed, he said.

Matt Brozic, street foreman, reported that traffic warning signs have been erected near playgrounds. He also said cards have been put up showing times for no parking when streets are to be swept.

The street schedule in addition to Midland Ave. includes: Beaver Ave. — southside on Wednesday night, northside on Thursday night; Penn Ave. — northside on Wednesday night and southside on Thursday night; Ohio Ave. — southside Friday night and northside Saturday night, and Virginia Ave. —northside Friday night and southside Saturday night.

Signs are being placed on windshields warning residents not to park during cleaning hours and to consult signs on the streets for sweeping time, Brozic said. Parking violation tickets will be issued on second offenses, Councilmen said.

Council approved the motion of Councilman Raymond Presutti that Benny Pultanovich of the Civil Service Commission set up a new eligibility list for patrolmen.

Mrs. C. K. O'Hara, Council secretary, will notify Pultanovich of the request. Presutti said lists are prepared for only one year and there are no vacancies at present.

He said applicants should be between 21 and 31 years of age. Previously the limit was 45 but this was lowered due to pension fund rates.

Corak recommended that Council send a card of sympathy to the family of George M. Burrier, manager of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., whose wife, Mrs. Elizabeth F. Burrier, died early yesterday.

Councilman Lester Trainer urged that residents support the circus coming to Midland Sept. 10 under sponsorship of the police department and the Metropolitan Sportsments Association for the police pension fund. Corak commented that Midlanders were getting the entertainment of big cities but without the traffic problems involved in getting to see it."

Trainer apologized for the circus being held the same date as the Rotary Club's Sample Fair but he said he believes both organizations could work to make both events a success.

Steve Germusa, Council president and chairman of the Midland Area Polio Clinic, said the clinic, postponed from today, will be held Aug. 20. The burgess congratulated the clinic committee for "real teamwork" and efficiency in setting up the clinic.

The Midland Junior Women's Club was granted permission to use Veterans' Memorial Pool free of charge Wednesday from 2 to 6 p. m. for 30 children from the Beaver County Children's Home of New Brighton.

City Captain Assigned To Missile Unit Office

Capt. Charles F. Means, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Means, 1030 Railroad St., has been assigned as a project officer with the offices of the assistant chief of staff for research and development at the Army Ordnance Missile Command Headquarters at Huntsville, Ala.

The command is responsible for all missile and space programs assigned to the Army. Capt. Means formerly was assigned as a student at the University of Michigan, where he received a master's degree in aeronautical engineering. He received his bachelor's degree in 1950 from the U. S. Military Academy and served at Ft. Bliss, Tex., at Ft. Sill, Okla., and overseas in Germany before entering the University of Michigan in 1957.

Capt. and Mrs. Means, who have five children, Janis Ann, 8; Michael Wayne, 7; Vincent Thomas, 4; Lynn Ellen, 3, and John Stephan, 10 months old, reside in Huntsville. Mrs. Means is the former Anna Chan of East Liverpool.

School Heads To Meet On Start Of Fall Term

LISBON — A pre-school business meeting will be held Friday at 10 a. m. at the First Presbyterian Church for all county school executives and principals, according to County School Supt. James L. McBride.

Opening of the county schools Sept. 1 will be the main topic of discussion. A faculty meeting in each school is set for Aug. 31, McBride said.

Ticket Fight At Showdown

Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler warned that unless a convention ticket dispute is settled by Monday he will start looking for another site.

Kenneth Hahn, Los Angeles County supervisor with whom Butler talked by telephone Wednesday, said he expects a compromise will be worked out by Saturday.

But, Hahn said, if that fails a new group is ready to finance the convention.

"I learned from a very high Democratic official that another group is ready to put up the $350,000 to underwrite the convention," Hahn said. "It is willing to accept the 1,500 tickets, offered by Butler."

He would not identify the Democratic official for the group.

The ruckus started when oilman Edwin Pauley, co-chairman of the host committee, demanded 5,000 daily tickets to help pay off the $350,000 guarantee. He later agreed to a compromise of 3,133 tickets suggested by Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson.

Butler insisted that many tickets would not be available after necessary demands were met.

He said in Washington he would not budge from the 1,500-ticket allotment.

Burglars Get Skates Cash In 2 Enterings

Burglaries at the Super-30 Drive-in on Route 30 and at the Rollerena on the Unity-East Palestine Rd. are under investigation by the sheriff's department.

Sheriff Russell VanFossan said theft of six pairs of roller skates valued at $108 at the skating rink and an undetermined amount of cash from a cigarette machine at the theater was reported Wednesday morning.

Deputy Robert Beresford and Richard Keating, rink manager, said entry was gained by breaking in a rear door. George Tullis, theater manager, said a piece of plywood was knocked out of a window to the office and the vending machine was forced open. He was unable to estimate the loss.

Diamond Rings For The Teen-Agers

The census people undertake vast surveys to ascertain such things as the plethora of early marriages. But there came the other day gratuitous and impregnable evidence of just how young they're marrying today.

Marie Torre

In deciding to support a portion of Clark's TV ministrations, effective Oct. 5, the diamond ring company is unusually confident of results.

"Today's best customers for diamond rings are teen-agers," said a spokesman, "and the most direct sales line to them is Dick Clark's 'American Bandstand.'"

No doubt about Clark's influence with teen-agers! He isn't called "the Pied Piper of Philadelphia" for nothing! Or "Kingpin of the Teen-Age Mafia." Or "Czar of the Switch Blade Set."

At 29, Clark unquestionably is arbiter of the needs and desires of teen-agers, and he has to be believed when he passes along the word that teen-agers want diamond rings.

HAVING NOT HAD the privilege of attending sales negotiations between the Clark faction and the diamond ring company, we don't know just how the sales pitch was made, but recently the young man spoke on the subject of TV advertising for young teen-agers, and, in part, his speech went like this:

"'As you well know, there are roughly 16 to 17 million people this fall in the classification of teen-agers — this is, this year. The frightening thing about this is that . . . there will be twice as many of them next year . . . . It's interesting to know at this point that they have nine billion dollars of their own spending money . . . there are many of them who have more spendable money than their parents.

"I think the most important thing in dealing with kids," continued Clark's speech, "is to remember that in two years most of the gals will be having babies. They will be having their own families. This is only two years away for many of them. . . .

"So, if you stop thinking of the teen-agers as kids and start thinking of them as young adults, with problems, likes and dislikes similar to those we have, I think the whole problem can be solved.

"They are a very intelligent group. They are a little wild sometimes, but I think that the 98 per cent of them who stay out of trouble are America's most valuable asset.

"In advertising for them, be as honest as you possibly can, and they will reciprocate by buying whatever you are trying to sell."

Enlightening? Yes indeed! Also frightening!

ARTHUR GODFREY'S initial television show since the chest operation will include scenes from his Virginia farm as well as segments taped in Hawaii. . . .

Weary of the great lack of roles for women in motion pictures, Greer Garson gives television a try in a "Johnny Staccato" episode this fall, co-starring with John Cassavetes. . . .

Some viewers of our acquaintance who are addicted to the CBS and NBC channels seem to have solved the re-run nuisance. They tune to ABC exclusively. Even though ABC has its share of reruns, they weren't originally seen by said viewers.

THE MOST improbably news item to reach our desk this year came from a public relations man, obviously an overly - imaginative one, who reported that the insurance companies sponsor had pleaded for withdrawal from the Dr. Carleton Fredericks show because the company "couldn't service all the applications received as a result of Fredericks' program."

Just for kicks, the insurance company was contacted, and here's the spokesman's verbatim answer:

"What! It's physically impossible for any television show in the United States to give us more inquiries than we can handle. We get 10 times more inquiries from newspaper advertising than from TV commercials. If we could find such a situation, it would be Utopia! "

ANADARKO, Okla. (AP) — High ranking Lebanese Army officers, including Lt. Col. Youssef Chemaiet, chief of staff, joined a group of plains Indians in a dance here. Witnesses said the officers made a good showing.

Ticket Fight At Showdown

Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler warned that unless a convention ticket dispute is settled by Monday he will start looking for another site.

Kenneth Hahn, Los Angeles County supervisor with whom Butler talked by telephone Wednesday, said he expects a compromise will be worked out by Saturday.

But, Hahn said, if that fails a new group is ready to finance the convention.

"I learned from a very high Democratic official that another group is ready to put up the $350,000 to underwrite the convention," Hahn said. "It is willing to accept the 1,500 tickets, offered by Butler."

He would not identify the Democratic official for the group.

The ruckus started when oilman Edwin Pauley, co-chairman of the host committee, demanded 5,000 daily tickets to help pay off the $350,000 guarantee. He later agreed to a compromise of 3,133 tickets suggested by Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson.

Butler insisted that many tickets would not be available after necessary demands were met.

He said in Washington he would not budge from the 1,500-ticket allotment.

Burglars Get Skates Cash In 2 Enterings

Burglaries at the Super-30 Drive-in on Route 30 and at the Rollerena on the Unity-East Palestine Rd. are under investigation by the sheriff's department.

Sheriff Russell VanFossan said theft of six pairs of roller skates valued at $108 at the skating rink and an undetermined amount of cash from a cigarette machine at the theater was reported Wednesday morning.

Deputy Robert Beresford and Richard Keating, rink manager, said entry was gained by breaking in a rear door. George Tullis, theater manager, said a piece of plywood was knocked out of a window to the office and the vending machine was forced open. He was unable to estimate the loss.

It's Unwise To Be Careless

Questions Mean Trouble In Cuba

(In this second article of a series of three, William L. Ryan, Associated Press Foreign News Analyst, gives some answers to the questions of whether another dictatorship is likely in Cuba. Ryan has just conducted a new survey of developments in Cuba since he was last there as the Batista dictatorship collapsed.)

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

HAVANA (AP)—It can be unwise for a Cuban to be careless about questions nowadays.

He might ask casually of the wrong person: "How do you think things are going these days?" and be told partly: "That's a counter-revolutionary question."

El Jefe Maximo — the topmost leader — of the revolution, Prime Minister Fidel Castro has a strange idea of democracy. To win Cuba seems to represent the purest form of Athenian democracy because the crowds come out at his beck and call to cheer for his leadership.

Castro rails against dictatorships in Latin America, and it is likely he is completely sincere in believing himself a champion of liberty. On the surface there's liberty in Cuba.

A man can talk openly if he chooses. But if he is overheard, he can be in for trouble. A newsman can print what he wants without a censor looking over his shoulder. But when it appears in print he can find himself in hot water.

There seems little prospect for free elections in Cuba for years—nor is there much prospect for formation of real opposition political activity.

Castro, however, does not appear to relate these things to dictatorship. It's just that he does not seem to permit Cubans any doubt about the road they're traveling.

Some aspects of the developing revolution have an ugly look, though on the surface they might appear innocent enough.

For example, there are the "Patrullas Juveniles"—the youth patrols. On the surface these are little more than Boy Scout-type organizations devoted to fine and patriotic ideals. But underneath they seem something else again.

The youth patrol made its appearance in olive drab uniforms in the big parade celebrating the July 26 anniversary of Castro's movement. The boys were executing a curious little twisted goose-step. They are part of Castro's revolution.

The "Patrullas Juveniles de la Policia Revolucionaria" is billed as an organization intended to "help the police." The youths in the patrol are supposed to inform the police of what happens in their neighborhoods.

In the old days under Fulgencio Batista's dictatorship, such a person would have been called a "chivato"—meaning a little bleating goat, informer or, to put it in the proper colloquial English, stool pigeon. Now they are being called "young civic citizens."

Other ominous portents include the notion of many workers, including some sugar cane campesinos, that the revolution permits them to strike at the drop of a hat for the most outlandish demands. While this may be a temporary phase springing from workers' glorying in unaccustomed freedom it is being used by Communist agitators to foment restiveness.

In some areas Communist-infiltrated unions now are sufficiently powerful to become a clearing-house for the labor force with full control over job assignments and wages.

These are only symptoms. Perhaps much of this will be overcome. On the whole, even among the harassed middle class, there is much well-wishing for Castro's revolution, and much confidence it will succeed in the long run despite gloomy portents.

Fair To Be Held By East Firemen

Final plans for the third annual Liverpool Township East volunteer firemen's fair starting Monday were made at a meeting of 20 members Wednesday night at the fire station in Dixonville.

The men cleared the ball field opposite the fire station in preparation for the one-week fair, to be climaxed by a parade Aug. 22 starting at 7:30.

Trophies will be awarded for the best drill team, the oldest fire truck, the best comic team, the best equipped truck and the unit traveling the farthest. Cash prizes will be presented to the best and second best bands and the best decorated bicycle.

All bicycle entries will be presented 50 cents, firemen said.

The firemen and members of other neighboring departments will erect stands and concessions Sunday. Presentation of a new 49-star flag to the department will be made by American Legion Post 374 Friday night at 8 at the fire station. A new 40-foot flag pole has been erected.

Paul Cunningham, president, was in charge. Harry Smith was acting secretary. The next meeting will be Sept. 2.

County Farmers Hear 2 Vegetable Experts

LISBON — Ed Watkins, extension agent in marketing information for consumers at Canfield, and William Brooks, vegetable specialist at Ohio State University, were guest speakers at the annual Columbiana-Mahoning County vegetable growers twilight meeting Tuesday at the A. C. Ferguson & Son farm near Columbiana. About 20 attended.

A late blight disease is reported in Columbiana County, and growers should spray thoroughly with copper spray or dust including a bordeaux misture, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent. He advised weather conditions further the blight in this county.

Hancock GOP Women Will Appoint Delegates

Plans for sending several delegates to the 13th biennial convention of the West Virginia Federation of Republican Women's Clubs in Parkersburg in September were discussed when the Hancock County GOP Women's Club met Tuesday night in the Weirton Community Center.

Delegates, to be named later, will hear Gov. Cecil H. Underwood and Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr., 1st District congressman, among others. Delegates from Hancock will stay in the Chancellor Hotel.

Representatives attended the session from the county's three districts—Clay, Grant and Butler. Mrs. William Hindman of Weirton, president, presided. Lunch was served.

South Side Post Pays Off Mortgage On Home

South Side American Legion Post 952 has paid off the mortgage on the post home, Jack Moore, adjutant, said following a meeting Wednesday evening at Hookstown.

A mortgage burning ceremony is being planned in the fall. He reported that remodeling of the post recreation room is almost completed and members will report Monday for work night. Richard Trimble, commander, is in charge.

The post is planning a Little League baseball team for boys 9 to 12. Steve Belich is chairman of the committee for the team and for securing and preparing a field. Next meeting is Aug. 26.

Man Killed By Fall

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—John Gorsky, 29, of Buckeye Lake (Licking County) was killed Wednesday when he fell four floors after a scaffold he was on slipped. Gorsky and Chester Huffman of Columbus were painting when a scaffold rope broke as a piece of the building it was hooked on gave way. Huffman saved himself by grabbing another rope.

Fund Campaign Is Launched To Send Drill Team To Coast

A fund drive has been launched by Pvt. Eddy Post 66, Veterans of Foreign Wars, to obtain money with which to send its championship drill team to national competition at Los Angeles Aug. 28-Sept. 3.

Plans call for the purchase of new uniforms in addition to financing of the trip, Al Sayre, drillmaster, said.

A Tag Day will be held Aug. 22. In addition, Sayre said donations may be mailed or delivered to the post home on Minerva St.

The local squad was Ohio champions for five years in a row, winning the title again this year on June 28 at Columbus.

In 1958, the state title was captured at Cincinnati and the team went on to become national champions at New York in August in competition with 19 teams from eastern, southern and Midwestern states.

It has been city champion the last four years and holds permanent possession of the Chuck Stull Memorial trophy, which was instituted by American Legion Post 374. At Midland this year, the Pvt. Eddy squad defeated three other local drill teams.

Sayre pointed out that the team also has participated in more than 200 military funerals.

Citing the need for new uniforms, he explained that this year during state competition "we were penalized one-half of a point because of our uniforms; so we must have new ones in order to properly represent East Liverpool".

He also said that no national title winner in VFW competition ever has come back to defend its championship and "we want very much to be the first to do so".

Wellsville Kiwanis Club Outing Attended By 19

Eighteen members and a guest attended a steak fry and corn roast of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday night in Hammond Park. Richard Jones was chairman.

The committee included Tom Grafton, Jones and Adam Frischkorn. D. T. O'Hara, father of Atty. Delmar O'Hara, was a guest. The next meeting will be a picnic Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. at Roadside Park in Wellsville.

Hornets' Nest Awaits Family On Vacation

Neighbors said they discovered the huge nest built in the gable at the home of Donald R. Scott, 1210 Northside Ave. The nest is a few feet above a bedroom window.

It was discovered Sunday by Carl H. Kevan, 1222 Northside Ave. Kevan and Frank V. Shone, also of Northside Ave., said they had never seen such a large nest on a house.

Escaped Ohio Convict Nabbed On Bad Check

PITTSBURGH (AP) — An escaped convict posing as a doctor was nabbed Wednesday while trying to pass a worthless check in a department store in suburban Brentwood.

The convict, Thomas O. Brown, 24, escaped from Ohio State Penitentiary Prison Farm near Columbus last month.

Police said Brown tried to cash a check under the name of Dr. Thomas Brumbaugh of Dayton, Ohio.

The store's assistant manager, who once lived in Dayton, became suspicious and phoned Dayton. He found that the bank and address given by Brown were fictional.

'Sell Your Profession,' Newspapermen Urged

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A journalism school director advised editors today to step up their competition with engineering, science and medicine for the brightest young minds.

There's an acute shortage of qualified people in newspaper editorial jobs, George J. Kienzle, head of the School of Journalism at Ohio State University reported at the convention of the Associated Press Managing Editors Assn.

"The rising star of science stole the glamor show from journalism, the traditional idol of so many of our young people," Kienzel's report said.

He urged editors to sell the profession "to the community and to the college and high school students who will be the reporters and editors of tomorrow."

Kienzle's report was part of a manpower study by the APME committee headed by I. William Hill, of the Washington, (D.C.) Star.

In another discussion, a baseball executive and an editor agreed the public is getting better sports reporting than ever before.

But the baseball man, George R. (Birdie) Tebbetts of the Milwaukee Braves, suggested newspapers sometimes go too far in publishing details of athletes' private lives.

Youngsters who revere athletes may get an erroneous impression, Tebbetts said, if they read that their heroes have human failings.

Jack Murphy, sports editor of the San Diego, (Calif.) Union, agreed with Tebbetts on the quality of sports reporting for the public.

Their comments were prepared for an APME committee headed by William B. Dickinson of the Philadelphia Bulletin.

Ground-Breaking Set For Suspension Span

NEW YORK (AP) — Ground-breaking ceremonies take place today for the 320-million-dollar Narrows Bridge connecting Brooklyn and Staten Island.

The bridge will have the longest suspension span of any bridge in the world. It will be 7,200 feet long and have a clear span of 4,260 feet, exceeding by 60 feet the center span of the Golden Gate Bridge at San Francisco.

Mills Brothers Circus To Show At Midland

The three-ring Mills Brothers Circus will show at Midland Sept. 10 as a benefit for the police pension fund.

Sponsored by the police department and the Midland Metropolitan Sports Association, the circus will present performances at 3 and 8 p. m. at Crucible Field, Art Petrosky, association president, said.

Petrosky said a parade of circus acts and animals, including a number of elephants, is being planned.

Tickets are now on sale at Bahm's Pharmacy, Petrosky & White Sporting Goods, George's Sporting Goods, George's Pharmacy and at the Midland police station. A ticket sale in East Liverpool is also planned.

Winners Announced In Fair Opened By Fairview Grange

Judging was held Wednesday at the eighth annual fair of the Fairview Grange in Ohio Township, which was launched yesterday with some 100 exhibitors registered.

Canned fruits and vegetables — Bernice Russell, black cherries, and Nancy Sainovich, white peaches; crocheting and fancy work — Marvel Welch, centerpiece; Mrs. Effie Hollabaugh, doily; and Mary Mattiussi, tablecloth.

Unusual entries awarded blue ribbons included a crow, owned by Gary McMillin; a turtle, Barry and Kathy Dawson, and an antique chandelier, Eugene LeFebvre. On exhibition this year are antique machinery including gasoline engines, a cement mixer and a corn husker.

Entertainment featured the Sunshine Boys and the Barnes Brothers of Beaver in two evening shows. The Ann Rochelle Dance Studio of Midland will present a review tonight. Doc Williams and the Border Riders of Wheeling will present two shows Friday at 8 and 10 p. m.

Youngsters from the Beaver County Children's Home at New Brighton were guests and given a ride on a fire truck yesterday afternoon. Art Hum drove the truck and helping with the children were Joe Mikesell, George Henderson and Earl Doughty.

"A good crowd" attended last night. The fair runs through Saturday.

Navy Will Obtain A Husband For Monkey Of Space Fame

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — The Navy is planning to get a husband for Miss Baker, the half - pound monkey which made history as one of the country's first space travelers.

And a brand new home is being built here for the prospective couple—a home that is swank enough for a honeymoon cottage, though not much larger than a couple of telephone booths.

The "marriage" was disclosed today to a reporter checking on the status and future prospects of the tiny, goggle - eyed squirrel monkey that survived a 1,700-mile-long, 360-mile -high, 10,000-mile-an-hour ride through space May 28.

The Navy is interested in a romance for Miss Baker because scientists at the Naval School of Aviation Medicine here want to find out if the monkey's space flight could result in "any abnormalities in reproduction" due to possible radiation exposure.

The room being prepared for Miss Baker and her bridegroom is seven feet wide, five feet deep and seven and one-half feet high. The walls and ceiling are covered with formica; there is a tile floor; and there will be special lighting and air conditioning.

It looks like a young bride's dream.

Bank Aide To Attend School In Wisconsin

Donald R. McGillivray, assistant vice president of the Potters Bank & Trust Co., will leave Saturday to attend the School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, for two weeks. This will be his third year at the school, which requires two weeks resident attendance each year for three years to earn the certificate of graduation.

Throughout the year, between resident sessions, students are required to do extension work involving problems in all phases of banking.

The school is sponsored by the Central States Conference, composed of bankers associations in 16 Mid-Western states. Attendance this year will approximate 1,175 bankers, ranging from junior officers and department managers to presidents, vice presidents and board chairmen of banks from 40 states.

Reunion Of Former School Group Planned

HAMMONDSVILLE — A reunion of ex-pupils and teachers of the former Martin School will be held Aug. 23 at the J. B. Workman farm near where the schoolhouse stood on Pine Grove Ridge.

Those attending are to bring a picnic basket. Hot coffee and a cold drink will be served by local residents at the dinner, which will start at 1 p. m. Aid is being sought in preparing a program of music and talks, Gladys Whetzel and Grace Twaddle said.

Move Into White Area

CHICAGO (AP) — Two Negro families moved into a three-story apartment building in a previously all-white neighborhood Wednesday. Police patrolled the area and no incidents were reported.

Lutheran Church Men Stage Annual Outing

Horseshoe pitching and a baseball game highlighted the annual picnic of the United Lutheran Church Men of St. John's Evangelical Church Wednesday night at the lower pavilion in Thompson Park.

Glenn McGaffic supervised the entertainment.

Dinner was served with John Ruhe as chairman. Devotions were led by Edwin Maloney.

The group will go by chartered bus to Pittsburgh Wednesday for a Pirate baseball game. Members are to meet at the church at 6 p. m.

120 At Scout Talks, Outing

Charles Stone, scoutmaster of Troop 20 of the Presbyterian Church, and Jack Glover, scoutmaster of Troop 19 of the First Methodist Church at Wellsville, were hosts. Stone poured punch.

Guests included Bennett Taylor, new Columbiana Boy Scout Council executive, and his wife, and Calvin Filler, council commissioner, and son.

Glover was in charge of the scouter roundtable discussion and demonstrated foil cooking in a new-type fireplace, the "Dakota." Mrs. Frances Ramsey and Mrs. Mary Jane Volino, den mothers of Pack 7 of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, were in charge of the den mothers roundtable with the theme "Hobbies and Pets." Mrs. Ramsey displayed craft work.

Tom Snow, district training chairman, was in charge of the cubmaster session. A training session was set for Sept. 19.

Frank Larry Thompson, camping and activities member, met with the Explorer Cabinet. A meeting was set for Sept. 8 at St. Aloysius School Hall with movies to be shown.

Next roundtable meeting will be Sept. 9 with the location to be announced. Dan Kelly, district commissioner, presided.

350 Seen For District Picnic Of VFW Posts

Some 350 are expected to attend the annual picnic of Veterans of Foreign Wars District 6 at the VFW camp on Route 30, west of here, Sunday.

John Fyre of Lorain, state commander, will speak.

Away From It All

New Compromise Housing Bill Due

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Banking Committee starts work today on a new compromise housing bill. Both Democrats and Republicans predict quick agreement.

Some members said the Senate vote Wednesday sustaining President Eisenhower's veto of the $1,375,000,000 housing bill sent him in June had cleared the air and paved the way for fast action on a substitute.

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala) told a reporter the full committee would base its new proposal on a trimmed-down $1,050,000,000 compromise bill written last week by the subcommittee he heads.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind), senior Republican on the subcommittee, predicted that Eisenhower would sign this new bill if only minor changes were made in it.

The Senate voted 53-40 to override the veto, nine votes short of the two-thirds needed.

VFW Auxiliary To Give Flag For Sewage Plant

The auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 66 will present a new flag to the city sewage disposal plant Friday night at 7 at the plant office.

Mrs. Dorothy Hill, auxiliary president, will present the flag to either Mayor Fred Lawrence or Safety-Service Director Joseph Ross in a ceremony to be attended by Mrs. Gertrude Ward, conductress, and other auxiliary members and city representatives.

120 At Scout Talks, Outing

Some 120 scouters of the Cherokee District and their families attended a wiener roast following a roundtable meeting Wednesday evening at Hammond Park in Wellsville.

Charles Stone, scoutmaster of Troop 20 of the Presbyterian Church, and Jack Glover, scoutmaster of Troop 19 of the First Methodist Church at Wellsville, were hosts. Stone poured punch.

Guests included Bennett Taylor, new Columbiana Boy Scout Council executive, and his wife, and Calvin Filler, council commissioner, and son.

Glover was in charge of the scouter roundtable discussion and demonstrated foil cooking in a new-type fireplace, the "Dakota." Mrs. Frances Ramsey and Mrs. Mary Jane Volino, den mothers of Pack 7 of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, were in charge of the den mothers roundtable with the theme "Hobbies and Pets." Mrs. Ramsey displayed craft work.

Tom Snow, district training chairman, was in charge of the cubmaster session. A training session was set for Sept. 19.

Frank Larry Thompson, camping and activities member, met with the Explorer Cabinet. A meeting was set for Sept. 8 at St. Aloysius School Hall with movies to be shown.

Next roundtable meeting will be Sept. 9 with the location to be announced. Dan Kelly, district commissioner, presided.

350 Seen For District Picnic Of VFW Posts

Some 350 are expected to attend the annual picnic of Veterans of Foreign Wars District 6 at the VFW camp on Route 30, west of here, Sunday.

John Fyre of Lorain, state commander, will speak.

Away From It All

New Compromise Housing Bill Due

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Banking Committee starts work today on a new compromise housing bill. Both Democrats and Republicans predict quick agreement.

Some members said the Senate vote Wednesday sustaining President Eisenhower's veto of the $1,375,000,000 housing bill sent him in June had cleared the air and paved the way for fast action on a substitute.

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala) told a reporter the full committee would base its new proposal on a trimmed-down $1,050,000,000 compromise bill written last week by the subcommittee he heads.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind), senior Republican on the subcommittee, predicted that Eisenhower would sign this new bill if only minor changes were made in it.

The Senate voted 53-40 to override the veto, nine votes short of the two-thirds needed.

VFW Auxiliary To Give Flag For Sewage Plant

The auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 66 will present a new flag to the city sewage disposal plant Friday night at 7 at the plant office.

Mrs. Dorothy Hill, auxiliary president, will present the flag to either Mayor Fred Lawrence or Safety-Service Director Joseph Ross in a ceremony to be attended by Mrs. Gertrude Ward, conductress, and other auxiliary members and city representatives.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Why don't you stick to problems dealing with heart trouble and stay the heck out of housekeeping matters?

When my husband read the column in which you told the woman to iron the sheets for her husband if it made him happy, he suggested I do the same. I'll bet that slob of mine never knew what a bed sheet was till I married him and now he wants them ironed, thanks to you. Drop dead.—ROZ (Philadelphia.)

Dear Ann: If that male old maid wants smooth sheets why doesn't he buy his wife an automatic dryer? The sheets come out soft as silk and it's easier than getting flat feed by the ironing board—TESSIE R. (Atlanta).

-:-

Dear Ann: You should have told that big ox who wanted the luxury of silky sheets there's more to it than ironing. The fabric is of prime importance. If he wants to enjoy his bedtime like a millionaire let him give his wife money to buy the ritzy kind. I could iron my cheap junk from now till doomsday and they'd still feel like sandpaper. — LOU. (Little Rock, Ark.)

-:-

Dear Ann: After your column on bed sheets my husband asked if I ironed ours and I said no. He said it seemed like a simple thing to do for my family's comfort. I got out the board and told him to try it.

He monkeyed around for 30 minutes and never did get the corners straight. Then he burned his elbow on the iron and swore a purple streak. When I examined the "finished product" I found that he had scorched the sheet in two places. Thanks a heap.—B.J. (Louisville, Ky.)

Dear Ann: Who irons sheets anymore? I thought everyone in the world was on to the time-saving system of folding the sheets and putting them one at a time on the board. If you iron other things on the sheets, they automatically become smooth.—T.R. (San Bernardino, Calif.)

-:-

Dear A: One of the most useful aspects of your column is that it gives people a chance to compare their own troubles with the troubles others are having.

That letter on bed sheets for instance. I forgot women actually take pride in their homes. My wife sends everything to the laundry, serves TV dinner three nights a week and wants to be taken out to a restaurant the other four. I doubt that there's an iron in our home. Thanks for reminding me that some women still keep house.—MR. X. (Akron, Ohio.)

Dear Ann: Anyone who irons bed sheets in this day and age is sick. The only thing that matters is whether or not they are laundered. I can't imagine a duller way to kill time than to stand and iron sheets that will be wrinkled in five minutes anyway. You goofed, Ann. I recommend 10 lashes with a knotted bedsheet. — JUNE BUG. (Fairbanks, Alaska).

-:-

Dear Ann: For once in your life you stuck up for the men. I almost swallowed my pipe when you told the woman to iron the sheets if it made her old man happy. You ain't such a bad tomato after all.—BUSTER. (Minneapolis, Minn.)

-:-

Dear Ann: It burns me up to think of you — comfortable ensconced in your ivory tower suggesting that women the world over be further subjected to the unreasonable demands of their husbands. Iron bed sheets yet! And how many bed sheets have YOU ironed in your life, Dearie? — FLO L. (Utica, N.Y.)

-:-

Dear Utica: If all the bed sheets I have ironed in my life were tied end to end, they'd reach from me to you.—ANN LANDERS. (Chicago.)

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Novel On Washington Scene Among New Books At Library

Proof that fiction can accurately portray the problems of modern life is found in three fine novels on the Carnegie Public Library's current book shelf, Miss Frances Jones, librarian, said.

It has all the sweep of great events liberally embroidered with passion, envy, love, disaster, tragedy, dramatic suspense and literary quality.

Allen Drury has for 15 years been a United Press reporter in Washington. He was educated and lived for many years in California.

A father's efforts to cope with his irrepressible teen-age daughters is the theme of David Duncan's lively family novel, "Yes, My Darling Daughters." In "All Our Tomorrows," Josephine Lawrence writes about the exasperating and heart-warming problems of caring for older members of a family.

The intrigues which lead to war and often destroy empires are explored in several new history books:

Robert Asprey tells of Gen. Redl, an Austro-Hungarian officer who betrayed his country in "The Panther's Feast." August Von Knierem, former chief counsel for I. G. Farben, comments in detail on the legal aspects of the "The Nuremberg Trials" in a recent book by the same title.

Ronald Seth, who was himself a Secret Service agent during World War II, has written a masterly history of esionage in "Spies at Work." He concludes with facts about "Madeline," the only British operative who remained in France during much of the war. She was born in the Kremlin, where her father an Indian musician and her mother, an American and a relative of Mary Baker Eddy, were sent there on a special mission by the sultan.

The romantic eras of the 19th Century are well celebrated in several new novels:

Noel Gerson writes of Empress Marie Louise's marriage to Napoleon in "The Emperor's Ladies." Edward McSorley, author of "Our Own Kind," writes about Irish immigrants and love in America in "Kitty, I Hardly Know You." The crisis faced by the Lancashire textile mills when the machines took over the work of men is the crux of the problem in Robert Neill's "The Mills of Colne."

Those who prefer fact to fiction will enjoy the biographies of three individualists:

Belle Livingstone recounts her escapades in cafe society of the 20's and 30's—the title, "Belle Out of Order;" "L. J. M. Daguerre" is an absorbing account of the world's first photographer. The great political cartoonist is immortalized with his own "Autooiography," in which David Low describes history in personal press cuttings from a 50-year accumulation.

Low has been active through two enormous wars and several dictatorships and the cartoons included are an eloquent testimony to his talent, his humor and his perspective. Particularly adept is a series of sketches on Goring at the Nuremberg trials.

The lure of ghosts and witches is perennial in its appeal. Louis Jones, director of the New York State Historical Museum in Cooperstown, is a devotee of haunted trails and ghostly tales. His current collection has the intriguing title, "Things That Go Bump In the Night." Elizabeth George Speare in her Newberry prize winning story of 1959 tells of the superstitions in early Connecticut. In "The Witch of Blackbird Pond," the heroine makes the mistake of letting the Puritans see her swim. This was contrary to the standards of decency in those days and when she made the mistake of being friendly with a Quaker this closed the case.

73-Day Walkout Ends With Accord

CINCINNATI (AP)—Union pipefitters in Cincinnati were to go back to work today after a 73-day strike.

They voted Wednesday night to accept a new contract offered by the Mechanical Contractors Assn. About 300 men have been involved in the strike and their work stoppage has held up installation of plumbing and heating equipment in more than a score of building projects.

Objectives of the strike—paid vacations and a legal hiring hall—are provided for in the contract. Wages will be increased 15 cents an hour with the money to go into special vacation funds.

Under the hiring hall provision, the union will be allowed to maintain its supervision of work forces but discrimination against non-union pipefitters will be prohbited.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY MEYERS

How To Tell If Child Is Ready For School

These signs indicate that a child is well-prepared for beginning school next fall: He is well and strong. He eats proper food and enjoys it. He sleeps well. He has good toilet habits. He waits on himself and does for himself what he is able to do. He takes good care of his own things.

By Garry Meyers

He has great respect for the rights and possessions of others. He obeys his parents. He conforms to the family regulations.

HE CAN amuse himself for appreciable periods at a stretch. He spends abundant time outdoors and indoors with other children near his age and gets on well with older and younger persons. He participates in the rough and tumble of neighborhood play. He feels comfortable for short or longer periods out of the sight or hearing of his mother.

His parents have been reading to him for several years, so he has had good practice in listening attentively and good practice in concentration.

He has a good vocabulary and a keen imagination. He has enjoyed the privilege of conversation in the family and with neighbor children and adults. He acts no younger than he is.

His parents and other older persons have explained things to him and kindly answered his questions. They have encouraged his curiosity and zeal to learn.

He has been drawing or painting pictures for fun, cutting, pasting and creating things with paper, clay, cardboard, wood and all sorts of scraps and new materials. He has been creating with words as well as things.

HE HAS gone places with his parents on foot, by car, bus, train, boat or airplane and visited museums, zoos, farms, airports and the like. He has gained abundant experiences useful to him at school.

If he is to enter the first grade, being able to identify some of the letters of the alphabet and a few numbers to ten, and being able to count to ten objects, should also prove useful to him.

Best of all for the child who will enter school this fall is for him to be champing at the bit like a colt eager to go.

My bulletins, "Parents Can Help Child Succeed At School" and "Self-Reliance", may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Why don't you stick to problems dealing with heart trouble and stay the heck out of housekeeping matters?

When my husband read the column in which you told the woman to iron the sheets for her husband if it made him happy, he suggested I do the same. I'll bet that slob of mine never knew what a bed sheet was till I married him and now he wants them ironed, thanks to you. Drop dead.—ROZ (Philadelphia.)

Dear Ann: If that male old maid wants smooth sheets why doesn't he buy his wife an automatic dryer? The sheets come out soft as silk and it's easier than getting flat feed by the ironing board—TESSIE R. (Atlanta).

-:-

Dear Ann: You should have told that big ox who wanted the luxury of silky sheets there's more to it than ironing. The fabric is of prime importance. If he wants to enjoy his bedtime like a millionaire let him give his wife money to buy the ritzy kind. I could iron my cheap junk from now till doomsday and they'd still feel like sandpaper. — LOU. (Little Rock, Ark.)

-:-

Dear Ann: After your column on bed sheets my husband asked if I ironed ours and I said no. He said it seemed like a simple thing to do for my family's comfort. I got out the board and told him to try it.

He monkeyed around for 30 minutes and never did get the corners straight. Then he burned his elbow on the iron and swore a purple streak. When I examined the "finished product" I found that he had scorched the sheet in two places. Thanks a heap.—B.J. (Louisville, Ky.)

Dear Ann: Who irons sheets anymore? I thought everyone in the world was on to the time-saving system of folding the sheets and putting them one at a time on the board. If you iron other things on the sheets, they automatically become smooth.—T.R. (San Bernardino, Calif.)

-:-

Dear A: One of the most useful aspects of your column is that it gives people a chance to compare their own troubles with the troubles others are having.

That letter on bed sheets for instance. I forgot women actually take pride in their homes. My wife sends everything to the laundry, serves TV dinner three nights a week and wants to be taken out to a restaurant the other four. I doubt that there's an iron in our home. Thanks for reminding me that some women still keep house.—MR. X. (Akron, Ohio.)

Dear Ann: Anyone who irons bed sheets in this day and age is sick. The only thing that matters is whether or not they are laundered. I can't imagine a duller way to kill time than to stand and iron sheets that will be wrinkled in five minutes anyway. You goofed, Ann. I recommend 10 lashes with a knotted bedsheet. — JUNE BUG. (Fairbanks, Alaska).

-:-

Dear Ann: For once in your life you stuck up for the men. I almost swallowed my pipe when you told the woman to iron the sheets if it made her old man happy. You ain't such a bad tomato after all.—BUSTER. (Minneapolis, Minn.)

-:-

Dear Ann: It burns me up to think of you — comfortable ensconced in your ivory tower suggesting that women the world over be further subjected to the unreasonable demands of their husbands. Iron bed sheets yet! And how many bed sheets have YOU ironed in your life, Dearie? — FLO L. (Utica, N.Y.)

-:-

Dear Utica: If all the bed sheets I have ironed in my life were tied end to end, they'd reach from me to you.—ANN LANDERS. (Chicago.)

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Overdoing Welcome

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (AP)—The sign in the window of a specialty shop read: Shoplifters Are Welcome But Please Don't Be Greedy. The owner reported to police that thieves broke in and stole $1,200 and 60 coats valued at $3,000.

Novel On Washington Scene Among New Books At Library

Proof that fiction can accurately portray the problems of modern life is found in three fine novels on the Carnegie Public Library's current book shelf, Miss Frances Jones, librarian, said.

Allen Drury's "Advise and Consent" reveals the behind-scenes maneuvers of a Congressional committee debating the appointment of a secretary of state.

It has all the sweep of great events liberally embroidered with passion, envy, love, disaster, tragedy, dramatic suspense and literary quality.

Allen Drury has for 15 years been a United Press reporter in Washington. He was educated and lived for many years in California.

A father's efforts to cope with his irrepressible teen-age daughters is the theme of David Duncan's lively family novel, "Yes, My Darling Daughters." In "All Our Tomorrows," Josephine Lawrence writes about the exasperating and heart-warming problems of caring for older members of a family.

The intrigues which lead to war and often destroy empires are explored in several new history books:

Robert Asprey tells of Gen. Redl, an Austro-Hungarian officer who betrayed his country in "The Panther's Feast." August Von Knierem, former chief counsel for I. G. Farben, comments in detail on the legal aspects of the "The Nuremberg Trials" in a recent book by the same title.

Ronald Seth, who was himself a Secret Service agent during World War II, has written a masterly history of esionage in "Spies at Work." He concludes with facts about "Madeline," the only British operative who remained in France during much of the war. She was born in the Kremlin, where her father an Indian musician and her mother, an American and a relative of Mary Baker Eddy, were sent there on a special mission by the sultan.

The romantic eras of the 19th Century are well celebrated in several new novels:

Noel Gerson writes of Empress Marie Louise's marriage to Napoleon in "The Emperor's Ladies." Edward McSorley, author of "Our Own Kind," writes about Irish immigrants and love in America in "Kitty, I Hardly Know You." The crisis faced by the Lancashire textile mills when the machines took over the work of men is the crux of the problem in Robert Neill's "The Mills of Colne."

Those who prefer fact to fiction will enjoy the biographies of three individualists:

Belle Livingstone recounts her escapades in cafe society of the 20's and 30's—the title, "Belle Out of Order;" "L. J. M. Daguerre" is an absorbing account of the world's first photographer. The great political cartoonist is immortalized with his own "Autoiography," in which David Low describes history in personal press cuttings from a 50-year accumulation.

Low has been active through two enormous wars and several dictatorships and the cartoons included are an eloquent testimony to his talent, his humor and his perspective. Particularly adept is a series of sketches on Goring at the Nuremberg trials.

The lure of ghosts and witches is perennial in its appeal. Louis Jones, director of the New York State Historical Museum in Cooperstown, is a devotee of haunted trails and ghostly tales. His current collection has the intriguing title, "Things That Go Bump In the Night." Elizabeth George Speare in her Newberry prize winning story of 1959 tells of the superstitions in early Connecticut. In "The Witch of Blackbird Pond," the heroine makes the mistake of letting the Puritans see her swim. This was contrary to the standards of decency in those days and when she made the mistake of being friendly with a Quaker this closed the case.

Offensive Improvement Key To Bears' Success

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

RENNSELAER, Ind. (AP) —In top shape defensively, the Chicago Bears must shoot for offensive improvement this National Football League season.

The Bears last year finished in a Western Division tie for second with the Los Angeles Rams at 8-4.

But, he added, the Bears also need all the breaks they can get in a 1959 schedule which pits them twice against the NFL champion Baltimore Colts and the Rams within their first six games.

Halas has high hopes that fullback Rick Casares and halfback Willie Galimore, the crux of the Bear running game last season, will be bolstered by a couple of rookies.

Halas also emphaszes that what he calls the Bears' "P.O.M" — players out — offensive setup will be much stronger with a corps of fine receivers.

He is high on an array of such offensive ends as veterans Harlon Hill, Bill McColl, Jim Dooley and Bob Jewitt, and rookies Willard Dewveall of Southern Methodist, John Avent of Indiana, Tony Carcaterra of Elon College in North Carolina, and Bob Coronado of College of the Pacific.

"We also have three fine quarterbacks in Ed Brown, eke Bratkowski and Rudy Bukich," said Halas.

Ninowski To Get Chance, Paul Brown Emphasizes

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—The Cleveland Browns came out of their 34-20 exhibition loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers with two injuries, but not too downcast by the setback.

Galen Fiss, the left side linebacker, has a deep charley horse from being kicked in the thigh and must remain off his feet for a few days. Defensive end Paul Wiggin has a slight shoulder separation and will be sidelined for 10 days.

Jim Ninowski, who went all the way at quarterback in Tuesday night's game and had some shaky moments from his relative inexperience, remains coach Paul Brown's choice to pilot the team for now.

"Jim learned several things against the Steelers," Brown said. "Probably the most important was that he knows now how much he has to learn."

Milt Plum, who handled the quarterback chores last season, didn't get in the Steelers game.

"After watching Milt for a year we think we pretty much know his capabilities and his limitations," the coach explaned. "Sure, he'll be in some of the pre - season games but we want this look at Ninowski."

Ninowski completed 14 of 27 passes for 199 yards and one touchdown against the Steelers. But, more important, he had three passes intercepted and Brown's criticism of the former Michigan State star is that he must learn to "eat the football on occasion."

Brown was satisfied by what he learned during the game—or as satisfied as a losing coach can be.

"This was our first full-scale scrimmage," he said. "We were up against a team that will be one of the strong contenders for the league championship. We were up against a team that wanted to beat us. I thought our people did all right under the circumstances."

In pointing up Ninowski's lack of experience, Brown paid tribute to the Steelers' Bobby Layne, a 12-year veteran in the National Football League.

"I'm still sure Ninowski has the arm and the intelligence and the reflexes to be a good quarterback under pressure," the coach asserted. "He had a chance to watch the man I consider the best pressure quarterback I've ever seen—Bobby Layne. But it took Layne three or four years to make it. We aren't asking Ninowski to do it in one game."

Newark Team Takes Women's Softball Title

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Newark's Bucy Lumber baseball team defeated the Tri-City Cardinals of Dalton 5-4 here Wednesday night to win the Ohio State Women's Softball Tournament.

Hubbard of Trumbull County was to have opposed Newark in the match but the team was disqualified Wednesday when found it had two ineligible players. Hubbard had rolled over the Cardinals 7-1 Tuesday to make the finals in the championship class, but the game was played under protest.

Newark was Columbus district champion; Dalton, the Akron district champion.

Rules For Employers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy Wednesday verified that under the new Ohio workmen's compensation act, employers may not be assessed for any of the administrative costs of the program. His opinion was a reply to Finance Director James Maloon, who had asked whether employers could be billed for one-third of such costs.

Shoemaker In Circle For The 3,500th Time

CHICAGO (AP)—"I don't keep track of such things," said jockey Willie Shoemaker after entering the winner's circle for the 3,500th time.

A week before his 28th birthday, Shoemaker Wednesday became one of a select group of jockeys who have booted home 3,500 or more winners.

He had been riding the last three days in Arlington Park with a foot injury suffered in the starting gate last Saturday. He was blanked Monday, won Tuesday's opener but missed the rest of the afternoon.

'Murphy The Great' To Be Honored By A's

KANSAS CITY (AP)—"Murphy the Great" will be on the mound when the Kansas City Athletics meet the Chicago White Sox Saturday night.

Murphy — it's Harry Murphy Jr. — is 10 years old and has quite a reputation in his hometown of Ottawa, Kan., as a pitcher.

Murphy pitched his Peewee League team to the championship this season. The team had a 7-0 record, and Murphy pitched every game, including three no-hitters. He struck out 90 batters in 35 innings. Peewee League games last five innings.

Hagerty Flies To Bonn To Prepare Ike's Visit

BONN, Germany (AP)—President Eisenhower's pilot proved today you can land a giant Boeing 707 jet at the Bonn Airport.

A crowd of 500 saw Col. William H. Draper Jr., the President's pilot, bring the big jet in for a perfect landing. Aboard was James Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, who came here to help prepare for the President's visit Aug. 27.

The aircraft was the first Boeing 707 to land in Bonn.

Californian Is Cleared Of Bookmaking Charge

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Joseph Anton Kaleel has been cleared of bookmaking charges because he only took bets from friends.

Several witnesses told U.S. Judge David W. Ling they made bets with Kaleel on just a friendly basis, not as professional bookmaker and customer.

Kaleel was charged with avoiding the federal use tax for bookmakers. Patrick Coleman, assistant U.S. attorney, said Kaleel handled $50,000 a month in bets.

Man Killed In Crash Of Runaway Jet Plane

OAKDALE, Calif. (AP)—An out-of-control jet fighter plane was abandoned by its pilot Wednesday and crashed into a barn. Flying wreckage killed a man in a nearby house and hurt his daughter.

The pilot, Lt. Patrick N. Swenson, 24, of Strafford, Mo., was ferrying the F100 supersonic fighter from McClellan Air Force Base near Sacramento to Luke AFB near Phoenix, Ariz.

He said his hydraulic controls failed and he bailed out at 20,000 feet.

This Schoolteacher Often Clowns Around

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Schoolteacher Tom Kelly thinks a teacher should do somtthing really different in the summer. So he's doing it—as a circus clown.

Kelly, 28, has been teaching the fifth grade at Lowville Academy in Lowville, N.Y., for six years.

It was in 1956 that he got the idea that a circus ring would be a good contrast to a classroom.

He wrote of his ambition to Ernesto Cristiani at Sarasota, Fla., and was invited to join up.

But even under the big top he can't get away from teaching entirely. Each morning he holds class for the circus people's children.

There's Lot Of Noise But Nothing's Wrong

RANDOLPH, Mass. (AP)—The predawn stillness of Randolph was shattered today by three explosion-like sounds and a fire alarm.

But everything was in order. Later, police explained that a patrolman heard the three explosion sounds and at the same time saw what appeared to be smoke coming from one of the stores. He pulled the fire alarm.

The explosions, however, were probably jet planes breaking the sound barrier and what appeared to be smoke was fumes from the store's air-conditioning equipment.

Union Will Tackle Financial Tangle

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The United Glass & Ceramics Workers of North America will attempt to solve their financial problem here next week.

"Like a family with financial burdens exceeding its paycheck, we've exhausted our cash saving and sold our bonds," said Ralph Reiser, president of the organization.

The meeting was scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday after the international union's general funds dropped to $89,000 and the strike assistance revenues went below $20,000, Reiser said. The union's main headquarters is in Columbus.

Reiser attributed the heavy expenses to strike assistance, automation and heavy inroads made by foreign competition. During the past three years, the 50,000 member union has been forced to pay about a half-million dollars more than its income, he added.

However, the unionchief warned that his group is not helpless. He said the 112 local have more than two million dollars in treasuries to aid their members.

New Trial Motion Set In Death Case

CINCINNATI (AP)—A defense motion for a new trial for Mrs. Edythe Klumpp will be argued Aug. 21 before Judge Frank M. Gusweiler.

Judge Gusweiler set the date Wednesday after a conference with Hamilton County Prosecutor C. Watson Hover and defense attorney William F. Hopkins.

Mrs. Klumpp, 41, was convicted July 2 of first-degree murder in the slaying of Mrs. Louise Bergen, 32, her lover's estranged wife. She admitted she burned Mrs. Bergen's body.

The jury did not recommend mercy so a death sentence is mandatory unless a new trial is granted.

If the new trial motion is denied, Judge Gusweiler is expected to pronounce sentence immediately. There could be a delay in the sentencing, however, if Judge Gusweiler takes the motion under advisement after hearing the arguments.

How Can I

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I easily and effectively "patch" some bare spots on my lawn?

A. One good way to form a mixture of one part grass seed to four parts of peat moss, and fill in your bare spots with this. The peat moss holds moisture, which is necessary to the germination of the seed. Also the dark color of the peat moss will warn people not to step on your freshly seeded areas.

Q. How can I stiffen organdy curtains?

A. Mix up a tub of very thin starch water, and let the curtains soak in this for quite a while. Then hang up and iron when they are dry.

Q. How can I prevent black spots from appearing on boiled potatoes?

A. Add a teaspoonful of vinegar to the water while the potatoes are boiling.

Big Gain Seen In Cargo Field For Airplane

CLEVELAND (AP)—The chief spokesman for America's multi-billion dollar air transport industry, says the industry is on the verge of a major breakthrough in the cargo field.

Stuart G. Tipton, president of the Air Transport Assn. of America, here for a Rotary Club speech today, said:

"More businessmen than ever are beginning to realize the advantages of shipping by air cargo."

Where air carriers now move about 500 million ton-miles a year, they may experience a 20-fold increase with a potential of 10 billion ton-miles by 1965, he estimated.

Tipton said in an interview Wednesday that new planes now available will make it possible to offer cargo shipments to the public at 12 cents a ton-mile. This compares with current rates of 19 and 20 cents.

2 Killed And 12 Hurt When Lightning Strikes

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Lightning ripped through a field headquarters in the desert north of here Wednesday, killing two New Mexico National Guardsmen.

Names of the men killed were withheld by the Guard pending notification of next of kin.

Col. Glen Lovette, a New Mexico Guard spokesman, said the injured suffered principally from shock. He said all of them probably will be released from William Beaumont Army Hospital in El Paso today.

Offensive Improvement Key To Bears' Success

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

RENNSELAER, Ind. (AP) —In top shape defensively, the Chicago Bears must shoot for offensive improvement this National Football League season.

The Bears last year finished in a Western Division tie for second with the Los Angeles Rams at 8-4.

Owner-Coach George Halas, 62-year-old pioneer of pro football, said today his club has the ingredients to sharpen its attack.

But, he added, the Bears also need all the breaks they can get in a 1959 schedule which pits them twice against the NFL champion Baltimore Colts and the Rams within their first six games.

Halas has high hopes that fullback Rick Casares and halfback Willie Galimore, the crux of the Bear running game last season, will be bolstered by a couple of rookies.

They are 235-pound fullback Johnny Adams from Los Angeles State and Pete Johnson, a fleet 200-pound halfback from Virginia Military Institute. Another offensive threat is improved Johnny Morris, third in Bear rushing in 1958.

Halas also emphaszes that what he calls the Bears' "P.O.M" — players out — offensive setup will be much stronger with a corps of fine receivers.

He is high on an array of such offensive ends as veterans Harlon Hill, Bill McColl, Jim Dooley and Bob Jewitt, and rookies Willard Dewveall of Southern Methodist, John Avent of Indiana, Tony Carcaterra of Elon College in North Carolina, and Bob Coronado of College of the Pacific.

"We also have three fine quarterbacks in Ed Brown, eke Bratkowski and Rudy Bukich," said Halas.

Ninowski To Get Chance, Paul Brown Emphasizes

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—The Cleveland Browns came out of their 34-20 exhibition loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers with two injuries, but not too downcast by the setback.

Galen Fiss, the left side linebacker, has a deep charley horse from being kicked in the thigh and must remain off his feet for a few days. Defensive end Paul Wiggin has a slight shoulder separation and will be sidelined for 10 days.

Jim Ninowski, who went all the way at quarterback in Tuesday night's game and had some shaky moments from his relative inexperience, remains coach Paul Brown's choice to pilot the team for now.

"Jim learned several things against the Steelers," Brown said. "Probably the most important was that he knows now how much he has to learn."

Milt Plum, who handled the quarterback chores last season, didn't get in the Steelers game.

"After watching Milt for a year we think we pretty much know his capabilities and his limitations," the coach explaned. "Sure, he'll be in some of the pre - season games but we want this look at Ninowski."

Ninowski completed 14 of 27 passes for 199 yards and one touchdown against the Steelers. But, more important, he had three passes intercepted and Brown's criticism of the former Michigan State star is that he must learn to "eat the football on occasion."

Brown was satisfied by what he learned during the game—or as satisfied as a losing coach can be.

"This was our first full-scale scrimmage," he said. "We were up against a team that will be one of the strong contenders for the league championship. We were up against a team that wanted to beat us. I thought our people did all right under the circumstances."

In pointing up Ninowski's lack of experience, Brown paid tribute to the Steelers' Bobby Layne, a 12-year veteran in the National Football League.

"I'm still sure Ninowski has the arm and the intelligence and the reflexes to be a good quarterback under pressure," the coach asserted. "He had a chance to watch the man I consider the best pressure quarterback I've ever seen—Bobby Layne. But it took Layne three or four years to make it. We aren't asking Ninowski to do it in one game."

Newark Team Takes Women's Softball Title

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Newark's Bucy Lumber baseball team defeated the Tri-City Cardinals of Dalton 5-4 here Wednesday night to win the Ohio State Women's Softball Tournament.

Hubbard of Trumbull County was to have opposed Newark in the match but the team was disqualified Wednesday when found it had two ineligible players. Hubbard had rolled over the Cardinals 7-1 Tuesday to make the finals in the championship class, but the game was played under protest.

Newark was Columbus district champion; Dalton, the Akron district champion.

Rules For Employers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy Wednesday verified that under the new Ohio workmen's compensation act, employers may not be assessed for any of the administrative costs of the program. His opinion was a reply to Finance Director James Maloon, who had asked whether employers could be billed for one-third of such costs.

Shoemaker In Circle For The 3,500th Time

CHICAGO (AP)—"I don't keep track of such things," said jockey Willie Shoemaker after entering the winner's circle for the 3,500th time.

A week before his 28th birthday, Shoemaker Wednesday became one of a select group of jockeys who have booted home 3,500 or more winners.

He had been riding the last three days in Arlington Park with a foot injury suffered in the starting gate last Saturday. He was blanked Monday, won Tuesday's opener but missed the rest of the afternoon.

'Murphy The Great' To Be Honored By A's

KANSAS CITY (AP)—"Murphy the Great" will be on the mound when the Kansas City Athletics meet the Chicago White Sox Saturday night.

Murphy — it's Harry Murphy Jr. — is 10 years old and has quite a reputation in his hometown of Ottawa, Kan., as a pitcher.

Murphy pitched his Peewee League team to the championship this season. The team had a 7-0 record, and Murphy pitched every game, including three no-hitters. He struck out 90 batters in 35 innings. Peewee League games last five innings.

Hagerty Flies To Bonn To Prepare Ike's Visit

A crowd of 500 saw Col. William H. Draper Jr., the President's pilot, bring the big jet in for a perfect landing. Aboard was James Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, who came here to help prepare for the President's visit Aug. 27.

The aircraft was the first Boeing 707 to land in Bonn.

Californian Is Cleared Of Bookmaking Charge

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Joseph Anton Kaleel has been cleared of bookmaking charges because he only took bets from friends.

Several witnesses told U.S. Judge David W. Ling they made bets with Kaleel on just a friendly basis, not as professional bookmaker and customer.

Kaleel was charged with avoiding the federal use tax for bookmakers. Patrick Coleman, assistant U.S. attorney, said Kaleel handled $50,000 a month in bets.

Man Killed In Crash Of Runaway Jet Plane

OAKDALE, Calif. (AP)—An out-of-control jet fighter plane was abandoned by its pilot Wednesday and crashed into a barn. Flying wreckage killed a man in a nearby house and hurt his daughter.

Oakdale mail carrier Kyle L. Anderson, 68, was killed and Leona Anderson, 21, was injured seriously when the jet's landing gear smashed into the house.

Three automobiles were demolished, a cow and some chickens killed.

The pilot, Lt. Patrick N. Swenson, 24, of Strafford, Mo., was ferrying the F100 supersonic fighter from McClellan Air Force Base near Sacramento to Luke AFB near Phoenix, Ariz.

He said his hydraulic controls failed and he bailed out at 20,000 feet.

This Schoolteacher Often Clowns Around

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Schoolteacher Tom Kelly thinks a teacher should do somtthing really different in the summer. So he's doing it—as a circus clown.

Kelly, 28, has been teaching the fifth grade at Lowville Academy in Lowville, N.Y., for six years.

It was in 1956 that he got the idea that a circus ring would be a good contrast to a classroom.

He wrote of his ambition to Ernesto Cristiani at Sarasota, Fla., and was invited to join up.

But even under the big top he can't get away from teaching entirely. Each morning he holds class for the circus people's children.

There's Lot Of Noise But Nothing's Wrong

RANDOLPH, Mass. (AP)—The predawn stillness of Randolph was shattered today by three explosion-like sounds and a fire alarm.

But everything was in order. Later, police explained that a patrolman heard the three explosion sounds and at the same time saw what appeared to be smoke coming from one of the stores. He pulled the fire alarm.

The explosions, however, were probably jet planes breaking the sound barrier and what appeared to be smoke was fumes from the store's air-conditioning equipment.

Union Will Tackle Financial Tangle

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The United Glass & Ceramics Workers of North America will attempt to solve their financial problem here next week.

"Like a family with financial burdens exceeding its paycheck, we've exhausted our cash saving and sold our bonds," said Ralph Reiser, president of the organization.

The meeting was scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday after the international union's general funds dropped to $89,000 and the strike assistance revenues went below $20,000, Reiser said. The union's main headquarters is in Columbus.

Reiser attributed the heavy expenses to strike assistance, automation and heavy inroads made by foreign competition. During the past three years, the 50,000 member union has been forced to pay about a half-million dollars more than its income, he added.

However, the unionchief warned that his group is not helpless. He said the 112 local have more than two million dollars in treasuries to aid their members.

New Trial Motion Set In Death Case

CINCINNATI (AP)—A defense motion for a new trial for Mrs. Edythe Klumpp will be argued Aug. 21 before Judge Frank M. Gusweiler.

Judge Gusweiler set the date Wednesday after a conference with Hamilton County Prosecutor C. Watson Hover and defense attorney William F. Hopkins.

Mrs. Klumpp, 41, was convicted July 2 of first-degree murder in the slaying of Mrs. Louise Bergen, 32, her lover's estranged wife. She admitted she burned Mrs. Bergen's body.

The jury did not recommend mercy so a death sentence is mandatory unless a new trial is granted.

If the new trial motion is denied, Judge Gusweiler is expected to pronounce sentence immediately. There could be a delay in the sentencing, however, if Judge Gusweiler takes the motion under advisement after hearing the arguments.

How Can I

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I easily and effectively "patch" some bare spots on my lawn?

A. One good way to form a mixture of one part grass seed to four parts of peat moss, and fill in your bare spots with this. The peat moss holds moisture, which is necessary to the germination of the seed. Also the dark color of the peat moss will warn people not to step on your freshly seeded areas.

Q. How can I stiffen organdy curtains?

A. Mix up a tub of very thin starch water, and let the curtains soak in this for quite a while. Then hang up and iron when they are dry.

Q. How can I prevent black spots from appearing on boiled potatoes?

A. Add a teaspoonful of vinegar to the water while the potatoes are boiling.

Big Gain Seen In Cargo Field For Airplane

CLEVELAND (AP)—The chief spokesman for America's multi-billion dollar air transport industry, says the industry is on the verge of a major breakthrough in the cargo field.

Stuart G. Tipton, president of the Air Transport Assn. of America, here for a Rotary Club speech today, said:

"More businessmen than ever are beginning to realize the advantages of shipping by air cargo."

Where air carriers now move about 500 million ton-miles a year, they may experience a 20-fold increase with a potential of 10 billion ton-miles by 1965, he estimated.

Tipton said in an interview Wednesday that new planes now available will make it possible to offer cargo shipments to the public at 12 cents a ton-mile. This compares with current rates of 19 and 20 cents.

2 Killed And 12 Hurt When Lightning Strikes

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Lightning ripped through a field headquarters in the desert north of here Wednesday, killing two New Mexico National Guardsmen.

Twelve others were injured.

Names of the men killed were withheld by the Guard pending notification of next of kin.

Col. Glen Lovette, a New Mexico Guard spokesman, said the injured suffered principally from shock. He said all of them probably will be released from William Beaumont Army Hospital in El Paso today.

You'll Be Satisfied With These 7 Steps

1. ● Accurately diagnose the repairs needed on your car.
2. ● Secure your authorization to do the work before starting.
3. ● Notify you in advance of any additional work we think should be done.
4. ● Perform all the work on your car as efficiently and as economically as possible and replace only those parts which in our judgment need replacing.
5. ● Road test your car after the work is done.
6. ● Have your car ready on time.
7. ● Provide you with an itemized bill showing exactly what work was done and exactly what it cost.

War Of Words Breaks Out In Laos Unrest

TOKYO (AP)—The Communists fired off new charges today that the United States is attempting to convert Laos into a military base threatening Red China and North Viet Nam.

Peiping declared the situation in the Indochina kingdom, where royal troops have been clashing with Red rebels, "has worsened and become more grave."

While the war of words ground on, Laos' frontier with her Red neighbors apparently was quiet. Reports from Vientiane, the Laotian capital, said there had been no significant skirmishes in the mountainous jungles of northern Laos in a week or 10 days.

The U.S. State Department brushed off Red China's charge that the Americans are fomenting trouble in Laos. A spokesman said this is the same propaganda line the Communists have been peddling for weeks. There are 80 American military advisers in Laos, but the spokesman denied the United States has any bases or troops in the little Buddhist kingdom. U.S. military and security aid to Laos for the 1959 fiscal year totaled $22,900,000.
